WEEK AT THE THEATRES

Monday and Tuesday,
Viola Dana in "There are no Villains." Comedy—Snub Pollard in "Down and Out."
Wednesday and Thursday
—To be announced.
Friday and Saturday,
Dorothy Phillips in "Hurricane's Gal," Comedy.

Douglas Fairbanks' picture "The Three Musketeers," one of the biggest and most popular productions of the year, will be exhibited at the Westholme Theatre in about three weeks' time.

"There Are no Villains," the picture at the Westholme Theatre tonight starring Viola Dana, is a story of mystery and intrigue involving two sorts of ringleaders—wedding and opium. It abounds with delightfully baffling situations.

Dorothy Phillips, a star who is rapidly gaining popularity, has the title role in "Hurricane's Gal," the week end picture at the Westholme. The picture is one of marine love and adventure which should suit all classes of movie fans.

Houdini, the super-magician, is working on a book on Spiritualism in which he expects to expose the fraud medium's methods. It is not generally known that Houdini, at one time, posed as a professional medium in order to get to the bottom of various stunts mediums resorted to in order to obtain their materialisms.

Ottawa is rapidly earning the name of being the first gun city in Canada for film releases. Features are being presented in the capital before they appear in the larger cities of Toronto and Montreal even though the exchange headquarters are located at the latter cities.

The most modern and extensive moving picture studios on the Pacific Coast outside of Los Angeles have been established at Portland, Oregon, by Fred H. Kiser. The company operating them is capitalized at $100,000.

DANA PICTURE STORY OF OPIUM SMUGGLERS

Viola Dana, Federal Operator, Falls in Love With Man Who Is Sought

"There Are no Villains," Viola Dana's latest picture, which opens at the Westholme tonight, contains some thrilling features of what secret service agents have to undergo in their attempts to break up opium smuggling on the west coast are portrayed.

As a Federal operator Miss Dana finds that there is considerable conflict between the law of the land and love, and when as a member of the law force she falls in love with one of the supposed smugglers there is a keen battle of wits to prove that her woman's intuition is more reliable than the evidence gathered

FAIR BOARD STARTING MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

In Order to Give New Directorate Good Start in January for 1923 Work

In order to pave the way for the new board which will be elected at the annual meeting in January, the present directorate of the Northern B.C. Agricultural & Industrial Association is starting a membership drive with the objective placed at 1000 persons. To become a member of the Agricultural Association it costs $1 and the membership ticket entitles the holder to vote at the annual meeting and enter generally into the business of the Association for the year. Besides, membership entitles a person to one free entry in every section of the prize list.

It is the desire of the present board to give the incoming board a good start at the first of the year and by the membership drive it is expected enthusiasm and more general participation in exhibition efforts will be brought about as well as a certain amount of financial assistance through the fees.

It is pointed out that it costs between $12,000 and $15,000 a year to put on the Fair this amount being largely made up through public subscriptions. One of the first expenditures that must be made now is the painting of the building and repairs to the grounds which were damaged in the recent storms. This work will cost several hundred dollars which will be covered if the membership drive is successful.

Consider the hardy Scot!

He knows that as long as he keeps his body good and warm, his exposed limbs can withstand almost any degree of cold.

This was proved by the gallant Highlanders in the late war.

Pure wool next the skin, the woollen-cloth kilt covering the vital organs; thus is the whole body protected and the health safeguarded.

In damp mist or driving sleet, the hardy Scot, clad with wool, braves the elements.
