VANDERHOOF

Hon. E. D. Barrow, provincial minister of agriculture, while visiting here last week, gave assurance that the government did not intend at this time to assist in the establishing of another creamery west of Vanderhoof. There was a special meeting of the Nechako Valley Co-operative Association to meet the visitor and explain local conditions to him.

The provincial government has brought a new Cleveland tractor here which is to be used in the district on road work.

George G. Duncan has arrived here from Prince George to join the local Canadian Bank of Commerce staff.

Mrs. Turcotte and daughter, Miss Anna Turcotte, arrived last week from Quebec to visit with their son and brother, David Turcotte.

Lewis Johnson is going to Tsinkit to superintend the building of a bridge at the lower crossing of the Fort George road. He has just finished the building of a bridge over the Stellaco River near Stella Indian village.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

Minimum price of first-class and second-class to be $2.50 an acre.

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is not timber land.

Partnership pre-emption abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange to purchase land jointly.

Pre-emption must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres before receiving Crown Grant.

Where pre-emption in occupation more than 3 years, and has made improvements, the holder may, because of ill-health, or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be issued, provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $50 per annum and records same each year.

Failure to make improvements on record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained in less than 5 years, and improvements of $100 per acre, including 5 acres cleared, and residence of at least 2 years are required.

Pre-emption holding Crown Grant must record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas not exceeding 20 acres may be leased as homesteads, title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

For grazing and industrial purposes areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company.

Mill, factory or industrial sites on timber land not exceeding 40 acres may be purchased; conditions include payment of stamp duty.

Natural gas, meadows inaccessible by existing roads may be purchased conditional upon construction of a road to them. Rebate of one-half of cost of road, not exceeding half of purchase price, is made.

PRE-EMPTIONS: FREE GRANTS ACT.

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under the Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the great war. This privilege is also made retroactive.

No fees relating to pre-emption are due or payable by holders on pre-emption recorded after June 26, 1918. Taxes are remitted for five years.

Provision for return of money accrued, due and been paid since August 1, 1914, on account of payments, "taxes on soldiers' pre-emption."

Interest on agreements to purchase town or city lots held by members of Allied Forces, or descendants, acquired direct or indirect, remitted from an interest to March 31, 1920.

SUB-PURCHASERS OF CROWN LANDS

Provision made for issuance of Crown grants to sub-purchasers of Crown Lands, acquiring rights from purchasers who failed to complete purchase, involving forfeiture, on fulfillment of conditions of purchase, interest and taxes. Where sub-purchasers do not claim whole of original parcel, purchase price due and taxes may be distributed proportionately over whole area. Applications must be made by May 1, 1922.

GRAZING

Grazing Act, 1919, for systematic development of livestock industry provides for grazing districts and range administration under Commissioner.

Annual grazing permits issued based on numbers ranged, priority for established owners. Stock-owners may form Associations for range management. Free, or partially free, permits for settlers, campers or travellers, up to ten head.

MORE SIAMESE TWINS ARE LIVING IN TEXAS

Daisy and Violet Hilton Are Sixteen Years of Age and are Bright

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 26.—Leather-lunged spicers of the World's Greatest Combined Shows will never extol to throngs of the midway the odd twinning of Daisy and Violet Hilton, upon whom has fallen the title of "Siamese Twins," following the death in Chicago of the world-famous Blazek sisters.

Daisy and Violet Hilton, sixteen years old, will not commercialize their malformation, declare Mr. and Mrs. Ben Meyer, foster parents of the sisters.

The twins are joined together at the base of the spinal column. This fusion, however, has not interfered with their enjoyment of the customary amusements of childhood and they daily can be seen playing about the lawn of the modest little home of their foster parents.

Strange Phenomenon

Medical scientists of two continents have become interested in these sisters, a strange phenomenon of nature. Each girl, declare doctors who have examined them, has a complete set of organs, functioning perfectly.

Strangely, Violet and Daisy spring from lineal descendants who are twins. Their parents both were twins, as were their grandparents on both maternal and paternal sides. It is more than passing strange, assert physicians and surgeons, that the Hilton sisters should be joined together, while coming from parents who were of normal physique.

The mother of the two girls died from a Caesarian operation, following the birth of Violet and Daisy. Shortly thereafter the girls were brought to America from their home in England by Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, with whom they now reside in this city.

Musical Education

Violet and Daisy are being given a musical education. They are peculiarly endowed with a love for music, declare their foster parents. Violet favors the violin, while Daisy accompanies her on the piano. Both girls are fond of reading. Violet prefers the works of Edgar Allan Poe, while her sister, Daisy, takes to the writings of Charles Dickens.

The two girls are being educated by a private tutor. Fearing that they would be embarrassed by students at the public schools, the foster parents of the twins have persistently declined to enter them in municipal institutions of learning.

Can Never Be Separated

The twins, whose curious formation has attracted hundreds of medical scientists, can never be separated, according to the unanimous verdict of physicians and surgeons who have studied the fusion of their spine. Violet and Daisy, prior to being brought to America, appeared several times before the Royal Medical Society of London.

ALICE ARM

The Esperanza Mine was sold last week by E. Elge to a syndicate of Anyox men. The sum of $35,000 with a cash payment of $10,000 is involved in the deal.

The Anyox Community League is conducting a summer camp here, a large party of families having arrived from the smelter town early last week.

Rev. J. B. Gibson, of Anyox, is here with a party of 15 boys who are to remain ten days camping.

Repair work on the Dolly Varden railway by the provincial government has been completed and it is now possible to run hand cars through to the Dolly Varden ore bunkers.

W. H. Bromley was taken down with a paralytic stroke while up the Hlance River last week. He is now in the Anyox Hospital.

CHIEF JUSTICE TAFT POPULAR IN BRITAIN

Interesting Sidelight on His Recent Visit to London

LONDON, July 26.—The extent to which Mr. Taft, the popular Chief Justice of the United States, has been in demand during his visit to London was amusingly illustrated by Mr. Harvey, the American Ambassador. Both were guests at a Press Club luncheon, and Mr. Harvey remarked that one reason why he was glad to be present was that it gave him an opportunity of meeting Mr. Taft. He went on to explain that Mr. Taft was supposed to be staying with him. He had had the privilege of meeting him at the station on his arrival. The same evening he suggested to Mr. Taft that he might turn down the lights and tell him a few things about what was going on in America. Since that day, Mr. Taft had had one square meal in his house.

Chief Justice's Days

Mr. Harvey threw some light on Mr. Taft's routine. "I get up in the morning at a normal English hour," the American Ambassador remarked, "and I come down and inquire, 'Where is the Chief Justice?' Has he been down, or is he still asleep? Then I am told he was down at seven o'clock and has gone off to the Courts. At luncheon time, I learn, he has been in and changed his clothes. Later in the afternoon I ask if anything has been seen of Mr. Taft. Oh, yes, he is taking tea with someone and presently will be back. He does; he comes back, but he is always behind time, and has to rush to some other engagement."

"I thought I would rise one morning and catch him, and I got very near it, but he was under a skylight being sculptured in clay." The truth of the matter, Mr. Harvey added, was that the visit of Mr. Taft was proving more than a mere episode, and he said in conclusion that it was absolutely essential to the success and prosperity of the entire world that there should be a true, real acquaintance ship between the best types of the British and American people.
