ACTIVITIES OF ANYOX LEAGUE

Entertainments for Smelter Town Form Chief Subjects for Discussion

ANYOX, Oct. 7. — A council meeting of the Anyox Community League was held in the recreation hall on Wednesday night last. The business embodied the questions of a smoking concert, humorous talks, a raise in salaries for employees of the league, the erection of a skating rink at the beach, and the formation of a program of coming events in Anyox. The league financial statement was read, and an increased grant for the library was appropriated. Billiard and pool tournaments for the winter season are to be arranged and it was planned to erect a toboggan slide if the report on this question to be submitted to the council at a later date is satisfactory.

Gymnasium Secretary Kelly announced that the new gymnasium for the beach had been commenced. The new building is to be erected in the space occupied by the second cottage from No. 2 power house, facing the large cement block. The lecture by Dean Quaintan will be held on October 20.

Smoking Concert Chairman Seideman, of the recreation department, intimated that a smoking concert would be held in the Recreation Hall on Oct. 13, but did not expect that the medals for the 1922 sports would be ready for presentation on that date although he expected to receive them in the near future.

Councillor Murdoch asked if the League employees were to receive an increase in wages, now that the workmen throughout the camp were receiving an increase. Chairman Ferguson said that the finance committee were going into this matter thoroughly.

Councillor Armour reminded the council that there was a clause in the agreement between the Granby Co. and the league to the effect that when wages changed in the camp the salaries of the league employees were to conform to these changes, and in this case they were entitled to an increase.

Skating Rink The new beach skating rink question was discussed. Councillor Rowley said that he would have the complete estimate for next week's meeting. He also informed the meeting that there was enough material in town to complete this work. He also had about 80 names of people who would buy season tickets which would cost $5 for the men and $2.50 for the ladies. As this venture has the appearance of being a good revenue producer the general opinion of the meeting was that it would be proceeded with as soon as the complete figures of the cost were received from Mr. Smith, construction foreman of the Granby Co.

Councillor Armour again brought up the question of a program of events, which could be printed and distributed along with the Granby News. Councillor Rowley told the meeting that he had such a program ready for printing but he had heard of several events at the meeting which he did not know about before. On a motion being put by Councillors Armour and Sherman it was decided that the secretary be instructed to write to the various

JUST A FEW DAYS TO CLOSE COMPETITION

Verses Still Come in But Must Come Quick to Be Admitted.

Only a few days longer and the limerick competition will close. Then will come the difficult matter of judging which will likely take a few days. The winning verses and the name of the author of each will be published. Here are a few of the contributions:

Rich As a Jew. A movie man came from Peru. So poor he had nothing to chew. He started a play. Made a thousand a day. And now he's as rich as a Jew.

Something Went Wrong. There was a young poet who fain. A limerick prize would attain. He tried to rhyme "Wally," With "Rudolph" by golly. Then something went wrong with his brain.

Rudolph Valentino. He is a bright star of the screen. This wonderful guy, Valentino. The Cave Man his line. And he forfeits no fine. If he bams his sweet love on the bean.

Actor with Charm. Tom Meighan's an actor with charm. His plays cannot do one much harm. In "The Prince Chap," he's great. Handsome, proud and sedate. His talents give rivals alarm.

Man of Renown. Bill Farnum, a man of renown. Makes a stir when he comes to town. The children all love him. And the ladies could huz him. On his face you will never see a frown.

Mary and Doug. When Mary and Doug went to Blightly. They didn't take even a nightly. The weather was hot. And whether or not. Without, they wer far from un-sightly.

Star Versus King. The praise of the movies I sing. Amusements to millions they bring. To young and to old. Their messag is told; I'd rather play star than be king.

Chuckles with Mirth. Oh, once a poor fat man named Worth. Was worried about his "great girl"; He saw on the screen. How he could get lean. And now he just chuckles with mirth.

