Red Mountain

The prompt recovery of Red Mountain shares from the low level of 45c to Monday's close of 59c has partially fulfilled the prediction we made in these columns.

We are advised by the Boundary Red Mountain management of a second bullion production record amounting to $3985 in seven days. This was at the rate of $565 per day and showed a material improvement over the preceding nine days when the daily gross output was $493.

If you will contrast this output of gold with the present quoted value of Boundary Red Mountain shares you will understand our advice to enter your order at today's market.

Full particulars concerning the property furnished on request.

LIQUOR PROBE IN VICTORIA

In regard to Otter Resner who he was informed owned the Fishermen's Club, the Northern Liquor Co., the Knox Hotel and a bonded warehouse.

Mr. Miller said his men had checked Resner up and as a result a fine of $1000 had been imposed. The evidence was secured prior to the Stevens' speech.

Asked why he did not prosecute earlier, Miller said if he had he could not have secured any more evidence. Once the identity of a witness was disclosed his usefulness in the community was ended. There were 25 prosecutions in Prince Rupert, some fines were imposed and some men were sent to jail. He had sent a wire to Resner to meet him as he wanted to check up his warehouse and he had been informed he was out of town.

Mr. Bowser: "Did you know Ben Self?"

Must Know Three Men
Mr. Miller did not remember but was told by Mr. Bowser there were three men at Prince Rupert he must know—Otter Resner, Ben Self and Jack Miller. Prince Rupert is a small place and there is quite an industry going on there. I am told there are 248 bootlegging stores all over the streets and along the waterfront. One of these is next door to the vendor and the other beneath.

Mr. Bowser then mentioned several younger citizens and asked if they had been caught purchasing whiskey. He wanted to know why these cases were not prosecuted.

H. F. Kergin, member for Athol, interrupted claiming Mr. Bowser was only trying to get the names of these boys in print. The proprietors of the clubs had been prosecuted for selling through their servants but a number of the cases had been dismissed.

Mr. Bowser asked if it was only a coincidence that several of the men were good liberals.

Chooses Own Men
Mr. Miller said the Crown prosecutor was a Conservative, he understood, and the prosecutions had been carried out through Chief Vickers. He knew little about politics but was engaged in the secret service. Men who were taken on were chosen by himself. One of the most abused of these was a fine young man with a university training. The ones who could not be bought, got the most abuse. He had not yet received reports on the Prince Rupert clubs. That was why there had not yet been any cancellations. P. Black's club had been fined $1,000 and there would be other prosecutions yet. The men had wired him when they were ready to proceed with the prosecutions.

Mr. Bowser then read an editorial from the Prince Rupert Daily News which condemned spectacular raids and stated that beer selling was carried on openly. He asked why if this was the condition action had not been taken.

City Is Lax
Mr. Miller said if there was laxity, as there undoubtedly was, it was on the part of the civic authorities. They were the ones who were charged with the carrying out of the law. It was only when they failed, as in this case, that the liquor board stepped in.

Asked by Mr. Perry in regard to Prince George, Mr. Miller said enforcement had been better there. The police there had shown a good deal of activity.

Returning again to the Dawson incident, mentioned by H. H. Stevens in a speech at Vancouver, it was explained that every barrel of the beer had been accounted for. The file of correspondence ordering the beer had been looked through and everything was perfectly regular.

Ian McKenzie: "Stevens was wrong then in his statement."

Mr. Miller said he knew nothing about politics.

SURPRISE PARTY ON SATURDAY NIGHT FOR CAPT. AND MRS. HILLS
A surprise party was given on Saturday night in honor of Capt. and Mrs. Hills at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hougau, 516 Fifth Avenue East. The occasion was the celebration of the thirtieth wedding anniversary of the guests of honor. Cards and dancing were enjoyed until the early hours of the morning and refreshments were served at mid-night, a feature being the beautiful wedding cake. In the course of the evening Capt. and Mrs. Hills were presented with a handsome set of China.

Had an Awful Cold & Cough was confined to bed

Some coughs and colds seem hard to shake off—stick right to you in spite of all you do to get rid of them. These are the kind that are dangerous—the kind that weakens the lungs so that the germs of consumption find a ready foothold.

Obstinate coughs and colds yield to the grateful soothing properties of

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

It soothes and heals the irritated lungs and bronchial tubes, cuts the phlegm, and aids nature clear away the morbid accumulations.

Mrs. Geo. B. Langdale, Barton, N. S., writes:—"In the year of 1920 I was taken with an awful cold and cough, and was confined to my bed for some time. I thought I was going into consumption. I commenced to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and found it to be an excellent remedy. I can highly recommend it to every sufferer from coughs and colds."

TWO BIG SHIPS ARE IN TROUBLE

Bessie Dollar and Stuart Dollar, Hitched Together, Being Towed in

Out on the broad Pacific, off the Queen Charlotte Islands, many miles from land, the tug Sea Monarch is doing her best to tow a couple of lane steamers and get them out of a serious predicament.

The tug was sent out to pick up the freighter Stuart Dollar which lost a rudder on her trip to the Orient. The vessel was picked up amid a heavy storm and a start was made for port. Tuesday the steamer Bessie Dollar of the same line burst a steampipe and the latest reports are to the effect that the Bessie is hitched to the stern of the Stuart and both are being brought in to Seattle.

The C.P.O.S. Empress of Asia picked up a wireless message on Tuesday from the Bessie asking for aid to one of the firemen injured by the bursting steampipe. Dr. G. R. Moffatt, ship's surgeon on the liner wireless had instructions but it was too late for the man had succumbed to the shock.

The Stuart Dollar has recently been pressed into the service between Vancouver and the Orient but the Bessie is an old hand at the game and is nearly at the end of her tether. Only nine months ago she came back limping to port with one of the crew dead, her captain badly hurt and her masts and funnels broken by the fury of the sea. It was just a bit of luck that she did not founder before reaching port and now she is in grave trouble again.
