Tonight there will be the regular league fixture between the Sons of Canada and the Grotto opening the second half of the season's schedule. This gives promise of being a keenly contested match for the Sons have not yet sustained a defeat this season and the Grotto are out to administer the first and gain for themselves a good place in the running for the league championship. Supporters of both teams have high hopes and great confidence in their respective proteges and there should oe a record crowd of fans out. Then, next Tuesday there will be another league game between the Sons of England and the Callies. If the Grotte should win tonight's game and the Sons of England next week's the three teams would be pretty well grouped around the top at the expense of the poor old Callies.
