

Silk Under Things

The makers of Kayser "Italian" Silk Underwear (Made in Canada,) the high quality and exclusive features of which are recognized as standard, strongly advise the use of Lux. They say:

"Lux renews the beauty and lustre of these excellent garments. Silk Underwear should be washed at home, preferably with Lux."

A quick gentle washing in the rich Lux suds will make your underwear as clean and fresh as when new. The thin white satin-like flakes of Lux are made by our own exclusive process, and dissolve instantly into a rich bubbling lather as harmless as pure water itself.

Lux stands supreme for washing silks and other fine fabrics. It is sold only in sealed packets—dust-proof!

DERBY DAY TOMORROW

Most Popular Day of English Racing Year.

LONDON, May 30. (By Canadian Press).—Today sees the opening of the Derby week on Epsom Downs, and though possibly better racing is seen later on at Ascot, at Goodwood, and during the autumn meetings at Newmarket, no meeting of the flat racing season stands as high in the popular esteem. The four days' program offers a varied and interesting bill of fare, the Woodcock Stakes to-day offering bringing together some of the most promising two-year-olds of the season, and in this the royal colors, purple, gold braid, scarlet sleeves and black velvet cap with gold fringe, may be seen out on the colt by Friar Marcus out of Etoile or the colt by Synford out of Pintade.

Tomorrow, the Derby, blue ribbon of flat racing, is the outstanding feature. This is the third of the five "classics" races for three-year-olds, of which the Two Thousand Guineas has been won by St. Louis and the One Thousand, the fillies' race, by Silver Urn. On Friday the fourth of the "classics," the Oaks, also confined to fillies, is run the fifth and last being the Doncaster St. Leger in September. Unless St. Louis, not a very strong favorite, repeats in the Derby, it rather looks as if the "classics" will be as open an affair as last year, when five different animals won them, there being no outstanding equestrian champion at the age. The feature on Thursday is the Coronation Cup, a stake race at weight-for-age run over the Derby course, which often brings together the best cup horses of the year.

Popular Derby.

Derby Day is easily the most popular day of the racing year, and annually attracts enormous crowds to Epsom. Each year there is a great exodus from the city and the many roads leading to the Downs are jammed with vehicles of all kinds, whose occupants have only one destination and one thought in mind—the Derby, and who will win it. For many it will be the only race that they will see during the season, and is the climax to a one, two or three day outing. To some the Derby spells romance, and to others fortune. In any event, the Derby has a firm grip upon the sporting instinct of the Englishman and there is not to be found throughout the country a sportsman, whether he sits in the House of Lords, or drives a costers' donkey, who does not have something on his fancy. Wednesday's race will be the 139th renewal of the Derby Stakes, raced in 1780, just one year later than the Oaks and four years later than the St. Leger. The twelfth Earl of Derby originated both the Oaks and the Derby, naming the former after his seat or hunting box at Woodmansterne and the latter deriving its name from its originator. The distance for both events is about one and one-half mile. The nominations for the Derby closed on November 2, 1920 with 381 entries, while for the Oaks, 276 fillies were placed in nomination. As might be expected from a race that has been run continuously for nearly a century and a half, many sensational results have characterized the great classic. Fortunes have been won—and lost.

Viscount Lascelles' colt Mulin is among the nominations and a considerable number of turf followers are asking themselves if the viscount's ambition to win the greatest double of all time—the King's daughter for a bride in February and the blue ribbon of the turf in May—will be achieved. At any rate the Epsom classic was one of the topics discussed during the royal wedding festivities and the viscount's classic candidate Mulin was mentioned, the impression being that although the colt's two-year-old form was but moderate he had wintered so well that his prospects of victory at Epsom were not at all remote.

Some Favored Ones.

There is, of course, no more superstitious body of sportsmen than those who follow racing. They are always on the lookout for omens and portents and many will play the "royal double" and plank down their coin on the expectation that the king's son-in-law will lead in the winner. There are also those who do not overlook the fact that the Derby winner last year as a two-year-old won the Woodcock Stakes at Epsom, and they are asking themselves if Sir Earnest Paget's colt Re-Echo the winner of the Woodcock Stakes last year and who is entered in this year's Derby, has been appropriately named and can he duplicate Humors's performance. Re-Echo is a well-bred colt, by Neil Gow out of Corrie Rae and as a two-year-old won two of his four starts, finishing second in the remainder. He did not appear in the Newmarket classic and therefore it is somewhat difficult to appraise his quality as a three-year-old. The unfavorable racing conditions of a year ago, when many promising two-year-olds could not be brought along, owing to the hard condition of the tracks, has resulted in many upsets in form this year.

Lord Queensbury's colt St. Louis, the winner of the Two Thousand, did not win a race as a two-year-old, but his sterling performance in the Newmarket classic has put him at the top of the list for the Derby. St. Louis is a Louvois-Princess Sterling colt and he showed that he had inherited both speed and stamina from his sire, also a winner of the Two Thousand. Sol Joel's Ponderland has also received goodly support and his easy win in the Newmarket Stakes this month, added many backers to the Pommern colt.

Debt

Debt, grinding debt, whose iron face the widow and the orphan fear and hate; debt, which consumes so much time, which so cripples and disheartens, is a teacher whose lessons cannot be forgotten.

It is incumbent on all right-thinking people to do more than avoid debt. It is necessary to accumulate a competence for one's dependent years. If, with a definite earning power you find it hard to live within your income, how could your wife support the home in the event of your death deprived of your earning power? "Your salary stops with your pulse."

