

I'm So Tired

Fatigue is the result of poisons in the blood. So when the kidneys fail to purify the blood one of the first indications is unusual and persistent tired feelings and pains in the back.

Neglected kidney troubles lead to years of suffering from rheumatism or develop into such fatal ailments as Bright's disease.

The kidney action is promptly corrected by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills — the best known regulator of kidneys, liver and bowels.

Mrs. John Ireland, R.R. No. 2, King, Ont., writes:

"I was a great sufferer from severe headaches and lumbago. I tried a number of remedies without obtaining any benefit until I was advised to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. These completely relieved me and made me feel like a new person. I am very grateful to Dr. Chase's medicines for what they have done for me, and you may use my letter for the benefit of others."

CARPENTIER MEETS COOK

NEW BASEBALL LEAGUE FORMED

Important Bout Will Take Place in London Tonight—Both Are Confident.

Western International Will Include Vancouver and Tacoma.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Georges Carpentier, the champion boxer of Europe, meets George Cook of Australia in Albert Hall tonight. Carpentier is reported to be in first-class condition and three pounds heavier than when he met Dempsey last July. "Little Dempsey," as Cook is called by his friends, is, however, confident that he will win, and this confidence is backed up by many outside opinions.

The winner of this battle, it is likely, will be challenged by Joe Beckett, the former heavyweight champion of England. Beckett was knocked out by Carpentier in 74 seconds in 1919.

The dance commenced at 9:30 and kept up until 2 o'clock. The orchestra comprised Sam Brail, violin, H. A. Pryce, piano, and James N. Kelly, drums. Joseph Slaggard was master of ceremonies.

In the course of the evening dainty refreshments were served. The committee in charge consisted of W. Hayner, D. Graham, George Millick, Percy Cameron, Joseph Slaggard and George Porter.

Bobby had been studying his old grandfather's wrinkled face for a long time. "Well, Bob," said the old gentleman, "do you like my face?" "Yes, grandfather," said Bobby; "it's an awfully nice face; but why don't you have it ironed?"

TRAIL HAS SMALL LEAD IN BILLIARD TOURNAMENT WITH SCOTS

Five of the six games in the Trail Club shield billiard tournament between the Trail Club and the St. Andrew's Society were played last evening and the Trail is leading by a score of 977 to 939. The final between R. Davie (St. Andrew's) and D. Brown (Trail) is to be played tonight and the Scots are hopeful of winning it by a large enough margin to win the tournament and thus administer the first defeat of the season on their opponents. Several of last night's games were very close although there was nothing outstanding in the way of play.

The following were the detailed results of the games:

R. Robertson (St. Andrew's), 187; W. Barbour, 200.

A. Kinghorn, 196; W. Blythe, 200.

B. Andrews, 166; J. Judge, 200.

S. D. Macdonald, 191; G. Waugh, 200.

J. A. Allen, 200; J. Suden, 177.

IGNORANCE IS BLISS.

The archbishop had preached a fine sermon on the beauties of married life. Two old Irish women coming out of church were heard commenting upon his address.

"'Tis a fine sermon his reverence would be after givin' us," said Bridget.

"'Tis indeed," replied Maggie, "and I wish I knew as little about the matter as he does."
