I'm So Tired

Fatigue is the result of poisons in the blood. So when the kidneys fail to purify the blood one of the first indications is unusual and persistent tired feelings and pains in the back.

Neglected kidney troubles lead to years of suffering from rheumatism or develop into such fatal ailments as Bright's disease.

The kidney action is promptly corrected by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills — the best known regulator of kidneys, liver and bowels.

Mrs. John Ireland, R.R. No. 2, King, Ont., writes:

"I was a great sufferer from severe headaches and bilious spells. I tried a number of remedies without obtaining any benefit until I was advised to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. These completely relieved me and made me feel like a new person. I am very grateful to Dr. Chase's medicines for what they have done for me, and you may use my letter for the benefit of others."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

TREATY WITH JAPAN TO FORE

All Arrangements Between Individual Nations Useless if League Effective.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The question of individual treaties between nations of which the treaty between Great Britain and Japan is a notable example and especially of secret treaties is one that is engaging the attention of the nations. Treaties sometimes are a danger and then again they are a safeguard. If the League of Nations was operating efficiently there would be no need of any treaties except a general treaty of all nations.

The Anglo-Japanese treaty has been in force since 1911 and has at times been a source of strength to the British, but it has also been an irritant to Canada and Australia. Under it each of the powers involved agreed to remain neutral in the event of the other being involved in hostilities and also to try to keep other powers neutral and to come to the assistance of the other in the event of two or more powers combining against the other.

Modifications.

The treaty has been modified from time to time and the agreement is now in force and will remain until abrogated by either of the parties to it.

"Should either high contracting party conclude a treaty of general arbitration with a third power it is agreed that nothing in this agreement shall entail upon such contracting party any obligations to go to war with the power with whom such treaty of arbitration is in force."

As Great Britain has a treaty of arbitration with the United States it has been pointed out that this clause excludes the U. S. as a possible enemy in the event of a conflict between the United States and Japan.

In July, 1920, the British government informed the League of Nations that the treaty with Japan would be adapted to the terms of the league. This declaration which was registered with the League by Viscount Chinda and Lord Curzon, read:

"The agreement now existing between the two countries although in harmony with the spirit of the convenant of the league, is not entirely consistent with the letter of that covenant, which both countries earnestly desire to respect.

"They, accordingly, have the honor jointly to inform the league that they recognize the principle that if the said agreement be continued after July, 1921, it must be in a form which is not inconsistent with that covenant."

This was generally accepted in Great Britain and in the Dominions as a denunciation of the alliance. A number of prominent British statesmen publicly expressed this view. On July 1, 1921, however, Lord Birkenhead, the British Lord High Chancellor gave a ruling that the note to the League of Nations did not constitute denunciation, and that therefore the present treaty remained in force until the necessary year's notice of termination is given. No denunciation of the pact has since been made by the British government, and therefore it is still binding.

Canada's position in regard to the treaty was set forth by Premier Meighen at the Imperial Conference held in London last June. Mr. Meighen opposed renewal of the alliance unless it were recast in a form satisfactory to the United States. He also declared that in the event of the treaty being renewed whether in its present or a modified form, a clause must be inserted excluding the Dominions from its provisions and obligations unless and until ratified by their parliaments. He pointed out that a precedent had been set for this in the Treaty of Versailles and that a similar clause was inserted in the Anglo-French treaty. He declared he had practically pledged himself to the Dominion parliament to secure such a clause.

Sport Chat

The table of official batting averages for National League baseball players has just been released by the Associated Press at New York. It shows that 245 players took part in games for the league in the past season and of this number 117 players engaged in fifteen or more games while 68 played in less than fifteen contests. National League batting history of the previous year repeated itself for both Rogers Hornsby and the St. Louis Cardinals won leading honors for the second consecutive year. Hornsby's batting mark of .397 is the highest average since 1899 when Delehanty, of Philadelphia, led the league with an average of .408. It is a net gain of 27 percentage points over his mark of 1920 while the St. Louis Club, which led in club batting with a percentage of .308, improved its mark of 1920 by nineteen percentage points.

