Rumors Regarding Local Expenditures.

There are all sorts of rumors going around in regard to local expenditures by the railway. It is said that instead of building a new roundhouse here, a shed is to be attached to the shack already used for roundhouse purposes and that this terminal is to have no other convenience for the present.

Another rumor is that a small station is to be erected here, smaller even than some of the stations along the line between here and Prince George. This is to be a substitute for the fine building promised every few months hitherto by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway and to be given in return for taxation remission which the company has received already.

There are still other very persistent rumors to the effect that an effort was made recently to break the contract with Grant, Smith & Magoffin for the construction of the new dock and that no superstructure would for the present be erected on the dock.

There is a rumor to the effect that the audit department is to be moved to Vancouver and other departments of the railway are to follow in the near future.

These are simply rumors but they have not been denied and are very persistent.

If True What Shall We Do?

If any or all of the rumors are true what shall we do about it? Are we going to sit idly by and see all the pledges set aside? Is the taxation agreement to be nothing more than a scrap of paper? We do not like advocating lawlessness, but if any shed or miniature station is allowed to be erected here and the citizens have not the grit to burn it down, our opinion of the spirit of the Prince Rupert people will have to be changed. Some drastic action will have to be taken to draw to the attention of the railway authorities and the Dominion Government the enormity of their offense against this port.

Must Not Forget

Children's Playgrounds.

In the multiplicity of other affairs, the matter of playgrounds must not be forgotten. It is the one thing above all others in which the stable part of the community is interested. Every parent wants playgrounds and every child wants playgrounds. It is one of the problems to be dealt with soon. Before the election practically all the candidates expressed themselves in favor of playgrounds and now the parents are expecting the promises will be fulfilled.

Value of Fish

Business to Seattle.

To show how the fish business is valued in Seattle, the following news item appeared freaked on the shipping page of a recent issue of the Seattle Times under the heading "Five Cars of fish add to Business:"

"Five more carloads of fish were shipped out yesterday by J. P. Todd, Seattle fish broker, who caused a big stir last week by sending a solid trainload of 16 carloads of the same product back east, giving the port a welcome sign of business revival. Of the cars shipped out yesterday three are bound for New York and one for Philadelphia. The fifth car went to Portland. The New York consignment consisted of two carloads of salt herring and one of mild-cured salmon. The Philadelphia car and the Portland car are filled with salt herring.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west.

It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

TAFT FAVORS DISARMAMENT

Says He has Hopes of Harding Taking Action with Other Nations

GOOD FEELING FOR BRITAIN IN STATES

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Jan. 25. —Former President William H. Taft, who is spending a month here, said in an interview that the "enormous burden of debt of every country makes it almost indispensable that the necessity for armament be removed. You can only do that by joint action and joint agreements and by promises of settling all differences without fighting."

"They are already discussing seriously in the United States an agreement for disarmament or the limiting of armament and strangely enough this comes in part at least from men who have been vigorously opposed to any treaty at all," he continued.

"I am very hopeful that under Mr. Harding we shall reach a conclusion with other leading nations for an association or league which shall mark the advance brought about by the war toward reasonable machinery for the avoidance of future conflicts. This will involve the sitting around the council table of all important nations and will imply the taking of joint measures to compose differences and to restrain a resort to the unsatisfactory and bloody arbitrament of war."

U.S. and Britain

"Lately I have often been questioned as to the attitude of the United States towards Great Britain. Of course the United States consists of some 110,000,000 people with many different currents of thought permeating the mass. Many different groupings too will be found and there are some of those groups, more vocal than representative of real public opinion, who manifest bitter feeling against Britain. But when an important question arises, when a real issue comes before us, then the sober public opinion of the United States asserts itself."

Union for Peace

"I never have had the slightest concern over the relations of the two countries. We form the strongest union for peace between nations that exists in the world today. We have got into the habit of settling all our differences by means of negotiation and arbitration. The great body of the people in the United States cannot conceive of a war between the two countries because they are confident that any matters in dispute can and will be settled either by negotiation or by the judgment of a court, as with people in any domestic jurisdiction where law and order prevail."

Speaking of business conditions in the United States, he said they were not alarming. "We are a very resilient people and can fight our way out," he said. "Congress is attempting to help in the matter of credits."

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

January 25, 1910

A. E. McMaster, G.T.P. steamship agent has returned from a five weeks visit to Port Arthur. He announces that by spring the G.T.P. will be operating from a point two hundred miles west of Edmonton through to the east.

C. V. Bennett has been appointed city solicitor for a month.

Thomas McGlynn addressed the Presbyterian Club last night on "Robert Burns." H. F. McRae was the chairman.

The City Council is sending a recommendation to the Railway Commission that all the small bays around the Prince Rupert water front be left open by the G.T.P. railway.

The letter from Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, explaining the attitude of the government towards the application of the city for $50,000 to carry on street work and provide employment was ordered received and filed last night at the council meeting. Premier Oliver stated that the principle of relief being put secondary to street work could not be the basis of an advance from the government.
