Oriental Immigration Question was Debated on Legislative Floor

VICTORIA, Nov. 11.—In moving a resolution asking the Dominion to exclude Orientals from Canada, Hon. William Sloan, member for Nanaimo and minister of mines, declared that immigration must be controlled from within Canada and not dictated from without. As a self governing nation, Canada had the right to work out her own destiny according to the ideals of the people, that principle having been clearly accepted by Great Britain.

Mr. Sloan pointed out the failure of the head tax to prohibit Chinese immigration which unchecked. He pointed also to the capture of the fisheries by the Japanese and the manner in which Orientals had gone into other lines of business. He also spoke of the school situation and the logging industry.

Thomas Eppill, member for Fernie, said that when Chinese were competing with work, no one took notice but when the merchants and bankers were affected action followed.

Bowser's Amendment

W. J. Bowser, leader of the opposition, claimed that Mr. Sloan had not implemented his promise to the electors but the motive now actuating him was the action of the Liberal convention at Nelson. Mr. Bowser moved a lengthy amendment that the legislature oppose itself to any treaty with China or Japan unless subject to approval by British Columbia and also that provision be made against Oriental ownership of land and employment in industries.

Sam Guthrie, minor member for Newcastle, said that "the stuff the minister of mines was talking about was all bunk."

Adjournment of the debate was moved by Kenneth Duncan, member for Cowichan.

NICHOL BACK FROM EUROPE

Lieut. Governor Says Unemployment Still Serious Problem

MONTREAL, Nov. 11.—"The employment problem is looking larger than ever before. In fact it is the most important question with which Canada is concerned," Hon. Walter C. Nichol, Lieutenant-Governor of B.C. said on his arrival from England and France where he has been visiting.

He said two factors must be envisaged if this country is to secure the right type of immigrants from Great Britain. The first is to encourage the practical intelligent settler and not the young man who is sent over with a few hundred pounds in his pocket without the slightest idea of what he is going to do. Secondly the authorities must give the new citizens full co-operation when they arrive in the country to make them feel they are among friends.

DANGERS OF LABOR VIEWS

Set Forth by Ex-Premier Lloyd George in Stumping for His Son

LONDON, Nov. 11. Lloyd George told his audience at Buxton West, in a speech supporting the candidature of his son for parliament, that Great Britain faced the danger which swept Russia if labor were allowed to enforce its program. He hoped that labor would revise its revolutionary tendencies. The ex-premier said that the present labor views put into practice would destroy commerce and finance and leave Britain a poor crawling thing with world supremacy gone.

Fourth Anniversary of Peace Declaration Celebrated With Solemnity Throughout Empire

LONDON, Nov. 11.—With solemnity that was heightened rather than diminished by the passing years, Britain today rendered homage for the fourth time to those who gave their all in the Great War. Armistice Day was observed this morning by a great silence throughout the land and distant Dominions.

There were no elaborate ceremonies here. The King, representing the nation, placed a wreath on the memorial cenotaph to the silent sons of Britain. Representatives of the ministry, the army, the navy and the Dominions paid similar tribute and then people, coming in a great pilgrimage through Whitehall, placed their offerings about the memorial. Throughout the day thousands passed in a constant stream by the tomb of the Unknown Warrior in Westminster Abbey.

Canada's Observance

TORONTO, Nov. 11.—The commemoration of Armistice Day was more general today throughout Canada than on any previous occasion since Nov. 11, 1918. Two minutes of silence in honor of the heroic Canadian dead was the principal feature of the celebration in all parts of the country.

Solemn Ceremonies

PARIS, Nov. 11.—As a part of the Armistice Day observances, Hon. W. S. Fielding and Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Canadian ministers, today laid a wreath upon the tomb of France's Unknown Soldier at the Arc de Triomphe paying tribute from Canada's government.

Marshal Foch, Earl Haig, and Vice-Admiral Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, wartime British sea lord, stood on the spot in Compiegne Forest where the armistice was signed and Premier Millerand unveiled a monument marking forever the place where the German Eagle fell.

NEAR EAST SITUATION

Still Is Critical all London Papers Agree

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The situation in Constantinople, where the Turkish Nationalists want the Allies to get out and the Allies are determined to sit tight, is still very critical all the morning papers here agree, but none of them are furnishing any news to justify their views. Even the government itself in some quarters is declared to be largely in the dark.

ARGUMENT IN GURVICH CASE

Magistrate McClymont Will Give Decision on Tuesday Morning

The arguments in the case of Mrs. Nick Gurvich charged with selling liquor were concluded in the police court this morning and Magistrate McClymont announced that he would give his decision on Tuesday morning.

The accused on the stand was closely questioned by City Solicitor Hooper. She admitted that she had been arrested before for selling liquor and fined.

Hubert Crew, of the Dominion Meteorological service, was put on the stand to prove that it was fine on the day in question with no rainfall. The witnesses for the defence all declared that it was raining. He stated, however, that it rained the day before.

Mr. Patmore in addressing the court said he was willing to poll the mantle of charity over the "white-faced stool pigeons" and say they were mistaken in the date. He said they had no reason to lie in their statements.