* * *

Rogers Hornsby made the most hits, 235, led in two-base hits with 44, and tied with Ray Powell of Boston for the most three baggers with 18. Carson Bigbee of Pittsburg is the leading one base hitter with 161 singles, and George Kelly of New Yohk with 23 home runs made the most four base hits. Like last year, Rogers Hornsby again leads the long hitters with 378 total bases for an extra base percentage of .639.

* * *

Six players made two hundred or more hits as follows: Rogers Hornsby and Austin McHenry, of St. Louis, 235 and 201 hits respectively; Frank Frisch and Emil Heusel, of New York, 211 and 201 hits respectively; Carson Bigbee, of Pittsburg, 204 hits, and James Johnston, of Brooklyn, 203 hits. Not since 1899, when seven players made 200 hits, have so many National Leaguers reached this high mark. Eight players joined the "Century Run Club" in 1921 as follows: Hornsby led with 131 runs; Frank Frisch and David Bancroft, each scored 121; Raymond Powell, 114; George Burns, 111; James Johnston, 104 and Carson Bigbee, 100.

* * *

Frank Frisch, of New York, was easily the leading base stealer with 49 stolen bases. Milton Stock of St. Louis, led in sacrificing with 36 sacrifice hits. Ivan Olsen, of Brooklyn, faced pitching the most, going to bat 652 times. Six players engaged in every game their clubs played as follows: Hornsby, 154; Frisch, Bancroft, Boeckel and Mohne, 153 each, and James Johnson, 152. A tie exists for the longest streak of safe hitting for Carson Bigbee and Joseph Rapp both maintained batting streaks in 23 consecutive games.

* * *

Nine players made five hits in a game as follows: John Smith, of St. Louis, twice; William Southworth, Walter Barbare and Fred Nicholson, of Boston; Max Carey and Walter Maranville, of Pittsburg, Frank Grisch, of New York; Thomas Griffith, of Brooklyn, and George Maisel, of Chicago. Players tallied four runs per game on twelve occasions as follows: Rogers Hornsby and William Southworth, each twice; Raymond Powell, Thomas Daly, David Bancroft, Frank Frisch, George Cutshaw, Max Carey, Carson Bigbee and John Smith, of St. Louis. Rogers Hornsby hit for the most total bases in a game, 11, making a three bagger and two home runs on June 7. Davis Robertson, of Pittsburg, by batting 8 runs on August 19, equalled the National League runs-batted-in record, held jointly by Bransfield, of Pittsburg, and Cravath, of Philadelphia. The old National League runs-batted-in record in one game was made in 1892 by Wilbert Iobinson of Baltimore, now manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

BABE RUTH IS PUNISHED FOR BARNSTORMING

Forfeits Large Share of World's Series Money and Is Suspended Until May 20, 1922.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Babe Ruth, the star batter of the New York Yankees, will have to forfeit his share in the World's Series moneys over $3,000 and he is suspended from organized baseball until May 20, because he engaged in a barnstorming tour after the World Series contrary to the ruling of Judge Landis. Ruth's associates, have been handed out similar punishments for a similar offence by the judge.

The period o fthe suspension will carry Ruth and the other players into about six weeks of the 1922 playing season.

WANDERERS WELL AHEAD BILLIARD GAMES WITH ELKS

Five games played out of the six in the Trail Club Cup tournament between the Wanderers' Club and the Elks resulted last evening in a total of 953 to 872 in favor of the Wanderers. The sixth and final game between R. H. Shockley (Wanderers) and E. A. Wakefield (Elks) is scheduled to take place this afternoon. The Wanderers have a substantial lead now and there is little likelihood of the Elks overcoming it.

Last night's games and scoring was as follows:

J. W. Scott (Wanderers), 200; C. Balagno (Elks), 151.

T. B. Hooper, 200; Ben Self, 197.

Fred Stephens, 170; Bert McEvoy, 200.

W. J. Nelson, 200; B. Morgan, 124.

Col. S. P. McMordie, 183; J. H. Pillsbury, 200.
