HOME RULE ALL COUNTRIES

First Step in Ireland Causes Scotland and Wales to Move.

LONDON, April 8.—The birth of the Irish Free State has led to renewed talk in some quarters of "home rule all around," that is, autonomy for Scotland and Wales as apart from England proper.

Home rule for Wales has already entered the range of practical politics, says an article in the Pall Mall Gazette.

Hitherto there have been among Welsh politicians two schools of thought. One has urged the setting up of a Welsh secretariats similar to the office of the Secretary for Scotland, so that Welsh administration may first be disentangled from English affairs; the other favoring a comprehensive home rule scheme without any preliminaries.

Lloyd George Favors. Prime Minister Lloyd George himself a Welshman, has hinted that he would look with favor on a comprehensive home rule measure.

This prompted the Welsh National Party at Westminster—composed of all the Welsh members of the House of Commons—to draft and adopt a home rule scheme as the basis of a measure to be introduced in Parliament at the earliest opportunity.

This has, in turn, fired the Scottish members, who at a party meeting have appointed a committee to confer with the Welsh members with a view to joint action.

Under the Welsh plan the imperial parliament would reserve its powers on questions affecting the crown, peace and war, foreign affairs, regulation of trade and industrial legislation and postal and other communications.

$5,700,000 for Milk

It is a matter of policy with this company not to go outside British Columbia for anything. We have, in the past, spent considerably more money than perhaps we could have bought some things for in the East, but if British Columbia is to become an industrial centre each one of us must do his small part by patronizing home industry. In our own case, we believe that where it has been necessary to pay a little more, in the end that little extra investment will pay greater returns to our province.

FISH COMPANY FAILS

Concern Capitalized at Ten Million Dollars Goes to Wall in England.

LONDON, April 10.—The latest sensation in London financial circles has been the announcement that a petition has been filed for the winding up of Diesel Fish Supplies, Ltd.

Registered in November, 1919, with a nominal capital of £2,000,000 of which £600,700 was subscribed, the company was formed to supply fish from the ports direct to London, by means of a fast motor service.

The middleman was to be eliminated, and the public were to get the benefit of cheaper fish.

The company opened up some 10 retail shops in London, and it obtained the lease of a site at Caledonian Market for the purpose of receiving and distributing depot.

The company did not realize their original hopes of success, and within the past few months appeals appear to have been made to shareholders for fresh temporary capital in the form of one-year notes.

The newspaper with the circulation is the real advertising medium.

Had Bad Cough and Sore Throat

Never neglect a cough or cold however slight. If you do it can have but one result: it leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected. A single dose of DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP will help to stop the cough, soothe the throat, and if the cough or cold has become settled on the lungs the healing virtues of the Norway pine tree along with the soothing and expectorant properties of other excellent herbs, roots and barks promptly eradicates the bad effects, and the persistent use cannot but help to bring about relief.

Mr. Albert Marsh, Lower L'Ardoise, N. S., writes:—"About a year ago I contracted a cold accompanied by a very bad cough and sore throat. I sent for the doctor, but what he prescribed did me so little good I began to get discouraged. A friend came to see me and asked me if I had ever used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I told him I had not and sent him right away to get me a bottle. I started using it, and after a couple of days I found I was getting relief, and after taking two bottles the soreness in my throat seemed to be leaving me, so I resolved to continue its use, and after I had used five bottles both my sore throat and cough were gone. I would not be without Dr. Wood's for any money."

Price, 35c and 60c a bottle; put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Wicked Fashion.

It was done. You see the double meaning? The flapper tossed her head, but she continued to flap, strutting up and down the seaside promenade in quilted silk sport coat, diminutive hobble skirt (that was the wicked fashion of those days), and wielding her walking stick and, sad to relate, in a short time the elder sister found herself basely deserted.

It will thus be seen that the genuine flapper comes between the ages of, roughly, 15 to 18. As soon as her hair went up she could count herself a flapper no longer.

But in these days of bobbing, where the dickens are you?—Ex-Flapper.

WHY, OF COURSE.

"THE OATH" TONIGHT AT THE WESTHOLME

Thrilling Photodrama is to Be Shown on Screen Featuring Marian Cooper.

Absorbingly interesting from the opening scene to the final "clinch" and with a climax that brings the audience half out of the seats is "The Oath," featuring Miriam Cooper, which opens at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

The opening is an interesting situation—chums in love with the same girl. She selects one and the other chooses the sordid path of courting an heiress to repair his fortunes. He wins her, then falls genuinely in love with her, and then in his blundering leads her to believe that he is ashamed of his marriage. Her father is murdered under circumstances which stamp guilt on the husband. The net tightens and his conviction is almost a certainty when the turn comes that saves his life but plunges four lives into the deepest of misery.

It would not be fair to those who will attend the Westholme Theatre this week to tell the sudden turn in events. It comes so suddenly that it is provocative of a thrill which is seldom the lot of a motion picture fan to receive, and therefore should be the exclusive property of those who witness the picture.
