PAINTS BLUE PICTURE OF IRISH SITUATION

BAD TRAFFIC ACCIDENT OCCURRED IN VANCOUVER WEDNESDAY EVENING

Two Persons Killed in Collision of Freight Train and Street Car

VANCOUVER, Dec. 28.—Two men were killed, seven were badly injured and nearly a score of others sustained cuts and bruises as the result of an accident here at 10:20 last night when a Great Northern freight train crashed into a heavily loaded east-bound Grandview street car at the crossing of Raymur and Venables Street. The dead are R. K. A. Duthie, an accountant of Seattle, who died from the shock at midnight and Alexander McDonald, a B.C. Electric Railway conductor, who was riding as a passenger in the street car and who died early this morning.

TUDOR STAR IS ALL SAFE

Seattle to Glasgow Steamer Completed Voyage Yesterday One Week Overdue

GLASGOW, Dec. 28.—The freight steamer Tudor Star, bound from Seattle for Glasgow and for which some anxiety had been felt, was reported safe yesterday afternoon and arrived here today one week overdue. The steamer was badly battered and everything movable was swept from the decks. The ship's carpenter was badly injured. The captain reported being in wireless communication with eighteen other vessels within a radius of eighty miles. All were suffering from the effects of the great gale.

MURDOCK ON COAL STRIKE

Minister of Labor Says It Looks Like Work of Communist Party

OTTAWA, Dec. 28.—That he "cannot believe any real friends of organized labor are behind the Edmonton coal miners' strike and the entire situation seems to be handled in a manner characteristic of workers of the so-called Communist party," is the declaration of Hon. James Murdock, minister of labor, in telegrams to committees of strikers and President Lewis, of the United Mine Workers. "Representatives of labor must maintain some decent everyday recognition of law and propriety," he said.

EGYPT'S PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS SOON BE READY OCCUPATION

CAIRO, Dec. 28.—The work on the new Egyptian House of Parliament is nearing completion, and the building probably will be ready for occupation by March 4, 1923. The structure which is designed after the ancient Egyptian style of architecture, will cost 75,000 Egyptian pounds.

FISH SALES

Only two boats arrived this morning with halibut and they disposed of 130,000 pounds at the Fish Exchange. The sales and prices were:
Liberty, 65,000 pounds, at 13.6c, and 8c, to the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.
Polaris, 65,000 pounds, at 12.9 and 8c, to the Booth Fish-eries.

NANAIMO TUGS HAD COLLISION

Miners' Ferry Boat Struck by Tug—One Man Killed and One Injured

NANAIMO, Dec. 28.—One man was instantly killed when the tug towing the miners' ferry from Nanaimo across the bay to Protection Island collided with the tug Tepic yesterday afternoon. Two of the 300 miners aboard were thrown into the water. One of them, John Doherty, was crushed.

DR. ALFRED THOMPSON IS ELECTED HEAD OF YUKON CONSERVATIVES

DAWSON, Dec. 28.—Dr. Alfred Thompson, former M.P., was elected president of the Yukon Liberal Conservative Association at its annual meeting. Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen and Capt. George Black, M.P., are honorary presidents.

MODIFICATION OF REPAYMENT

British Papers Hope Baldwin Financial Mission Will Have Good Results

LONDON, Dec. 28.—In commenting on the Baldwin financial mission to the United States, all newspapers express hope that terms may be fixed by the American congress whereby the repayment of the British debt may be modified. The present terms are universally regarded here as excessively onerous and in some quarters are described as "such as Great Britain would not dream of trying to exact from any debtor."

HOUSEWARMING IN NEW STORE HELD

About 40 Couples Attended Affair in Mrs. Hilditch's New Premises

About 40 young couples enjoyed a housewarming party which was held last night in Mrs. J. H. Hilditch's new store in the Federal Block. The affair was of an impromptu nature arranged by several of the young people themselves. Newell's Orchestra, assisted by W. Martin Jr., and Jack Barnsley, provided music for the dancing which was the main order of the evening's enjoyment. Supper was served at midnight.

LITTLE BOY KILLED UNDER MOTOR TRUCK

Reilly W. Ausman, Aged 7, Loses Life While Playing on Vancouver Street

VANCOUVER, Dec. 28.—Reilly W. Ausman, seven years old, was crushed to death under a motor truck while playing with other children on Broadway, Wednesday afternoon.

