POPULAR LOCAL COUPLE WEDDED THURSDAY NIGHT

Miss Genevieve Roselle Roche Becomes Bride of Wilfrid Francis Roberge

A quiet but extremely pretty wedding was solemnized at 8:30 last evening in the chapel of the Church of the Annunciation when Miss Genevieve Roselle Roche, second daughter of the late William B. and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Roche, of Minneapolis, Minn., became the bride of Wilfrid Francis Roberge, of this city, Rev. Father P. J. Magrath officiating.

The bride was given away by Harold T. McEwen, Miss Yvonne Roberge, sister of the groom, attended the bride and Milton Gonzales was best man. Little Helen Shirley McEwen acted as ring-bearer.

The bride looked very smart indeed in her travelling costume of navy blue maroon, the coat of which opened over a blouse of white tulle and an ermine capelet. She carried a white prayer book and wore a corsage of white roses.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McEwen, Summit Apartments, where a quaint wedding supper was served after which the young couple left on the steamer Prince George for a month's tour which will include the cities of Vancouver, Seattle, Portland, Calgary and Edmonton. On their return to Prince Rupert they will take up their residence on Atlin Avenue, Westview.

GIRL WOULD NOT OWN HER MOTHER

Dramatic Interest in Picture "Branded" Showing at Westholme Theatre Tonight

What would your attitude toward your mother be in spite of her innocence she was convicted of murder and sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment?

Would you wait for her with open arms, or would you only remember her to curse her for having brought your name into the limelight of publicity and possibly ruined your chances of marriage? This sums up in a few words the dramatic interest in a new "British Mastercraft" production, "Branded" which is to be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight and tomorrow.

It is perhaps, the most poignant moment of the film, when, on her release from prison, the careworn mother, who had been once a very beautiful woman, finds only the arms of her youngest daughter stretched out to welcome her. The poignancy comes in the realization that the other, the elder daughter, is not there—that she has not troubled herself about her mother's homecoming because she is too busy attending to her own vain desires and selfish pleasures. To say that this daughter is unscrupulous is to be polite in character of vice egotism. Her conduct, both in the matter of her mother and in her matrimonial adventures, is

CURE FOR COLDS PUT IN PRACTICAL FORM

Convenient, Easily Taken Capsule Contains Full Formula for Cure of Colds

The drugs that have proved their effectiveness as a cure for colds are prescribed in practically the same formula by all doctors. It has been the work of Grip Fix to put this formula in the safe and convenient form of a capsule, making the remedy an ideal one for home use and giving quick results in even severe cases of cold or grippe. This formula, as every druggist knows, is composed of asperin, phenacetin, quinine, salol, caffeine, citrate, cascara and capsaicin moderate, a combination of drugs particularly efficacious for reducing the fever, slaying the pain in muscles and conditioning the system.

With Grip Fix, the capsule preparation, you can use this remedy with most convenience and least expense, and with decidedly quicker results. A case of cold can be cured in a night with Grip Fix, while that of grippe is mastered in forty-eight hours.

Make sure you get the genuine Grip Fix, which has the formula printed on the box; on sale at Orme's Drug Store Ltd. 25c a box.

beneath contempt. All this is a tribute to the wonderful acting of Miss Josephine Earle, who not only portrays the terrible character of the daughter with realism, but has also added considerably to her reputation by playing the contrasting role of the gentle mother herself.

INTERESTING BOOK ON PREMIER KING

"The Making of a Premier," by O. E. McGillivray, is Fine Exposition of Active and Useful Career

"The Making of a Premier," a timely book from the pen of Owen E. McGillivray, setting forth the life history, personality and achievements of Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, premier of Canada, has just made its appearance to the public. The book is heralded by Canadians, regardless of political opinion, as one of the most important short biographies published in Canada for a number of years. Since Mr. King's career makes admirable material for interesting reading at this time, the new book will doubtless be one of the most widely read and talked of non-fiction books in Canada this year.

Mr. McGillivray handles his material in an admirable manner and the abundance of personal references and intimate knowledge that is given makes the book one of greatest interest. The career of the Premier from the time he left the family roof to seek out remedies for social economic problems until the present day is intimately described in detail and in a manner that is most pleasing. The book is also finely illustrated with several new pictures.

C. C. Mills, manager of the Kelly, Douglas Co., left last night for Vancouver on the Prince George for a business trip.

The smallest golf course in England has recently been opened in the center of a London suburb. It has an area of one and one-half acres. The course has been laid out on the side of a hill, so that there are many steep slopes and, despite the limited space, golfers may indulge in every stroke of the game.

Applications for four world speed records for motor cycling are to be made as a result of recent races on the Brooklands track near London, England, by J. H. Mathers and R. E. Dickier, who in turn rode a Rudge 7.9 h.p. cycle.

The results were six hours, 150 miles 613 yards, at 21.22 miles per hour; 500 miles at 71.96 miles per hour, and 600 miles at 71.27 miles per hour. For the 500 and 600 miles respectively the previous best results are 70.42 and 62.05 miles per hour.

Italian tennis circles are awaiting with interest the exploits of Allied Tennis Federations to invitations extended to them by the Italian Lawn Tennis Federation to send teams to participate in the international Hard-court Tournament to be held in Rome next May.

The reply of Germany has already been received, and is in the affirmative. Kleinow, who was playing in his best form just now will captain the German team. He is regarded by many experts as the best single player in Europe at the present time. Count Salm, of Austria, is expected to lead the Austrians. The feeling is that Belgium, England and France will abstain but that Spain will send its Davis Cup team, the Alonzo brothers, Maquer and Count de Gomar.

Miss Cecil Leitch, the former British woman golf champion, is at present in the hands of a specialist for treatment of her arm, and she has said recently that she could not define her prospects in the matter of playing in the next ladies' championship games.

Regarding her tour last summer in Canada and the United States, Miss Leitch declares it was purely of a private nature. She was particularly impressed with women's golf in the Dominion. Of the outstanding players in Canada, Miss Ada Mackenzie and Miss Pepper were probably the greatest.
