ALLIES MAKE DEMANDS TURK GOVERNMENT MR. PATTULLO DELIVERED HIS ADDRESS BEFORE LEGISLATURE YESTERDAY

If Turks do not Accede Action Must be Taken; Today's News is Vague

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 10.—The Allied High Commissioners this afternoon handed a note to the Ankara government representative here demanding the repeal of all measures relating to customs, public debt and sanitary and other services which conflict with the capitulation and stipulations of the Mudros armistice agreement of 1918. "Otherwise," says the note, "the Commissioners will be compelled to refer to their governments for necessary action."

The Allied generals have also arranged a meeting with the Turk Nationalist government here to which will be submitted the minimum demands with a view to insuring the safety of troops and efficient control of the police and gendarmerie.

Better or Worse?
LONDON, Nov. 10.—No one in England seems to know whether the situation in Constantinople is better or worse. News is very vague.

The Daily News has a report that the Ankara government has asked the soviet government at Moscow whether the Russian Bolsheviks will adhere to the Russian Turk military agreement in the event of war. The Russians are reported to have replied affirmatively stating, however, that such adherence would not take the form of lending troops to the Turks as the soviets feared the effect that such action would have in regard to Russia's individual interests with other nations.

MAYOR AND ALDERMEN DISMISSED

Judge Lampman Finds No Case
Against Victoria Civic Executives

VICTORIA, Nov. 10.—Judge Lampman yesterday dismissed the charges against Mayor William Marchant and Aldermen Woodward, Lemming, and Perry, of wrongfully paying $100 to police commissioner Stenland to cover part of his expenses to New York to attend the convention of police officials there recently.

"I think there is no case," said the Judge after three hours evidence had been given.

CAPITAL NOT EXPECTED NOW

Says Hon. T. D. Pattullo in Addressing the Legislature

VICTORIA, Nov. 10.—"Speaking generally, I do not think that Canada can expect any general investment of British capital in Canadian industries for some time," said the Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands in the Legislature yesterday. The minister defended his department saying that the government had not sought to encourage other than agricultural immigration except such as might be incidental to the encouragement of new industries. "He intimated that the government might, in the near future, undertake a policy of reforestation to counteract the recent fire ravages."

GURVICH CASE IS ON TODAY

Evidence Taken this Morning in Proceedings Against Mrs.
Gurvich

A crowded courtroom watched the proceedings this morning in the case of Mrs. Nick Gurvich charged with selling intoxicating liquor. Magistrate McClymont heard the case while T. B. Hooper acted for the crown and L. W. Patmore defended.

According to the evidence of Constables Dixon and Harrison, of the provincial police, they bought two drinks of liquor each from the accused at her quarters in the Serbian Hotel, 622 Fraser Street, on the morning of October 22.

The accused sat in the dock calmly watched the proceedings and chewed gum steadily. At different times during the proceedings the counsel gave vent to some heated comment about each other's methods. Mr. Hooper referred to the "poor little clients" of the defence lawyer while the latter in turn called attention to the "white-faced stool pigeons." Often these comments lasted several minutes much to the amusement of the general public watching the case.

According to Constable Harrison, he and Constable Dixon went to the accused's house by the back door from the lane at 11.15 a.m. on the day in question. They saw a short man in the kitchen who told them that the "old woman" was in the front and would be back shortly. When the accused arrived she asked the men, according to the witness, if they wanted Scotch and they replied in the affirmative.

Drinks Produced

The drinks were produced in two whiskey glasses on a plate and the vendor was given a dollar bill. Later the same performance was repeated when Constable Dixon purchased the drinks. Witness stated that the liquor was Scotch Whisky. They saw nobody else there and left at 11.25 a.m.

Mr. Hooper produced a bottle of John Dewar's Special Scotch Whisky with about two and a half inches of liquor in it. This the witness identified by initials he had placed on the label. Witness pulled the cork with his teeth, tilted the bottle and tasted some. "It is Scotch whisky, Your Lordship," he explained. Three whiskey glasses were also produced, all the evidence having been found at the accused's house on October 26, when the place was searched.

Barrel of Beer

On cross-examining the witness Mr. Hooper asked him if it was not true that he had taken charge of a barrel of beer which arrived at the house from the liquor vendors just when they were making the search. Witness said yes and explained that he and the other constables had waited till the driver had rolled the barrel up to the kitchen door before taking charge of it.

Constable Dixon told a like story, substantiating the former witness' evidence. W. D. Vance city treasurer, produced a rooming-house licence issued to Mrs. Gurvich.

Sam Bill, a Serbian, was the first witness produced by the defence. He kissed the bible with a smack when being sworn and in a long story told of how his wife had been taken sick two days previous to the visit of the constables at the accused's

CRERAR QUILTS LEADERSHIP OF PROGRESSIVES

Announcement Made to His Followers in Parliament at Winnipeg Today

WINNIPEG, Nov. 10.—Hon. T. A. Crerar today announced to his followers in the Canadian Parliament his resignation from the leadership of the National Progressive party. He declared, however, his willingness to fight in their ranks in a long letter to T. W. Caldwell, M.P., chairman of the Progressive caucus.

