WOMEN REFUSE DO ANY WORK

Moslems Say It is Against Their Religion and Others Hold Back
LABORERS ARE EXEMPT
SOFIA, Bulgaria, July 18. — When Premier Stamboulisky conceived the idea that it would be a good thing to compel every able-bodied man and woman in Bulgaria to work 10 days a year for the state, he probably expected the trouble which has ensued, for he is described as a far-sighted statesman with an active imagination. In any event he has entered the lists to defend the weak spots in his innovation, and his principal opponents are the young women of the land.
In the first place, the young Moslem women of Bulgaria have refused point blank to do a thing. They cite the position given them in their homes by their religion, and refer the authorities to various groups of fathers and brothers armed with knives, pistols and rifles, who are violently opposed to their female relatives donating their labor to the state. The Premier has proposed they be deprived of their vote, and has threatened arrest. The women still resist passively. Now Stamboulisky says they will work for the government, or he will know the reason why.

Crisis in September
September will be interesting, for then the 1922 class of women will be called to labor without pay in public buildings, gardens, etc. And the women other than those of the Moslem faith say they will work when the Moslem women do, in the meantime offering encouragement and support to their belligerent sisters.
There also have been called to the public gardens, as it were, professional men from the cities, men unused to hard labor whose soft hands daily attach white collars to silk shirts. In the beginning they went through the motions of work, but did virtually nothing. Why labor when one could soldier? Then the gang bosses gave piece work; each man could quit when his stunt was done. As a result two hours' work had not been completed in ten. But little by little the bosses increased the allotments, and now the inevitable reaction has set in. The bourgeoisie are daily complaining of sore backs, blistered hands, bad eyesight, sunstroke, hunger, thirst, and other handicaps.
Not Love Country
"These rotten bourgeoisie don't love their country, are lazy, and incapable," declared Stamboulisky, exasperated at not being able to force work out of the men mobilized.

amusing situations. It is pointed out that Stamboulisky himself has not done any work. As a cabinet minister he is exempt. Likewise all peasant field laborers, farmers and city workmen are exempt, and as the population of Bulgaria is largely agricultural the law applies mostly to professional men, such as lawyers, dentists, doctors and shopkeepers.
The newspaper men turned out as a body and did their work cheerfully; found that it did them good physically, and then went home to write amusing articles based on their experiences.

HAPPY CONSUMMATION CHILDHOOD AND WAR ROMANCE LAST NIGHT

Miss Mary A. McKenzie Becomes Bride of John Alexander McRae.

A childhood friendship in the old home in Lochinver, Scotland, which developed into a war romance when the groom went overseas to the Great War with the 72nd Highlanders, was happily consummated last evening at 7 o'clock when Miss Mary A. McKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McKenzie, Lochinver, Scotland, became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. William McRae of this city. The marriage ceremony took place quietly at the home of Rev. W. H. Redman, the officiating clergyman.
The bride was charmingly gowned in white satin georgette with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by Miss C. McLeod who wore a dainty costume of heena crepe with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Alex McRae, brother of the groom was best man and the bride was given away by her brother, Murdoch McKenzie.
The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl brooch and to the bridesmaid a stickpin.
Following the ceremony, the bridal party repaired to the home of the groom's parents on Summit Avenue where a wedding dinner was served and the evening was spent in music, dancing and general merriment. Those present were: the bride and groom and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. William McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. D. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. J. Munro, Mr. and Mrs. R. Parks, Mrs. F. Haugh, Miss C. McLeod, A. McKenzie, Duncan Munro, W. Cameron, Murdoch McLeod, Donald McRae, Alex. McRae and Allister McRae.
Mr. and Mrs. McRae will take up their residence on Seventh Avenue near McBride Street.

ARABS ARE SEEKING THEIR INDEPENDENCE
JERUSALEM, July 18. — The movement for Arab national independence is becoming further unified. Mesopotamia, Syria, Palestine, the Hedjaz and the Yemen have come together to organize a "World Arab Executive Committee."
The committee will endeavor to consolidate all Arab lands, and it will serve as a physical power against all foreign nations who try to partition Arab lands. It will concern itself with all Arab affairs, both military and political. Its headquarters have not yet been determined, but they will be at some point far removed from European influences.
As one Arab leader remarked, "The present situation both in Palestine and Syria has taught us the great lesson that only in unity will we Arabs obtain our national independence."
