

Movies and Movie People

Devoted to the doings and sayings of those who entertain the public.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

Monday and Tuesday—Norma Talmadge in "The Wonderful Thing," Christie comedy, "Nobody's Wife."
Wednesday and Thursday—"Hail the Woman," all star cast, Chester comedy, "Beat It."
Friday and Saturday—"The Law and the Woman," Hall Room Boys Comedy, Percy and Freddie in "After the Dough," British Canadian Gazette.

THERE is a woman mayor in Iowa City who is opposed to blue laws and believes in moving pictures on Sundays.

An actress taking two parts in a play may be clever but no longer a novelty and fans do not care about it.

There is an open air municipal movie theatre being built in Indianapolis. It is proposed to keep it operating for ten weeks during the summer months.

The difficulty with censorship boards is that they do not understand art, and the difficulty with producers is they are willing to sell anything the public will buy.

The New York censorship

board is still working on the cleaning up of the movies and is asking the co-operation of the producers in the work. Conferences are being held between the board and the men who make the pictures.

The biggest actor in the business is Jack Edlieh, a boy fifteen years of age, who weighs 237 pounds and stands seven feet 3 inches in his stocking feet. He is playing the giant in "Jack and the Beanstalk."

Movie managers sometimes think because the children laugh out loud when someone is hit in the face with a pie, that the audience likes that sort of thing. Nothing repels a decent audience more than stuff of that kind.

"HAIL THE WOMAN" COMING ON WEDNESDAY

The much talked of picture, "Hail the Woman" which has been such a great attraction in the big cities is due at the local theatre Wednesday of this week. It is somewhat of a problem play emphasizing the injustice of the double standard and exemplifying the highest type of womanhood.

The picture tells the story of the life of two girls. One was led into a secret marriage, depending on a man's promise with fatal results and the other rebelled.

Rules Laid Down for the Conduct of Movie Actors and Actresses Los Angeles

A motion picture stock company has been formed in Los Angeles with a view to providing a school for motion picture actors and actresses which will be conducted under commonsense rules and regulations and which will control the action of the members both inside the studios and outside. There are to be courses of physical training and members are all expected to keep themselves fit all the time.

The following are the rules:—
"1.—To protect the good name of their profession, the members of the Paramount Stock Company have suggested and adopted these rules of conduct and work. Therefore infringement of these rules not only works harm to yourself as an actor and an individual, but it also works injury to your associates. Strict adherence to these rules is demanded of every member of the company, and it also is requested that members by precept and example strive to have other members of the company observe them.

Health all important
"2.—The basis of all good work is good health. Therefore, members of the Paramount Stock Company should guard their health as their most precious asset and avoid any conduct or circumstances that will put their health in peril. Proper exercises, sufficient sleep, fresh air, proper diet—all these are essential to good health. Avoid alcoholic stimulants and late hours. If you are a woman, nothing can destroy your good looks so quickly; if you are a man, nothing can incapacitate you so much for the arduous work of the studio.

"3.—Any member of the Paramount Stock Company who fails to maintain seventy-five per cent standing in classes, attendance and general deportment is liable to expulsion from the company.
"4.—Although the stock in trade of the members of the Paramount Stock Company is their ability to portray their emotions, the place for such portrayal is on the screen, and not in the studio. Temperament is a valuable asset, but temperament out of control is a nuisance to yourself and everybody about you. Bursts of so-called temperament in the studio will not be tolerated; we are all grown men and women, and our actions should be governed by sanity and common courtesy.
"5.—No member of the company will be allowed to make a public appearance at a theatre or public entertainment without permission of the director of the stock company.

"6.—Gifts and gratuities to any instructor or officer of the Paramount Stock Company, or anybody else connected with the studio, are strictly forbidden.

Care on Details
"7.—Members of the stock company will be expected to play any part assigned to them. Success can be based only on good work, and ability to do good work can be demonstrated as well in a small bit as in a leading role. Therefore, never slight your work, no matter how inconsequential your role may seem.

"8.—Be careful in the choice of your associates outside the studio. Remember: 'A man is known by the company he keeps.' A woman is known by the company she avoids.
"9.—Do not confine your outlook on life to the activities of the studio. Broaden your viewpoint. Read good books; read a good newspaper and keep abreast of developments in politics, literature, economics, art. Remember, you are a citizen and your tastes shine through your eyes on the screen.

