"GIRL IN A TAXI" IS GREAT COMEDY

Countless Funny Situations Make Latest De Haven Picture a Scram.

Countless funny situations present themselves in Carter De Haven's latest farce comedy "The Girl in the Taxi" which is to be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight and tomorrow night.

Son hides in a taxi to avoid meeting his father. A beautiful young girl enters and he is whisked away. He had pawned his father's best clothes. His father had insisted on calling him a "mollycoddle." Father catches him in a jam with another woman and had to convince his mother of his innocence. A policeman, on being called to quell a disturbance, finds his wife a member of the riotous party.

These are only a few of the comical incidents which make tonight's picture a scream indeed.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:

A REAL gentleman is said to be a man who buys his beer by the barrel.

I DREAMT that a burglar broke into my bedroom last night looking for money and that I got up and helped him look for it.

WE hear this talk about "the gravity of the short-skirt craze." There doesn't seem to be sufficient gravity, however, to make them come down.

THE COUGH with that Ticklish Sensation

A little tickling in the throat; now and then a dry, hacking cough; you think it is not bad enough to bother about, but every hack makes a breach in the system, strains the lungs and prepares the way for more serious trouble.

How many people have lost a good night's rest by that nasty, tickling, irritating sensation in the throat? The dry, harsh cough keeps you awake, and when you get up in the morning you feel as if you had had no rest at all.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP is just the remedy you require to stop that irritating, tickling cough on account of its soothing, healing and expectorant properties.

Mrs. P. Johnson, Port Alberni, B. C., writes:—"I have suffered for years, off and on, with a tickling cough. I could not sleep nights and had to sit up in bed to get relief. In fact, I coughed so I used to vomit. I tried different doctors' prescriptions until I heard of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I tried it and found great relief after I had taken the first bottle and have not been troubled since. I shall always keep it in the house."

Be sure and get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. Price, 35c and 60c a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

REFUGEES IN BERLIN CITY

German Newspapers Liken the Capital to a "Foreign Colony."

BERLIN, April 21.—Hordes of Russian refugees are flocking here on every train. The arrivals have settled themselves in a section of the city which they occupy almost to the exclusion of other nationalities, and have opened their own restaurants, clubs, saloons and theatres. Some of the Russians are wealthy, but most of them are penniless.

The police have found them a problem, as they insist upon their own customs, and have little commerce with the Germans. The greatest difficulty is found in compelling the immigrants to observe the 1 o'clock closing regulations. They follow the Russian custom of beginning dinner after midnight and continuing their eating and drinking until daylight.

Fall of the Mighty.

In several of these restaurants former wealthy Russians are working as waiters, cooks or entertainers. A prince and his wife, a baron, and another of their countrymen constitute the orchestra in one small eating place. They were bankrupted by the revolution and must work or starve.

Profiteers who made fortunes out of the Russian revolution frequent the cafes in this quarter, where they have become conspicuous figures in the night life because of their lavish expenditures.

The German newspapers complain that the great influx of easterners has deprived Berlin of its "German character." One paper asserts Germany's capital city has become "a foreign colony, as surely as it would have become if our enemies had marched in and taken it." Another declares Germans have become "guests in their own homes."

Fear Epidemic.

Government quarters, which have shown little concern for the financial status of the refugees, have suddenly become intensely interested in the new arrivals, particularly from Poland and Russia, fearing an epidemic of typhus and cholera. German Red Cross physicians have warned the government that unless closer border control can be maintained an epidemic in the spring is certain. The German Red Cross has also notified the government that there is danger of the Russians carrying the plague to America unless greatest precautions are taken, for scores are seeking admission to the United States.

ELECTIONEERING IN HUNGARY IS ROUGH BUSINESS INDEED

BUDAPEST, April 21.—A new occupation, open only to young huskies not afraid to fight at the drop of a cabbage, has come into being here as a result of intensive campaigning for the coming elections.

Candidates opposing the government have met with such pronounced hostility that they now employ as many athletic young men as their campaign funds will permit to act as bouncers, body guards, spotters and shields for the speakers.

Opposition candidates decided to buy protection after dozens of their meetings had been broken up by bands of the notorious "Awakening Hungarians," who acquired remarkable skill at heavy cabbage and soft tomatoes, ill-smelling bombs and occasionally bricks during fits of political enthusiasm.

The bouncers ate stationed at various points through the hall and galleries and on the speaker's platform. Those in the audience attempt to quell disturbances at the source, but should a stray vegetable break loose and head for the stage, there is always some of the hired help ready to jump in front of the speaker for an instant.

On the rare occasions when there are no disturbances, the huskies act as claqueurs. In many of the gatherings this is said to require almost as much courage as speaking, for an outburst of applause from any section of the house is sure to bring a collection of missiles.

The newspaper with the circulation is the real advertising medium.