A Manufacturers Life policy provides for all these contingencies. Systematic saving will keep you out of debt, and build a competence for the sunset of life. Should you not live to old age, your life insurance will create an estate for your dependents.

Write, giving us your age at nearest birthday, and we will submit a proposition to you which will not place you under any obligation.

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE OPENS

Beat Grotto Last Night by Close Score of 10 to 9.

The Intermediate Baseball League got away to a good start last night when the Grotto and Gil's teams clashed in the opening game before a good crowd of baseball fans, the result being 10 runs to 9 in favor of Gil's.

In the latter part of the game the excitement became intense, and everybody thoroughly enjoyed the game.

The teams took the field as follows:

Grotto—B. Barry, c; A. Roy, ss; R. Gilmore, 3b; S. Haudenschild, 1b; W. Williscroft, 2b; S. Butters, lf; J. Ross, cf; P. McGowan, if.

Gil's—W. Mitchell, 2b; Smith, ss; Geo. Tite, cf; Jones 1b; McDaniel, lf; "Red" Davidson, rf; Hamilton, c; W. Lambie, 3b; Montgomery, p.

Umpire, S. J. Evans; base umpire, P. Laporte.

How It Went.

The first three innings were somewhat loose doubtless due to the fact that the players had not worked out together sufficiently long enough to catch each other's stride. For a time it looked as though the Grotto team were going down to a severe trouncing, the game standing at the end of the third inning 9 to 6 in favor of Gil's.

However the Grotto boys made a splendid recovery and soon proved that they were in the game. In the fifth inning the Grotto side took out Warren, the Gil boy, bumping his balls too far, and substituted A. Roy who pitched sound ball. It was undoubtedly due to his consistent pitching that the Grotto kept the score against them down to the safety margin.

At the end of the ninth inning the score was a tie 9-9, an extra inning being necessary to break the tie. Nothing accrued to the Grotto in the tenth while Gil's took full—advantage of their chance and scored the odd run.

Box Score. The box score was as follows:

Grotto.

B. Barry 1 0
A. Roy 0 1
E. Warren 2 4
R. Gilmore 0 3
S. Haudenschild 2 1
W. Williscroft 1 0
S. Butters 2 2
J. Ross 2 2
P. McGowan 0 1

Gil's.

W. Mitchell 1 3
Smith 3 1
G. Tite 2 1
Jones 0 1
McDaniel 0 1
Davidson 1 1
Hamilton 1 0
W. Lambie 2 1
Montgomery 0 1

W. Mitchell for Gil's, played a very consistent game while Roy Gilmore, for the Grotto side, did good work.

JUVENILE BASEBALL LEAGUE IS OPENING

PUT AND TAKE.

An old man was walking along a road one night, when he was confronted by a burly stranger.

"What do you want?" he asked.

"We're going to have a game of put and take, mate," replied the stranger.

"Put and take!" gasped the old man, shivering with fright.

"Yes," said the burly one, "You put yer 'ands up and I'll take yer watch."

What Is Digestion?

DIGESTION is the one great process of life.

When digestion is impaired your system suffers from slow starvation.

The result is thin blood, exhausted nerves, depressed spirits and slow, sluggish action of the vital organs.

The symptoms of indigestion are as follows:

Mouth: Furred tongue, bitter taste, saliva sticky.

Stomach: Fermentation of food which fails to be digested, acids and gases given off causing pain about the heart and belching of wind, pain, weight and distension.

Bowels: Irritated by acid state of food, griping pain and colic. Every bodily organ is affected, headache, dizziness, rheumatic pains, depression of spirits and sometimes jaundice.

Indigestion usually results from over-eating and the failure of the liver and kidneys to clear the system of poisonous waste matter. Relief is promptly afforded by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which rid the system of poisons and ensure healthy action of the liver, kidneys and bowels.

Mrs. S. Hetherington, R.R. No. 1, Orangeville, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with indigestion for a number of years, but on taking Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I secured great relief with the first box, and after a few more boxes were taken I found I could do without them, and the trouble has not returned."

One pill a dose, 25 cts. a box, all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Sport Chat

London sport writers of Great Britain are beginning to concentrate their batteries on Dempsey now, over the proposed Carpenter return fight, first because they are sore at the New York dispatches saying that Jack wore a monocle when he arrived from Europe, and second, because they believe that Carpenter was no sportsman in hitting Ted Lewis after a clinch when Ted had his hands down. Boxing editors state that the public will not pay to see Georges knocked out again and are advising the Frenchman to fight Lewis again fairly.

The intimation made at the meeting of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, that the Prince of Wales has agreed to become the next captain will be hailed by the golf community with much satisfaction. The Prince appeals to everybody as a real sport in the best sense of the word, and his acceptance is no mere nominal honor to the R. and A., for it is understood that he intends to visit the Mecca in September and drive off the ceremonial ball to play himself into office in the old fashion. His grandfather, the late King Edward, when Prince of Wales, took the R. and A. captaincy in 1863, but did not in person visit the "auld grey town" in connection with it. Prince Leopold, some thirteen years afterwards, also occupied the headship of the headquarters club.

The standings in the Junior Billiard League to date are as follows:

Maple Leaf	10	8599	860
St. Andrews	10	8284	828
Excelsiors	9	7265	807
Grotto	9	7011	779
Beavers	9	6831	959
Elks	9	6504	723

The Sons of Canada line-up for the Senior League football fixture tonight with the Gallies is to be as follows: H. Frizzell; H. Menzies and V. Menzies; W. Davis, W. Anderson and H. Scott; G. Mitchell, D. Robinson, J. Marks, E. Warren and E. Tail.
