WEEK AT WESTHOLME

Tuesday—Anita Stewart
in "Rose of the Sea."
Mack Sennett Comedy
"Calling a Cop."
Wednesday and Thursday
All star cast in "Our Mutual Friend." (Chas.
Dickens). Comedy.
Friday and Saturday and Saturday Matinee—
British All Star Cast in
"Branded." Comedy.

The picture "Rose of the Sea," which was shown at the Westholme Theatre last night, provides Anita Stewart with a role of rare appeal that carries her through adventure, mystery and tragedy unequalled in any of her previous pictures.

The lovers of Charles Dickens books, and there are many, will have an unusual treat at the Westholme Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday night when "Our Mutual Friend," is presented.

The picture "Branded," which comes at the week-end to the Westholme Theatre is a purely British production. It was made in England and is released in Canada through the Anglo-Canadian Picture Plays.

"The Easiest Way," which is now being produced with Theda Bara in the stellar role, will be the greatest American play according to David Belasco. Some authorities do not accept this view and point to "The Birth of a Nation," "The Four Horsemen," "The Miracle Man," and
"Robin Hood."

Harold Lloyd has just returned from New York to Los Angeles where he will engage in another year of comedy production.

Arrangements have just been closed for the showing of Douglas Fairbanks' picture "Robin Hood," in London, Paris, Rome, Berlin and Vienna.

A gigantic corporation with a capitalization of from $5,000,000 to $6,000,000 has been formed to modernize China through the medium of moving pictures.

Rudolph Valentino objects to his divorced wife, Jean Acker, changing her name to Valentino.
She has petitioned the court to that effect and he has filed his objection. Valentino asserts that when he married his former wife she knew his true name was Rudolfo Guglielmi and that she is attempting to change so that she may advertise herself.

Cecil B. DeMille has announced that he will pictureize the Ten Commandments and make of life production one of the greatest of his career. Production will commence in April.

"The Man from Glenarthy," Rudolph Connor's famous book, will be presented at the Westholme Theatre early next week.
The film is coming as a result of special arrangements made in Vancouver. The picture is from a Canadian book by a Canadian author and was made in Canada, the most of the setting being around Ottawa. It has been running in big Canadian cities during the past week or so and is hailed as the greatest all-Canadian picture.

ANITA STEWART PORTRAYS GIRL SHE LIKES BEST

Romance and Adventure Blended With Hard Work in "Rose of the Sea"

Recently Anita Stewart started the film colony at Los Angeles by declaring that the only kind of a girl worth while was the girl who had to work hard; and that industrious application to work was the only insurance a star had to retain her popularity. Then to prove her contention the star, who had always been featured in society life, secret service plots or romantic stories, set to work to make a picture which would portray the kind of character she thought was most worth while.

She not only made the picture of the working girl, but she declares that working at it was the hardest thing she ever did in her life. It meant being at the studio at eight o'clock every morning and working through the day, with a half hour for luncheon, until six in the evening. The endless walking around the studio, learning new trades and cultivating different mannerisms for her part, she declares, created the most strenuous task ever assigned to her.

The picture is "Rose of the Sea," which has just been released by Associated First National Pictures, Inc., and is being repeated at the Westholme Theatre. Blended with the hard work that falls to the lot of the star, however, is an intriguing story of romance and adventure.

Picturization of Charles Dickens' Novel Widely Acclaimed Production

What do the American people like best and want most in their motion picture and theatrical entertainment?

One rarely knows the answer to this question until vast expenditures have been made in productions. The theatre in all of its branches stresses the element of chance in attaining public appeal.

There has just been produced and made ready for local presentation a motion picture version of Charles Dickens' "Our Mutual Friend," which is one of the most widely acclaimed screen productions of the year. "Our Mutual Friend" is regarded by many temperate observers as the finest and most perfectly enacted picture of the new amusement year.

All of those influences that are working intelligently to improve motion pictures and to throw behind the sander, better productions the weight of public approval and patronage to "Our Mutual Friend" and productions of similar caliber. It is a perfect movie intelligently done.

"Our Mutual Friend" comes to the Westholme Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

ENGLISH PICTURE AT END OF WEEK

Miss Josephine Earle Plays Dual Role in Masterpiece Production "Branded"

There is dramatic interest in the new British picture "Branded," which is to be presented at the Westholme Theatre on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. Miss Josephine Earle has the difficult task of playing two roles in this picture — those of mother and daughter.

The story turns on the situation of the mother being charged with the crime of murder and sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment. A poignant moment comes in the film when the careworn mother is released from prison and finds herself in the arms of her youngest daughter, the oldest being not there.

The picture possesses two additional features in the scenic setting and the artistic photography.

It is doubtful if there has ever been written into the records of baseball a finer list of personal achievements than that which Rogers Hornsby has spread on the pages of the National League's official averages. He took the undisputed home-run championship with a total of 41 circuit blows; had the greatest number of hits, 250, that the league has ever had; hit a record number of bases, 450 which broke his own mark of 378 in 1921, and gained 20 over Cravath's old record of 129 for runs batted in, boosting this mark to 149. He also batted a home-run with the bases loaded.

At Wembley, England, there is a new stadium that will seat 120,500 people—a much larger stadium than any in America at present. The British football championships will be contested there.

Corbett Denenny, the flashy forward of the Toronto St. Patrick hockey team who did so much to defeat the Vancouver hockey team in the battles for the world's series last summer, is now in Vancouver and will be in the regular Vancouver line-up next week. He was exchanged for Jack Adams who is remaining in the East this year.

RETURNED SOLDIERS' INSURANCE EXPIRY DATE

An amendment to the Returned Soldiers' Insurance Act provides that insurance may not be granted on the lives of returned soldiers with or without dependents, in a serious condition of health from causes other than war service, or those without dependents, even when impairment is due to service. The amendment, however, contains the following proviso:

"Provided that applicants with or without pension-able disability who are so seriously ill that they have no expectancy of life, and who have dependents who are entitled to become beneficiaries under the contract as provided under the Act, shall be insurable under the Returned Soldiers' Insurance Act, up to, and inclusive of 1st JANUARY, 1923."

Insurance may be granted in all cases where the impairment is due to service and the returned soldier has dependents.

Application may be made at any local office of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, or by mail to Soldiers' Insurance Division, Bldg.
Building, Ottawa.

Applications not affected by the above will be accepted until September 1st, 1923.
