LONDON NEWS ANNOUNCES THAT CANADIAN STATESMAN ACCEPTS CALL TO HEAD NEW GOVERNMENT.

debate might have meant the downfall of the ministry.

Great Statesman

His services as government leader in the House of Commons, a more difficult and thankless position than that of the leader of the opposition, has placed Bonar Law high among his illustrious predecessors. Disraeli, Gladstone, Campbell-Bannerman and A. J. Balfour.

News of his retirement due to ill health in the spring of 1921, came as a shock to his colleagues and tributes to his work were paid even by former bitterest opponents. Former Premier Asquith said: "I have for many years been engaged in giving and taking blows from Mr. Bonar Law but they never left any rancor behind them." Lloyd George, in reading the retiring Chancellor's letter of resignation repeatedly choked back sobs and expressed the hope that his friend might return to his duties after a prolonged rest. Finally the premier, who had been so courageous and powerful in the conduct of the war, sank back into his seat with a gesture indicating his inability to continue.

Bonar Law's breakdown dated from shortly before the Paris Peace Conference of 1919 which he attended as one of the British delegates.

Positive Disposition

The disposition of Bonar Law to take the most positive stand on grave public questions has of-
