GOOD WORK DONE AT PRINCE GEORGE IN IMPROVING STREETS

F. G. Dawson Refuses to Comment on Appointment—Does Business in Interior

F. G. Dawson, whose appointment to the directorship of the Canadian National Railways was recorded this week, returned last night from Prince George. In the absence of an official announcement, he refused to comment on the appointment.

Mr. Dawson was several days in Prince George cleaning up an estate in which his firm was interested. He sold the McKay grocery stock, fixtures and property for the benefit of the creditors to C. C. Reid. He also sold the Reid building to Austin & Co. wholesalers.

Speaking of the improvement of Prince George, Mr. Dawson said that they had done some excellent work on the streets and Mayor Johnson was to be congratulated on the splendid results obtained. The work was all done for less than estimates with the result that much more was done than was originally intended.

LIMERICKS COME IN

Already Deal of Interest Being Taken in Competition.

Limericks are coming in and will be published as soon as convenient. Some of them are good and others not so good. If a limerick is not published it is probably not good enough and could not get a prize.

Remember the first prize is ten dollars and there are second and third prizes. People who think they can write a better limerick about the movies than those already published should try. It costs nothing. Following are a few of those already received:

Lovely Louise.

You've all heard of Lovely Louise
Makes you feel that you just like to tease.

But she'd look with contempt
Should you make the attempt.
For she'd rather her waist you would squeeze.

Lost His Money.

There once was an actor so funny,
Bought a car for himself with his money.

But he should have bought two one for dear Lindy Loo,
But he didn't, so Chap lost his "Honey."

Still Life.

Harold Lloyd said to Bebe one day,
I wish I'd a little more pay
I'd build a big still
On the top of a hill
And we'd sing Ta Ra Ra Boom de aye.

Some pictures we see are so good

For the brain they make excellent food.

The best of the kind
Develop the mind
We should study them all that we could.

When the name of Talmadge appears

It drives away all our fears.

For the picture we know
Will make a good show,
And our laughter will mix with our tears.

MCARTHUR TO BUILD MILL PRINCE GEORGE

Said to Have Tied Up with Pulp and Paper People.

Word was received at Prince George on Tuesday that J. D. McArthur the railway man was prepared to go ahead with the construction of the mill on the property recently acquired by him on the banks of the Fraser River, according to F. G. Dawson, who returned last night from a business visit to that town.

Mr. Dawson says it is understood at Prince George that Mr. McArthur has joined forces with the Pulp and Paper Company that has been proposing to operate at that point and that the sawmill is the beginning of the larger industry.

Mr. McArthur has been disposing of some of his interests in the east and is turning his attention to the west. His railway, the Edmonton, Dunvegan and British Columbia was recently leased to the C. P. R. with an option to purchase and it is understood they will take up the option. If the deal goes through Mr. McArthur gets about six million dollars as his share.

Naturally the people of the interior centre are enthused over the outlook and there is prospect of increased interest being taken in that district.

MONTREAL BOARD OF TRADE EXCURSIONIST DIED IN VANCOUVER

One sad event marred the Western tour of the Montreal Board of Trade, it being the death of Bernard McNally, of Montreal, one of the party, who died in Vancouver on Saturday afternoon. The deceased had been taken sick while enroute from Victoria to Vancouver and was removed to the hospital at the latter place before the party left for Prince Rupert. It was found that death was due to uraemia. Mrs. McNally was with her husband to the end and is now accompanying the remains to Montreal. Deceased was one of the most popular members of the party.

WALTER JAYNES WAS AFTER BIRDS WHEN HE FELL OVER HIS GUN

Terrace People Extend Sympathy to Bereaved Wife and Son.

TERRACE, Sept. 28.—The death of Walter Jaynes, the barber, which took place here yesterday as the result of an accident, his gun going off accidentally, has caused a flutter of excitement in the district and a general feeling of regret at the loss of a good citizen and of sympathy with Mrs. Jaynes and son.

Mr. Jaynes owns a small ranch on the bench just above the town and when down to the creek for water yesterday morning, noticed some grouse. He returned to the house for his gun and, accompanied by his wife, set out to get a shot at the birds. He was walking ahead of his wife when he stumbled and fell, discharging the gun as he did so, the contents of the barrel piercing his breast.

Mrs. Jaynes ran to their nearest neighbor, Mr. Vigor, who immediately called in other neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jaynes came to Terrace about two years ago and had started a chicken and fruit ranch and were doing well. They had made a number of friends since they arrived. The son Bruce is employed by the railway on construction work. He is 29 years of age and was overseas for four years and was badly wounded, having only recently completely recovered. The family originally came from Nova Scotia.

About 75 ladies called in the course of the afternoon and the very satisfactory sum of $17 was realized. The house was prettily decorated with flowers from the hostess' garden.

LONG WAY FROM HOME BUT HAD TO PAY FINE

OTTAWA, Sept. 27.—Ottawa has its little Oriental problem as well as the west. Three Chinese were caught with opium in possession there and the ring-leader fined $100 while the others were ordered to pay $250 or go to jail for three months. The defense was that the Chinese were a long way from home in a strange land where strange customs held sway. They were used to their nightcap of opium and to prevent them getting it was like depriving a man of his whiskey. He asked for leniency but little was given.