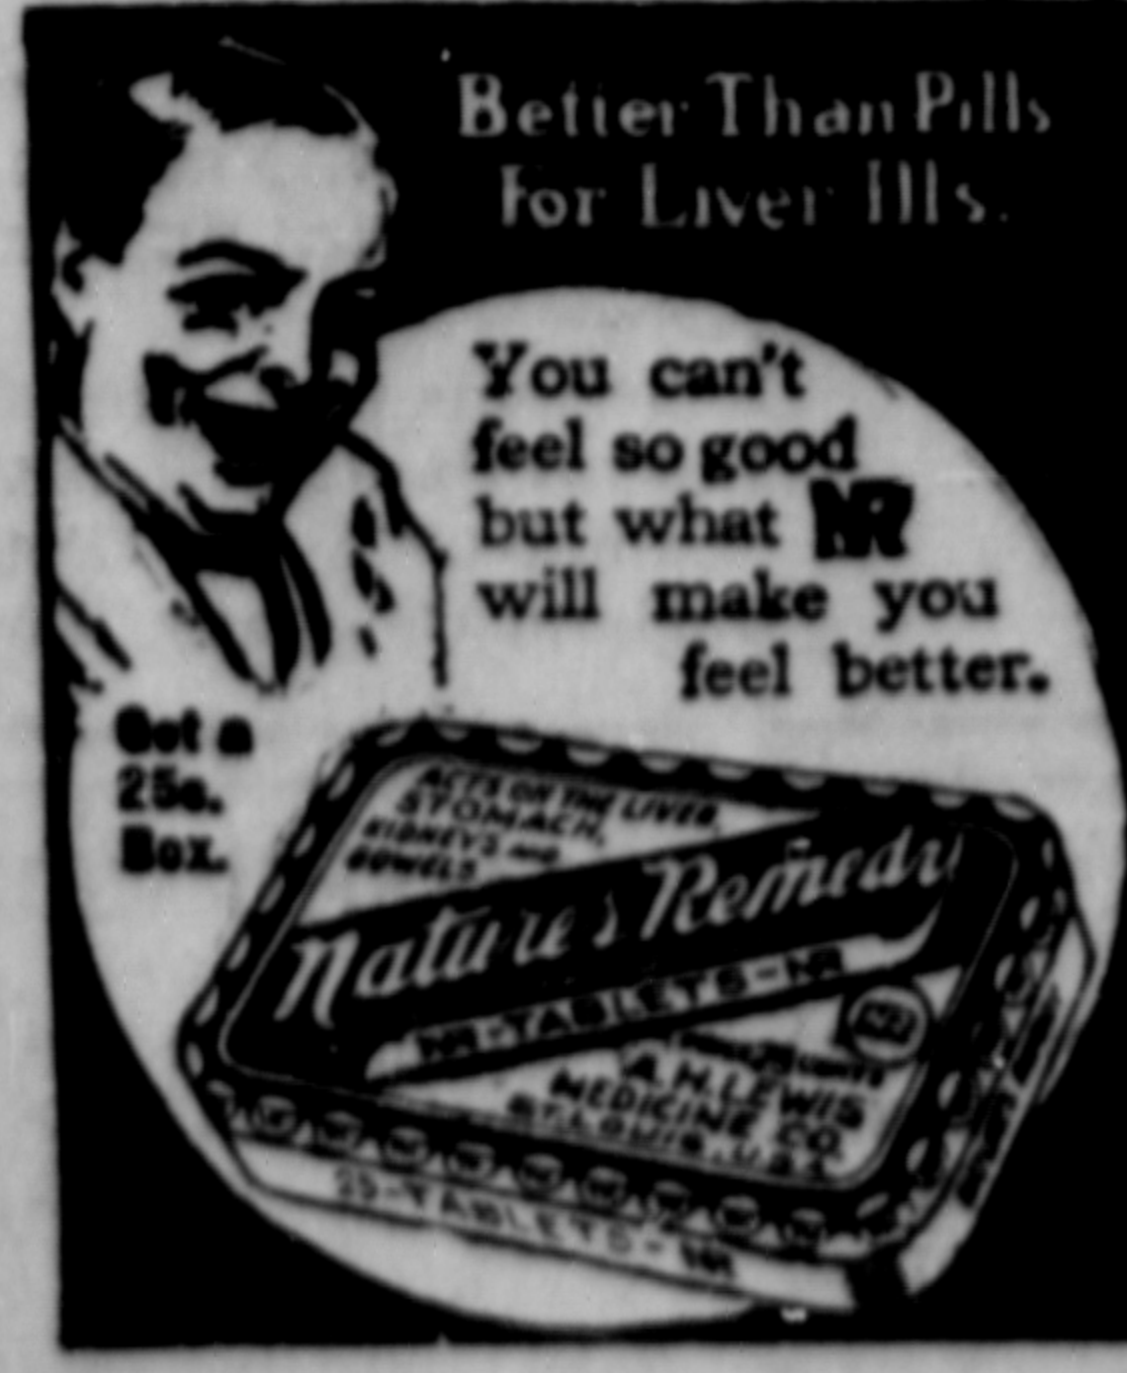

Half and Half. Young Johnny liked only to laugh. His Mary to hawl like a calf. He said "Calm your fears, You shall soon have your tears; The movies provide half and half.

The Fair One. There are movie stars galore At the Westholme by the shore. But the lady whose smile Has them beat by a mile Is the fair one at the door.

saining recognition in those quarters to which this country must look for progress, but no greater forward step has been made to this end than in the selection of F. G. Dawson, of Prince Rupert, as a director of the Canadian National Railways. It is not necessary to go very far into history; the history of railway manipulation for political gain is on a black page for Northern readers. With Mr. Dawson on the railway board many of the influences working to the detriment of Northern B.C. in the Grand Trunk Pacific zone should disappear and in that prospect there is a great deal to stimulate optimism. In a larger way we in the interior are regulated to a great extent by the progress of the seaport town of Prince Rupert. Facilities are required to bring to that town the position it should have occupied years ago and at the same time to put the railway in a better shape on the balance sheet. New business is to be made for the railway to bring revenue from a field that has long been stunted by artificial obstruction. The sooner these facilities can be provided the sooner will all the country feel the benefit by attendant enlargement of railway undertakings. There is no man in the West with a more thorough knowledge of what has taken place and of what is needed than Mr. Dawson, and we can look for early realization of the good things which have so far constituted the main part of railway bills-of-fare for tomorrow.

BETTER COOKING FOR SOLDIERS OF ARMY

Old Century Regulations Provide Better Service For Men

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Old-time soldiers will read the new regulations for the feeding of the army with envy and astonishment. They remember the three meals a day—tea and bread, meat and potatoes for dinner and bread for tea, and all extras to be paid for. It used to be said that the army cook was a man who was no good for marching. In the elaborate new directions we read that the army cook, new style, must on no account begin his day's work without being shaved and smoking is to be rigidly prohibited in his cook house and there are many other detailed requirements for the purpose of preventing food from being contaminated.

Cup of Tea The new time soldier is to have his early cup of tea followed by a liberal breakfast. The midday meal is to consist of roast or boiled meat, vegetables and sweets, with tea and supper later on. No longer have soldiers to line up in queues to receive their rations. Comfortable seating accommodation must be arranged, and the food distributed from service tables in the mess rooms, to insure that the dishes are served hot.

It is stated that the cost of a day's food works out at 1s. 8d. The same menu would cost at least 3s. 9d. bought at the cheapest caterers outside. This is possible under the new organization by careful avoidance of waste and by crediting to the men's mess fund the money obtained from the sale of refuse and empty jars and tins. All this used to be perquisites for the cook and his staff.