A Great Career
"10.—The motion picture, because of its great distribution, gives you popularity, wealth and a great career. But, by virtue of this very distribution, it also brings enormous responsibilities. You must accept these responsibilities. The motion picture has made you an intimate friend of countless people whom you will never see. You are their friend, nevertheless, and it must be your constant care never to do anything or say anything that will betray the confidence these millions of motion picture lovers have placed in you. Therefore, members of the Paramount Stock Company are expected to avoid places, people, circumstances and conduct which might in any way bring themselves and the motion picture profession into disrepute. Any member failing strictly to observe this rule is liable to instant dismissal from the company."

NORMA TALMADGE LIKED BOBBED HAIR

Famous Actress Says it is Indicative of Feminine Character

Miss Talmadge is heartily in accord with the theory that bobbed tresses are indicative of feminine character.

"The theory is perfectly right," she says. "The idea that bobbed hair indicates that a girl or woman is unreliable and that sort of thing is all wrong. It is a sign that she is ambitious, alert and interested in her work."

"My hair is bobbed, and as long as I continue to be a motion picture actress, it will stay bobbed and probably a long time afterward. Back in the old days when I was fighting for recognition I had to be at the studio early and many times very late. I knew I had to look my best and the result was that I was losing a great deal of needed sleep because I had to get up so early in order to properly arrange my hair."

"That loss of sleep handicapped me. It told on my appearance and in the late afternoon or at night I felt that I had lost my energy. So it was a case of not giving my best to my work or bobbing my hair, so my hair was bobbed."

"THE WONDERFUL THING" WESTHOLME TONIGHT

"The Wonderful Thing" is the title of the latest production starring Norma Talmadge, distributed by Associated First National Pictures, Inc. It is announced as the attraction at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

The production is in a considerably lighter vein than anything which Miss Talmadge has done recently, but it has an underlying strain of a love-drama which gives Miss Talmadge opportunity for some bits of the superb emotional acting that has made her so popular as a screen star. As Jacqueline Rogers, the only daughter of the American "Hog King," a finished product of a French convent, she is irresistibly alluring. As Mrs. Donald Mannerly she becomes a dramatic figure, and once again her father's daughter, she is tragic. One advantage, however, which a drama of love has over a drama of life is that a happy ending is possible, and one comes in a very satisfying manner in "The Wonderful Thing."

"Wanted a comedy with plenty of real humor in it" is a perpetual advertisement continually on display by all movie fans. The average audience is very tired of slapstick slush.

Since the only hope of the Sons of Canada for winning the season's soccer championship rests in victory tonight over the Callies, it may be assumed that the team will be on its toes extending itself in every way possible to win and that the match will be a drawing card for a record crowd of fans. Victory tonight will at least assure the Sons a play-off with the Sons of England if they themselves win from the Grotto on Thursday. A win for the Canadians tonight will also mark the disappearance of the Grotto chances for championship for their only hope lies in the Canucks' loss tonight and their own victory over the Sons of England. A little attention to errors of the past and their usual good form should make the Canucks a pretty safe bet for the game tonight although, as the fans learned last Tuesday night, "you can't always sometimes tell." The Callies might come through with their first win on their last appearance.

Harry Lipsett, the stolid goal tender for the Elks in the lacrosse league and the man to whom much credit is due for the starting of the game in Prince Rupert, is out looking for a leather helmet. Reason—Harry was kicked by a horse way back in 1906 and he has a bad spot on his forehead where nothing but skin covers his ability to play lacrosse and attend to various and sundry bits of business for his marine clients. Thus it is that if a lacrosse ball or anything else like that should land on his noble brow he might turn up his toes right there. It is to be hoped that Harry finds the leather armor plate before he enters the lists on Wednesday night in that fast and furious league opener.

Entire for the Lacrosse League.

gue close tonight and the first official game of the league for the Stork Cup is to take place on Wednesday night. It is hardly likely that there will be more than two teams in the running, namely the Elks and Sons of Canada, but the Association should be able to arrange a good interesting series of games between these two. Because the Sons have won both pre-season games does not mean that the Stork Cup is going to find its first home in their hall, Harry and the rest of his Brother Bulls aver.
