SHOWS THIS WEEK AT LOCAL THEATRE

Monday and Tuesday, "A Perfect Crime."
Wednesday and Thursday, "Bits of Life."
Friday and Saturday, "The Call of the North"

Negotiations are proceeding for the sale of the chain of Alben theatres in Canada to the Famous Players Corporation. There are also other theatrical concerns trying to get control of the houses.

Sunday picture shows are being prohibited in Tampa, Florida and there is an outcry in that city against "Blue Sundays." The sheriff is in a difficult position. On the one hand he is threatened with removal if he does not put the law into effect and on the other the anti-blue crowd are after his scalp.

Percy Marmont, the English actor is to take the leading part in the screening of the popular novel "If Winter Comes." He will work in collaboration with A. S. M. Hutchinson, the author. Harry Millard is to direct the picture which should be ready for showing this autumn.

In spite of his matrimonial publicity Rudolph Valentino continues to be the man that all the girls admire in the movies.

The triumph of a chiropractor over old time medical science is shown in the new picture "Three Weeks Off," a comedy ending with the recovery of a youth under the hands of a chiropractor.

Great preparations are being made for the opening of the autumn picture season. The tendency is to make better pictures but not so many as formerly. Second rate films are remaining on the hands of the dealers whereas there is always a demand for the best, even at high prices.

One of the most popular pictures is the Adventures of Sherlock Holmes, the famous detective stories of Sir Arthur Conan

Doyle, played in life on the screen. They promise to fill many a movie house during the coming autumn and winter.

It costs a lot even to build shacks, if you wish to build them right. That Mary Pickford has found in erecting her fishing village on the shore of Chatsworth Lake. The outdoor scenes in her new play are made there and the indoor "closeups" at the studio at Hollywood.

Dickens' admirers are eagerly awaiting the showing of Oliver Twist with Jackie Coogan as star. The film is just being released and should be seen on this coast soon. One of Jackie's other pictures is "My Boy."

Charlie Chaplin is working on a new comedy but he is saying little about it. It will be sprung on the public without much advance advertising for Chaplin's name is still one to conjure with at the movie houses.

Norma Talmadge is working on a new play "The Eternal Flame."

Freddie Barry is still doing duty but unfortunately for his success he is bound to grow.

PRINCE OF LIARS HAS HERO ROLE

Oh, boy! how he can lie! "A Perfect Crime," Allan Dwan's second picture for Associated Producers, has a lying hero who provides some of the best laughs of the season and ruffles your emotions to an alarming extent. The picture is quite the most human of any of the string of successes which Mr. Dwan has given the public.

It combines humor with pathos and builds in interest as well as presenting for your delight a number of clever characterizations. The story is simple and deliciously real.

Monte Blue, one of the most able actors of the screen has the role of Wally Griggs, an awkward, bashful fellow of unromantic meanness. He quite suddenly decides to rob the bank where he is employed as messenger! From this weighty decision to "finis" the picture is rich in humor and human interest. For Dwan's forte is in doing the human thing in the most direct way. The picture forces the tears to the eye as frequently as it sends you into spasms of laughter. It is its steady onslaught to your emotions which you'll enjoy.

The most amusing scene is where the scraggly messenger suddenly blossoms into a dashing fellow who invents the most pleasing lies. It's all part of the plan to rob the bank, but it turns out differently than he expected. He becomes a social lion, the author of a book on amazing faked travels and the champion of a girl who is pursued by an unscrupulous district attorney. The surprise climax must be seen to be appreciated.

MORALS AND ART TO BE CONSIDERED IN MAKING PICTURES

The largest motion picture producers and distributors in America have banded themselves together to enforce "the highest possible moral and artistic standards in motion-picture production" directly in the studios of the great producing centers. This marks the first big constructive step undertaken to enforce the program to which the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America formally dedicated itself at the time of its organization some months ago. This program is definitely stated in the Articles of Association as one designed "to foster the common interest of those engaged in the motion-picture industry in the United States, by establishing and maintaining the highest possible moral and artistic standards in motion picture production."

LAY MORE BRICKS BUT THROW FEWER

That is Advice of Movie Man to Capitalists Who Should Invest in Amusement

In an address before the Bond Club of New York at a luncheon held June 6, Will H. Hays stated that nothing has greater possibilities than the motion picture industry and that it must take the place its responsibilities deserve, managed economically and financed by owners of securities all over the country.

Mr. Hays reiterated his previous statement that unless people are properly entertained this country may go red, and stated that motion pictures are the sole amusement of 20,000,000 persons. He repeated his prediction that the greatest era of prosperity the world has seen is at hand and advised his hearers to lay more bricks and throw fewer.
