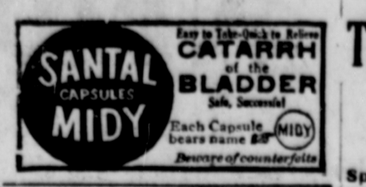
Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

September 15, 1912.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Macintosh sailed last night on the Princess Mary for Vancouver where they will take up their residence. A large party of well wishing friends assembled at the wharf to see them off.

The members of the Prince Rupert Rowing and Yachting Club have been taking advantage of the recent good weather to practise in the club's shell. Amongst the four men crews are: A. G. Fallowfield, J. W. Chappelle, Adair Carss and Major Gibson; F. V. Gamble, J. W. Chappelle, H. B. Cambie and A. G. Fallowfield; Capt. Barney Johnson, V. G. Gamble, H. B. Cambie and F. S. Long.

The Prince Rupert Amateur Dramatic Society will present a play "The Liars" in November. H. O. Crewe will be stage manager and among the cast will be Mrs. Hubert Ward, Mrs. L. Bullock-Webster, Miss Thompson, Miss Jessie Mercer, Miss Milligan, Miss Johnstone, W. E. Fisher, Basil Durant, G. S. Fitzmaurice, F. A. Ellis, James Russell and H. O. Crewe.



TERRACE GETS SECOND PRIZE

Splendid Exhibit of Garden and Farm Produce From Kitsumkalum Valley

The Kitsumkalum District (West) agricultural exhibit at the Fair only missed winning the challenge cup by five points, and won second place being awarded the silver medal. The layout of farm produce is certainly one worthy of a runner up for the silver cup.

F. W. Bohler is in charge of this splendid display 90 per cent of the products coming from an area only one mile and a half in extent. Mr. Bohler is the owner of a farm of 55 acres, 16 acres of which is under cultivation at the present time, and is situated a mile north of the Kitsumkallum postoffice. He has been engaged in the mixed farming business for the past eighteen years and is one of the pioneer locaters in the Kitsumkallum valley. He complains that this summer there has been a lack of moisture for the necessary maturing of the grains and grasses, although in normal years he claims that the conditions, from a soil and climatic standpoint, are all that can be desired in his district.

The Exhibit

The exhibit includes grains, grasses, fodder crops, butter, eggs, and poultry in fact everything that can be produced on the farm. The grains consist of wheat, oats, barley, and clover. In the field vegetables, the cabbage, cauliflower, turnips and beets are particularly fine specimens of what hard word and knowledge can do.

The whole exhibit has been very artistically arranged and a lot of the credit is due to the help of Mrs. Bohler in this connection.

The dairy display of butter, cheese, eggs, and poultry speaks for itself from a quality standpoint, and the great possibilities of the Kitsumkalum district for the farming business.

Individual Exhibit.

The individual exhibits shown by Mr. Bohler calls for special mention in that it is a very comprehensive display of both agriculture and horticultural produce.

The garden produce includes cabbage, three varieties; squash, three varieties; marrows, citrons, sugar pumpkin, cauliflower turnips, carrots, beets, tomatoes, salsify, peas, lettuce, potatoes, parsnips and Brussel sprouts. All these vegetables are remarkably fine specimens.

Dairy produce is also included in this exhibit comprising eggs, butter, cheese and poultry.

The grains include barley, two varieties, spring and fall wheat, flax, brown grass and seven other varieties of wild grasses.

Mrs. Bohler has on display a very fine range of wild grasses which took the first prize in its class. Billie Bohler, the ten year old son of Mr. Bohler, has already taken six prizes in vegetables at the Exhibition.

EXHIBITION JOTTINGS

In the poultry class H. E. Gill won first prize for barred rock cockerel, first for barred rock pullet, second for best pen of birds, first for best male bird and second for four pullets, all barred rock varieties.

The second prize for commercial booth was won by Smith & Mallett for their exhibit of plumbing supplies.

There was a big crowd at the fair last night but the paid admissions were less than the previous day. The season ticket holders seem to have been on the job yesterday.

One of the most exciting games in evidence throughout the fair has been the Leckie tag matching contest in which winners secured sundry pairs of the well known make of shoes.

The sideshows at the fair should do well this year. The excellent weather has favored them over most previous occassions of the kind.

It looks as if Presinent Dawson has a stand in with the weather man.

What Is Chiropractic?

Chiropractic is a name given to a science, art and philosophy of a natural thing. The practice of Chiropractics consists of the adjustment, with the hands, of the movable segments of the spinal column to normal position for the purpose of relieving the impinged nerve so that the life force can flow over the nerve to the tissue cells and thus restore the abnormal to normal.

In Time of Need It's always Zam-Buk

"We Find It Indispensable, whenever the children get cut, bruised or burned," writes Mrs. T. Fothergill, Ridge Farm, Bousman River, Man. "Once when my wrist was badly cut and the doctor tried stitching it, it would not heal. Zam-Buk soon put it right. I have also found Zam-Buk a soothing remedy for skin rash and irritation, also for piles.

"Our eldest boy was recently badly cut about the face by one of the cattle. At first I was afraid he might lose his eye. But we kept the injury clean, regularly dressed it with Zam-Buk, and it healed perfectly.

"My husband always carries Zam-Buk about with him on the farm, prepared for any accident. It one time rid him of a nasty outbreak of boils."

Zam-Buk with its wide range of usefulness saves worry and doctor's bills. It conquers eczema, ulcers, piles and ringworm as surely as it grows new skin over a cut, burn or scald, or place chapped with cold. Splendid also for sprains, rheumatism and muscular pains. Zam-Buk derives its wonderful properties from certain rare herbal extracts. It's the most wonderful healer ever discovered. 50c. all dealers. 3 boxes $1.25c. Sample for 1c. stamp, Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.
