A charge of $2 to cover court costs is to be charged by the police magistrate in future in handling drug cases which are tried in the city police court for the Dominion Police. The police and government collect the entire fines without the city sharing in them whatever.

The account of Fisher & Oughton for $75 in connection with the recent case in the police court again the Middle West Wine Co. for illegal liquor selling was again presented to the police commission last night with a recommendation from the city solicitor that $50 only be paid. It has now been referred to the city council, the commission feeling that it is still too high.

The payment of overtime wages to police officers was again discussed at the police commission meeting last night and it was decided to ascertain what was done in Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster in this connection. Special patrol duty, the commission felt, was entitled to overtime pay but appearance in police court in connection with cases came within the ordinary duties of the officers.