Difficult Proposition

The crown counsel at the outset of his address said the case was the hardest proposition he had ever had before in a criminal court. He drew attention to the fact that the accused had been convicted before and also her son and suggested that the witnesses had clubbed together to save one of their friends. He made some very strong remarks about the way the defence had spoken of the detectives who were appointed by the government to preserve law and order but in court were treated with infamy and called stool pigeons because they were doing their duty. "When you are playing with fire you have to use fire," declared Mr. Hooper.

Magistrate McClymont will hear the case against Nick Gurvich charged with selling liquor on Monday and the case of Barry Gillis charged with the same offense on Tuesday.

A Serbian interpreter and another of that race to check up on the translation for the crown featured the proceedings on Friday afternoon. The crown was forced to allow Sam Bill, one of the chief witnesses for the defence, to act as interpreter but T. B. Hooper, for the prosecution, refused to let him act without using Tony Budenich, another Serb, as his personal checker on the translation.

Proving an Alibi

Mrs. Veda Voosavich was the chief witness. Through the interpreter she declared that Mrs. Gurvich had been at Mrs. Bill's house all the morning of October 17 as an alibi against the charge that the accused had sold liquor to two constables.

The witness was just beginning her evidence when trouble started between the counsel. Mr. Hooper declared that Mr. Patmore for the defence was not getting the evidence in the proper manner and was wasting time.

"If Mr. Patmore does not know how to get about it, I will and do it properly," declared the crown counsel.

Mr. Patmore: "I've been letting you handle my cases all along."

"He thinks he is running this court and has been thinking that way for a long time. I can tell him that he does not," declared Mr. Hooper.

"Are you addressing me or the court?" from Mr. Patmore.

"You," retorted Mr. Hooper.

Police Necessary

"Well then you had better address the court. I wish my learned friend would sit down and keep still."

"Nobody can stop you except the police."

"Go after the police," and turning to Chief Vickers in the corner at the door, "Put Mr. Patmore out right away, will you?"

Magistrate McClymont listened to all of this without a word and seemed to think they would stop when they ran short of expressions.

California Now in Favor of Volstead Act and Eighteenth Amendment

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—The discovery of an error of 25,000 votes in Alameda County reverses California's verdict on Prohibition enforcement and gives a majority of nearly ten thousand in favor of making the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act part of the State law of California compelling the State police and the bench to act in the same way as Federal agents have been trying to do. The vote count is incomplete but the outlying counties cannot materially change the result.

ROCHESTER AT VICTORIA

To Confer With Provincial Government on Municipal Reforms

VICTORIA, Nov. 11.—Mayor H. B. Rochester, of Prince Rupert, yesterday joined the committee of the Union of Municipalities which is laying before the municipal committee of the Legislature various proposals chief of which is a plan to equalize assessments rather than assess at actual cash value in municipalities. This would prevent the slumping of assessments unduly and would also prevent those appealing getting preferential assessment from the court. Mayor Merchant, of Victoria, proposed an assessment according to population. This would, however, create an impossible situation for Prince Rupert where the population is small compared with the size of the town-site and land values.

Mayor Rochester and H. F. Pullein attended the Rotary Club luncheon here yesterday when Colonel G. Peck, V.C., gave an Armistice Day address.

Fred Dawson Tells of Recent Tour Over Canadian National System Made by New Directors

After an absence from the city of four weeks in which time he made a tour of the Canadian National Railway systems from Luceerne in the west to Quebec city in the east, in company with other members of the new directorate of the system, F. G. Dawson, the B. C. director of the Canadian National Railways, returned to the city last night from Ottawa. He will be here for a few weeks he expects and may make a trip to Vancouver next week to take up matters in connection with the railway there.

"All that we have done so far has been for the purpose of getting better posted on the problems of the system, especially in regard to unification and efficiency, before the arrival of Sir Henry Thornton, the president," said Mr. Dawson this morning in speaking of the recent tour and his visit in the east. "No definite policies or plans have yet been outlined but they will rest in abeyance until the arrival of Sir Henry who will not sail from England until November 22, arriving at Ottawa, it is expected, about December 1.

INTERESTING BUT DIFFICULT

"The trip we made and the work was most interesting to me. I can plainly see where there will be plenty of work to do in connection with the directing of the system. There are some very difficult problems to be dealt with and it will take considerable time to adjust all matters. In dealing with them, some people are bound to have their corns stepped on."

"The next big problem will be the matter of amalgamating the old Grand Trunk with the Canadian National Railways. It will be done soon after the president's arrival.

"None of the members of the

PENSION BOARD WAS DEFENDED

Attorney General Manson Replies in Legislature to Canon Hincks' Objections

VICTORIA, Nov. 11.—Canon Hincks, member of Victoria moved a resolution in the legislature yesterday objecting to widows of soldiers, becoming dependents within six months after their husbands had been discharged, having to get support from the Patriotic Fund instead of the Mothers' Pensions Act. He claimed discrimination against soldiers.

Hon. A. M. Manson, attorney-general, showed that the Patriotic Fund paid $60 per month and the Mothers' Pension Act only $35. It was the duty of the Dominion to provide for soldiers so this arrangement had been made, Mr. Manson said. The Pensions Board, which was an independent commission appointed by the legislature, had been most sympathetic to women and had won praise for the manner in which it conducted its business.

The attorney general said that Canon Hincks was not in possession of the entire facts and was attempting to make a political question of a departmental letter.