Several of the members of the local Rotary Club turned out on Christmas Day to pay a call on President T. H. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson.

BRITISH WARSHIPS BACK TO NEAR EAST

MALTA, Dec. 28.—As a result of unsatisfactory news from Lausanne, it is understood that ships of the British Mediterranean fleet, which arrived here on December 23 for a three weeks visit, have received orders to return to the Near East.

KILMARTIN GETS SUSPENDED SENTENCE

Pleaded Guilty This Morning to Assaulting Clara Pickering

Paddy Kilmartin is free again but if he gets into any trouble within the next two months, he will have to come up in the police court for sentence on an assault charge.

This morning he appeared before Magistrate J. H. McMullin on the adjourned charge of assaulting his wife, Clara Kilmartin. L. W. Patmore appeared for him and entered a plea of guilty. He added, however, that Clara Pickering was not anxious to have him punished but yet she did not want a recurrence of the events of Christmas Day when he hit her and knocked her down on the street. Mr. Patmore suggested that suspended sentence be passed on him.

VICTORIA MOUNTIE BELIEVED SUICIDE

Body of Corp. Thomas Hunter Found at Esquimalt With Revolver Alongside

VICTORIA, Dec. 28.—The body of Corporal Thomas Hunter, a war veteran and member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, was found on the grounds of the Esquimalt police barracks yesterday. Beside the body lay a revolver. The police believe that deceased ended his own life.

ARGENTINE AIRMAN PLANS WORLD FLIGHT

Crossing Atlantic in One Hop Included in Plans of Capt. Pedro Zanni

BUENOS AYRES, Dec. 28.—Capt. Pedro Zanni, an Argentine army aviator, is the third flyer who intends to fly around the world next year. It was announced here at the first of the week that Capt. Zanni would start the attempt in June under the auspices of the Argentine Aero Club which will raise funds to defray the expenses. The other two aviators who plan on attempting the feat are Sir Keith Smith, the English flyer, and C. O. Prest, the American.

Capt. Zanni proposes to start his flight from Rome, proceeding to Tokyo, thence to Alaska and San Francisco, crossing the American continent to Nova Scotia. At this point he will attempt to duplicate the feat of the late Sir John Alcock by flying the Atlantic in one hop, landing in Ireland. His course then lies across Europe to Rome.

To insure success as far as possible spare parts for repairs will be sent to various points along the route.

H. F. Wearmouth left on the train last night for Hanall where he will work in the Royal Mills. He spent the Christmas holiday with friends here.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral of the late Mrs. John Wozny will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Archdeacon Rix will conduct the funeral service in the B.C. Undertakers' chapel. Interment will be made in the Fairview cemetery.

MISSING MAIL BOAT RESCUED

All Hope for Missing Halibut Schooner Moresen is Now Abandoned

SEATTLE, Dec. 28.—The mail boat Trygve, plying between Peterburg and Kake, Alaska, for which fears were felt after she disappeared from a point where she had anchored with a broken crankshaft, has been taken in tow by a rescue vessel, according to word received here from Juneau. The last hope held for the halibut schooner Moresen, given up some time ago by the Seattle shipping men as lost, was dissolved yesterday with the peeling here of a radiogram sent by the coastguard cutter Unalga to Juneau. The Unalga reported that she had made a thorough search of Toy Bay, Alaska, without finding any trace of the Moresen. The Moresen left Sitka October 15 with a crew of five.

BOTH FACTIONS REPRESENTED

Irish Free Staters and Republicans Present Themselves At New York

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—When Lindsay Crawford, of Toronto, presented himself today at the consulate of the Irish Free State as the accredited representative of that government to take over the duties of Daniel McGuire, retiring consul-general, seven other men headed by Lawrence Ginnell entered and proclaimed themselves representatives of De Valera and the Irish Republic. The Free State representatives and their supporters occupied one room and the Republicans another but no words were exchanged. Both factions seemed determined to hold their ground.

