SONS OF CANADA BEAT RED SOX

Latter Team, However, Put up Much Better Ball Game Last Evening.

In spite of their reverses so far this season, the Red Sox put up a good baseball game against the Sons of Canada last night although they were defeated by a score of 8 to 4. The game was witnessed by a fair crowd of fans who were pleased with the brand of ball that was offered.

Lane was the pitcher for the Sons of Canada while Lines was in the box for the Sox. As far as pitching was concerned, the latter man had the edge and struck out thirteen men to Lane's six. Fielding on the part of the Sons of Canada was, however, of a superior quality and it was this which accounted for their victory. The Red Sox were in decidely better form than on their last appearance.

The Sons of Canada gained their eight runs in the fourth and fifth innings, when they scored four each time. The Sox made two each in the sixth and ninth innings but were unable to gather enough to equalize or overcome the opposing lead.

Prince George won two of the series of three baseball games with the visiting Jasper team which played at the Upper Fraser town at the first of the week opening their tour which Pop Guiles, manager of the Jasperites, intends to carry right to Juneau, Alaska. The first two games proved victories for Prince George by scores of 7-5 and 7-3. The third game was won by Jasper by a score of 5 to 4. Speaking of the Jasper team the Prince George Citizen says: "The present lineup of the Jasper combination is the strongest that has hit this neck of the woods, the pitching staff having been strengthened by Jesse Gray, who defeated the Jasper combination when they were playing against Prince George, and by Nolan, the Fraser Lake artist, who essayed to play the entire Prince George team in the Dominion Day games and came very nearly doing it." The Jasper team also contains some players formerly of the Edmonton City League and altogether it is given credit of being a formidable aggregation.

Several local baseball authorities are of the opinion that Prince Rupert will have to extend herself next week when she meets with these slob artists from the mountain railway town. Others are inclined to be skeptical and feel that the Jasper team will present little difficulties to the locals. In any case, a good deal of interest is being worked up in the games and their doings in the interior towns enroute to Prince Rupert will be watched with interest. So far this season little has been ascertained as to the quality of baseball that is being put up in the interior, so for that reason, the series with Jasper should be a good drawing card. Everyone hopes that the visitors will put up a good game and that they will not fail to easily to the home baseballers.

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF A GOOD SPORT CLEARLY SET FORTH

1—Thou Shalt not Quit.

2—Thou Shalt not Alibi.

3—Thou Shalt not Gloat over Winnings.

4—Thous Shalt not be a Rotten Loser.

5—Thou Shalt not take unfair advantage.

6—Thou Shalt not ask odds thou art unwilling to give.

7—Thou Shalt always be willing to give thine opponent the shade.

8—Thou Shalt not under estimate an opponent, nor over estimate thyself.

9—Remember that the game is the thing, and that he who thinketh otherwise is a mucker and no true sportsman.

10—Honor the game thou playest, for he who playeth the game straight and hard wins even when he loses.

CONCERT AND DANCE GIVEN

Wallace Shipyard Athletic and Social Club Entertained in Great Style.

The entertainment given by the Wallace Shipyard Social and Athletic Club on Thursday evening proved a great success and the program was one of which the committee was justly proud. There was a complete list of vocal, instrumental and athletic numbers and all were enjoyed to the fullest degree.

F. W. Hallem sang "When the Coonie, Bonnie Heather Is Blooming," and "Mother Machree"; L. C. Perry, "That Old Fashioned Town," and "Some where a Voice is Calling"; E. Braggs, "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold," and "Down the Trail to Home, Sweet Home"; S. Ross, "The Rose of No Man's Land," and "None of Your Will Tricks with Me"; and W. Paley, "My Ain Folk." These solos were all very effective and the large audience showed its appreciation of the singing. G. Dickenson sang comic songs, "I'll Knock the L Out of Kelly," and "Hey, Dad, Don't You Know," and W. Wisby gave a variety song and dance. The comic songs were very amusing and much applause followed each of.

Ladies' Singing.

A new feature of the concert was the rendition of solos by the ladies. The singing of Mrs. C. Watson and Miss N. Smith was excellent and was received with hearty applause. Mrs. Watson sang "God Send Him Back to Me," and "When You Come Home"; Miss Smith, "The Holy City," and "Love's Ship."

The dancing in Highland costume by little Miss A. E. Lamont was the feature of the evening. Miss Lamont is only seven years of age but already has several medals and cups to her credit. She was dainty and graceful in her movements and her dancing was in perfect time to the music by Piper James Sturgeon. Her numbers included The Sword Dance, Highland Fling and Irish Jig.

Violin solos by W. R. Jones, "Cavatina" and "Killarney," proved highly pleasing and well rendered. J. Provost, on the banjo, gave very effective solos, "The Old Folks at Home," and "Boston March." J. Tyson recited Robert W. Service's "Dangerous Dan McGrew." The opening number was a piano solo, "Intermezzo" from Cavaleria Rusticana by J. Webster.

Boxing Bouts.

There were three boxing bouts of two minute rounds. L. Eldred, 120 pounds, and E. Grazes 130 pounds, boxed a fast exhibition as did A. Fraser, 120 pounds, and F. Fitzgerald, 120 pounds. The final bout between H. Chisholm, 130 pounds, and T. Sherman, 125 pounds, was good indeed, the latter boy showing some very clever footwork. The bouts were managed and refereed by C. Hill.

At the close of the program, the big dining room was cleared and everybody danced until midnight. J. Smith was floor manager and the orchestra comprised C. Watson, piano; J. O'Connor, violin; C. Pase, clarinet; and J. Prevost, banjo.

Before the gathering broke up a hearty vote of thanks was given the entertainers. J. McCready presided over the pleasant event.