In his letter Mr. Crerar discussed his own position on political questions of the day and the future of the Progressive movement. He stated that his business obligations and his personal position made it impossible for him to continue the leadership and that had these questions not intervened his retention of the post would have depended upon a clear understanding and statement of the Progressive program. A right restriction of the Progressive party to the farmers would, Crerar declared, render not only distinct service to the country as a whole but to the very people the movement was created to assist. All people of goodwill who believed certain definite principles as applied to public policies should be included. He made no recommendation as to his successor.

THRONE ADDRESS DEBATE CLOSED

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Hon. William Sloan, and J. M. Yorston Speak in Legislature

VICTORIA, Nov. 10.—The debate on the address from the throne closed yesterday afternoon without division, the opposition not having the hardihood to again challenge the vote after four consecutive defeats and with the majorities against them increasing.

Before the debate closed Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, and Hon. William Sloan, minister of mines, spoke at some length. Incidentally and apart from the main speech, Mr. Pattullo gave a boost for Central British Columbia quoting a report showing the fertility of the soil and its adaptability for mixed farming.

Mr. Sloan spoke of advance legislation in regard to the mines of the province. He was challenged by Sam Guthrie, member for Newcastle, but was able to show that the department did everything possible to protect the lives of men in the coal mines.

J. M. Yorston, member for Cariboo, made a strong plea for the Pacific Great Eastern Railway and said if the line was abandoned settlers would leave and the taxable value of land would decrease. He told of the fine land through which the railway went.

Premier Oliver moved that Pacific Great Eastern accounts be referred to the public accounts committee. The only objector was W. K. Esling, member for Rossland.

ODDFELLOWS LODGE IS LAUNCHED AT TERRACE

Local Members Who Assisted in Ceremonies Returned to City Last Night

The installation of the new Oddfellows' Lodge, Lakelse No. 33, took place at Terrace yesterday morning. The installation ceremony was a very impressive one and was presided over by Grand Master Phillips, of New Westminster, assisted by some fifteen Oddfellow members from Prince Rupert.

The Lakelse Lodge started off with nine charter members and seven new members were initiated during the installation ceremony. The visiting brothers have great faith in the future of the new lodge which they state has been opened under very favorable circumstances.

Grand Master Phillips left Terrace on last night's train on an official visit to Southers and Prince George en route to New Westminster via Vancouver. The visiting Oddfellow members, who journeyed to Terrace from here to assist the Grand Master in the installation ceremony, returned to the city on the train last night.

Prince Rupert Member Speaks in Legislature and Tells of His Trip

VICTORIA, Nov. 10.—Frequent reference was made to his recent trip to the Old Country by Hon. T. D. Pattullo, member for Prince Rupert and minister of lands, in his address to the Legislature yesterday afternoon. The minister spoke especially in regard to immigration, forestry and lumber questions. He declared that the cost of his trip was no more than the speech of the leader of the opposition the other day yet he found many who were ready to take exception to it.

Mr. Pattullo said that he had gone thoroughly into the matter of immigration of British people to Canada and had arranged to have a conference at Ottawa with Col. Amery, of Empire settlement fame. The political change had made his (Col. Amery's) visit to Canada impossible, however, as he had since become a minister in the Bonar Law cabinet. Mr. Pattullo said he thought it was best to await developments and act in co-operation with the Dominion rather than alone.

The minister of lands also got in touch with industrial concerns with a view to their establishing in the province and investigated thoroughly the forest protection systems in vogue on the European continent.

Mr. Pattullo spoke of the injury done immigration and other schemes by unjust criticism.

SCHOOL BOARD TO BRING ON ACTION.

That legal action should be brought against the architect responsible for the original building of the Booth School in order to reclaim damages when the amount of such damages have been ascertained, was moved by L. W. Patmore and seconded by J. C. McLennan at the meeting of the School Board last night. The resolution to this effect was passed after a brief discussion.

LLOYD GEORGE IS ACCLAIMED

Former Premier Took Thrust at Labor in Campaign Speech Yesterday

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Lloyd George in his speech yesterday said he was hopeful that the Labor party would get such a lesson in this election from the common sense of the country that they themselves would see the wisdom of abandoning wild schemes and of returning to political proposals for the benefit of the workers.

Lloyd George started a triumphal march through Wales today. People left their farms and work benches to meet the train on which the ex-premier travelled. The crowds cheered and sang.

DEATH PENALTY DRUNKEN NEGRO

Fred Deal, Who Shot Constable McBeath, V.C., in Vancouver, Will Hang January 12

VANCOUVER, Nov. 10.—Fred Deal, negro, was found guilty last night of the murder of constable Robert McBeath, V.C., and was sentenced to be hanged on January 12 next. The trial which was begun on Wednesday was postponed several times. Detective Quirk testified that Constable McBeath arrested Deal on Granville street near Davie, on October 9, while he was driving on an automobile. The prisoner was drunk and disorderly and was accompanied by Marjorie Earl, a white woman. Quirk stated that Deal wounded him and shot and killed Constable McBeath while resisting arrest. Deal pleaded that he was too intoxicated and stunned by blows dealt him by the police officers to know what happened.

W. J. Cash returned from a business trip to Smithers on the train last night.
