LOCAL MAN GAVE VAL CORMIER ALL HE COULD HANDLE AT SNOOKER

Val, Cormier, better known as the "Flying Frenchman" and snooker champion of Canada, had a hard fight to beat A. M. Hutchinson four games out of seven in the exhibition games last night at the Prince Rupert Billiard parlors. The total score found Hutchinson in the lead with 313 points against Cormier's 309 counters though the latter won on games, 4 to 3.

Cormier lost the first game, won the next two, lost the fourth and fifth and then came back to lead in the last two. He was noticeably out of form while Hutchinson won his matches with apparent ease before the large crowd of fans who witnessed the matches.

The champion boasts of a break of over one hundred but his highest last night was 27 while Hutchinson registered 22 points once. Al. Field, of Vancouver, made an excellent referee.

I suffered terribly with Dyspepsia. I had it for years and all the medicines I took did not do me any good. I read something about "Fruit-a-tives" being good for all Stomach Trouble and Disorders of Digestion, so I tried them.

After finishing a few boxes, I was entirely relieved of the Dyspepsia and my general health was restored; and I am writing to tell you that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives".

PEACE AMONG MOHAMMEDANS

Vice Roy of India Speaks Gratifyingly in Opening Indian Legislature

SIMLA, India, Nov. 10. — In opening the autumn session of the Indian Legislature here this month, Lord Reading, Viceroy of India, spoke gratifyingly of the pacification of the Mohammedan elements and the establishment of cordial relations with border powers. He also emphasized the need for financial retrenchment, and spoke optimistically of the future of the Reforms.

Referring to the Mohammedan question of the Khalifat, Lord Reading said: "In the domain of external affairs, the subject uppermost in our minds is the proposed revision of the treaty of Sevres. I can now add little to the statement that I made at Peshawar in April last, save to assure you that every stage in the development is followed by my government with a keen and watchful interest, and whatever action we can with propriety adopt to lay before the British government the reasonable aspirations of the Moslems of India regarding these developments we have taken, and shall not fail to take."

Government Acknowledged
"It is gratifying to observe that the activities of my government have not been without effect upon the Moslem population of India, who have readily acknowledged and appreciated that my government has done its utmost to impress the Indian Mohammedan view upon His Majesty's government."

"At this moment negotiations are proceeding with the object of arriving at a solution of this difficult and delicate problem, and it is therefore undesirable for me to discuss the situation. I will only remind you that, as already stated by His Majesty's government, the representations will be fully considered and due weight will be attached to them by His Majesty's government in so far as these are compatible with justice, their obligations to their Allies and the adequate safeguarding of minorities. It is most earnestly to be hoped that these efforts of His Majesty's government and its Allies will shortly result in the complete restoration of peace to the Near East."

The Viceroy's words aroused frequent expressions of approval from various parts of the assembled houses.

Soft (?) Answer
He—I suppose when all women vote the party managers will have to put handsome men on their tickets for candidates.

She—What makes you think women will demand handsome men to vote for when you look at the kind most of them marry.

—Farmer and Breeder.
