 WHAT'S NEWS TO YOU?

 THRIFTINESS is a state of mind that is nearly as valuable an asset as a bank account... For thriftiness can always get a bank

And it's easy to tell thrifty people from the way in which they read the newspapers — just as you can usually spot the other kind.

account of its own.

The great majority of men and women never put a newspaper down until they have read the important news which is directed to them through advertisements.

The modern woman, especially, finds the advertisements indispensible. She spends more than five-sixths of the family income.And the prosperity, happiness and health of her household frequently depend on her reading of the advertisements and on the wisdom with which she chooses everything she buys.

The advertisements bring you complete information about accepted products and new ones. Through them you can compare values . . . discover ways and means for greater household efficiency and enjoyment . . . and make sure that every dollar spent will bring its full return
