KINDERGARTEN ENTERTAINMENT

Splendid and Unique Recital Put on Yesterday at St. Joseph's Convent.

The kindergarten children of St. Joseph's Convent entertained their parents at an Easter closing recital in the convent yesterday afternoon. There was a good attendance, especially mothers, and the performance was unique indeed for all the little artists were between the ages of 4 and 6. Their parts and numbers were done splendidly and the whole affair was one of great interest to the parents.

Action songs, recitations and choruses comprised the program and the songs rendered by little Miss Marguerite Manson and Master Billy Nelson were fine indeed, these two kiddies having beautiful little voices.

The program was as follows: "Little Boys' Chorus," "Merry Little Men."

Recitation, "Robin and Crus," by Misses Betty Broadhurst and Jean Wilson.

Action song, "Contented Birds," Little Girls.

Recitation, "My Mother's Face," Michael McCaffery.

Song, "Good-bye to Winter," Miss Marguerite Manson.

Recitation, "My Age," Bob Tobey.

Action song, "Fairy Bubbles," Little Girls.

Recitation, "What Pussy Said," Phillip O'Reilly.

Recitation, "Naughty Dolly," Miss Irene Gavighan.

Song, "Black Sheep," Billy Nelson.

Recitation, "Which One Was Kept?" Miss Shirley McEwen.

Recitation, "Easter Joys," Bobby Orme.

Recitation, "First Pussy Willows," Miss Mary Evans.

Song, "Where Do All the Daisies Go?" Little Girls.

CATARRH of the Stomach FOR EIGHT YEARS

The cause of this trouble is the fermentation of food in the stomach which generates a gas that is very frequently belched up. There is also a rumbling of the bowels and a discharge of gas therefrom, there is constant retching, and the meals are frequently vomited. There is a burning pain in the stomach, the appetite is feeble, the tongue coated, the breath bad, constipation is generally present and the sufferer becomes weak, nervous, depressed and exceedingly miserable.

The blame lies with a sluggish liver, as it holds back the bile which is so necessary to promote the movement of the bowels, and when the bile gets into the blood a badly disordered condition of the stomach, liver and bowels will surely follow.

Keep your liver active and you will always enjoy good health.

Mrs. Agnes Callant, Reserve Mines, N. S., writes: "I had been a great sufferer for eight years, from catarrh of the stomach. I tried several so-called cathartic remedies without relief until a friend advised me to try Miburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, which I did, and four days completely relieved me. That was six years ago, and I have had no return of my old trouble."

Temporary administrators of her estate, going to one of several safe deposit boxes rented by her, discovered more than a million dollars' worth of jewels and securities. This discovery led the administrators to estimate her entire fortune at more than $3,500,000. Although she was credited with being wealthy, even her most intimate friends did not know the amount she had piled up during her years on the street.

During the panic of 1907, when steel dropped almost out of sight, she bought heavily and made half a million dollars.

FISHERMEN WRECKED IN LAKE ERIE STORM

Two Men Lost But Dog Escapes and Returns to His Home.

PORT DOVER, April 12.—Archie Edmondson and Covey Rankin left here in their sailing boat to set nets near Wolley's Point. They were accompanied by Rankin's dog, and next morning at 9 o'clock this faithful friend of his master came whining to the door of his home, soaking wet and exhausted.

Search expeditions were organized, and east of Fisher's Glen the wreck of the boat was found with the body of one of the occupants, Rankin, lashed to the thwart. No hope is held for the recovery of Edmondson, and thus the dog remains the sole living witness of a tragedy of a Lake Erie storm.

An easterly gale sprang up after the departure of the two fishermen. Alarmed at the continued absence of the men—an alarm that was increased when the dog returned home—all the local tugs went out, but the storm baffled their search.

Captain Duncan MacDonald set out with the Jean F. and patrolled the north shore under

WEALTHY WOMAN LEFT A LARGE FORTUNE

NEW YORK April 12.—More evidence that Mrs. Sarah J. Wyckoff Bent, who died a few months ago in her home in The Bronx, well earned her title of "the shrewdest woman operator in Wall Street," has been unearthed.

Temporary administrators of her estate, going to one of several safe deposit boxes rented by her, discovered more than a million dollars' worth of jewels and securities. This discovery led the administrators to estimate her entire fortune at more than $3,500,000. Although she was credited with being wealthy, even her most intimate friends did not know the amount she had piled up during her years on the street.

"THE FORBIDDEN THING" AT THE WESTHOLME

"The Forbidden Thing," playing at the Westholme tonight is perhaps the most humanly interesting and absorbing photoplay of the season. It is an Allan Dwan picture, and the fine hand of the director is seen throughout its several reels of entertainment. Lighting effects are excellent, while the technical details, the atmosphere, types and all that enters into the picture are virtually perfect from every standpoint.

The scenes of the story are laid in the Cape Cod fishing district, and all the human joys and sorrows of a happy or unhappy people run with astounding interest from the first reel to the last. The central theme of the story revolves around the eternal contest of the physical woman against the spiritual woman for the possession of a man's soul.