MISS ST. JAMES TO TEACH HIGH SCHOOL

Will Come in Place of Miss Pauline Gintzburger Who Failed to Obtain Certificate

Miss Lea H. St. James, of New Westminster, will arrive here about January 8 to teach French in the high schools. A telegram was received from her this morning to this effect. She is coming in place of Miss Pauline Gintzburger of Vancouver who was unable to obtain a certificate from the Department of Education at Victoria after the local school board had accepted her application.

OPPONENTS CHURCH UNION TO CONVENE IN VANCOUVER SOON

VANCOUVER, Dec. 28.—The Presbyterian association of British Columbia, a branch of the Dominion-wide organization, has issued a statement here that it is the intention of the Presbyterian association to hold a convocation with representatives of the province in Vancouver next month, of those who do not believe in the merger of certain churches which is now under discussion. The convocation will be held in Vancouver in January.

Correspondent Says Lull is but Temporary; Republicans Still Able to Make Trouble

LONDON, Dec. 28.—Reviewing year end conditions in Ireland, the Daily Mail's correspondent in Dublin paints a discouraging picture. Fear is expressed that the present lull in military operations is only temporary and that Republicanism is still strong enough to cause the Free State government infinite trouble. The correspondent attributes the reviving of activity among women, seventy-five per cent of whom, he asserts, probably sympathize with the irregulars.

DUBLIN, Dec. 28.—The first bomb attack here in some time took place today when a missile was thrown in Aungier Street at a military car in which several officers were riding. None of the officers were injured but they shot the man who threw the bomb through the mouth and captured him. A woman hurt by flying splinters was the only other person injured.

PRINCESS BEATRICE IS CARRYING MAILS

C.P.R. Vessel Gets Contract Now That Steamer Prince Rupert Is Off Run

Postmaster Morison has been notified that the C.P.R. steamer Princess Beatrice, arriving here from Vancouver on Saturday morning, will carry mails both northbound and southbound. This arrangement will be of satisfaction to local people who had feared that, with the withdrawal of the steamer Prince Rupert from the week-end service, there would be no Saturday mail. The Beatrice will bring Tuesday and Wednesday mail from Vancouver. Returning south, she sails at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the mail closing at noon. The vessel is due in Vancouver on Monday morning.

TOURIST SEASON TO BE EXTENDED IN 1923

SEATTLE, Dec. 28.—It is estimated that 25,000 tourists were taken to Alaska during the past season by the Alaska Steamship Company, Admiral Line and Canadian Pacific Steamship Company. The season was three weeks longer than in 1921 and next year will be extended two extra weeks.

TOLL OF LIFE IN SEA STORM

Two Vessels Arriving at Plymouth Today Report Casualties

PLYMOUTH, Dec. 28.—Two fatalities at sea directly attributed to the terrific storms which have been encountered on the Atlantic during the past week are reported by vessels reaching port today.

William Holmes, a passenger on the German steamer Haimon which arrived today from Baltimore, was killed when he was thrown on the deck of the steamer through the rolling of the ship. He was buried at sea.

The second mate of the steamer Mottfield, bound from Newfoundland to Bremen, was washed overboard and several members of the crew were injured.

OCCUPANTS OF AUTO ARE DEAD

Mr. and Mrs. Grant McPhatter, of Vancouver, Died Within Two Hours of Each Other

VANCOUVER, Dec. 28.—Five little children were orphaned when Mr. and Mrs. Grant H. McPhatter died within two hours of each other in the General Hospital last evening as a result of injuries sustained in a collision between a street car and automobile in which they were riding on Main Street Tuesday evening. Two of the children were injured but they will recover.

AIRPLANE BUILDING TO BE ENCOURAGED

Australian Government Will Pay $3 a Pound on Weight of Planes Built

MELBOURNE, Australia, Dec. 28.—The Australian government will pay a bonus of 83 a pound on the weight of all airplanes not including the engine manufactured in the Commonwealth, in order to encourage the industry in the country.

FIVE VIOLENT DEATHS OCCURRED WITHIN TWO DAYS IN VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, Dec. 28.—There have been five violent deaths in this city since Tuesday night. Mr. and Mrs. McPhatter were killed in an automobile accident, Reilly Ausman, aged 7, was crushed to death under a motor truck while playing on the street late yesterday afternoon and R. J. F. Duthie and Alex. McDonald were victims of last night's street car wreck.
