BOOTH SCHOOL CLASSES FIND NEW QUARTERS

Six of Eleven Divisions Will Be Running Tomorrow—Other Five End of Week.

Six of the eleven classes of the Booth Memorial School will be in operation in new quarters tomorrow morning. Emergency rooms for the remaining five are now being constructed in the basements of King Edward High School and Borden Street and should be ready for occupancy by the end of the week.

The classes to be running tomorrow will be housed in Borden Street School, the old domestic school annex on Seventh avenue, the Lutheran Church on Ninth Avenue and the three upstairs rooms vacant in King Edward High School. Three more rooms are being constructed by means of putting in partitions in the basements of the Borden Street School, as are also two at the King Edward High School.

The children of the five classes which are to move into their temporary rooms tomorrow will assemble at Booth Memorial School at 9 o'clock and will take their books from there and proceed to the new rooms.

Technical Classes.

For the remainder of the term, unless the school board alters the present plan, Miss Stephens, domestic science teacher, and R. H. Shockley, manual training instructor, will conduct their work in regular class rooms of the various schools. Miss Stephens will give sewing lessons and Mr. Shockley will carry on with mechanical drawing as well as assisting in the regular school drawing lessons.

Borden Street, Seaford Cove and Westview schools reopened "as usual" this morning after the Easter holidays, as did also the Booth School entrance class, which is finding temporary accommodation at Borden Street.

WOMEN KEPT BACK FROM EMIGRATION

LONDON, April 22.—"A larger migration of women would be effected if financial assistance could be given," says the annual report for 1921 of the Society for Overseas Settlements of British Women.

Under the present conditions, the report continues, "the cost of the journey is prohibitive to most women, thousands of whom would be willing to go to the Dominions to do the work most required of them."

The report proceeds to point out the conditions of life in the Dominions, which are still little understood by the majority of the people in the United Kingdom. The pictures painted there are often unreal, and girls and women start on the new venture in many cases unprepared for the realities of life in the Dominions and with light-hearted irresponsibility which too often leads to unhappiness for themselves and for those among whom they have to live. The report emphasizes the fact that such emigrants need advice and assistance.

ROMANCE AND HISTORY JAPAN

Will Be Brought Home to Prince While Visiting There.

TOKIO, April 24.—Japan's generation for her great leaders of the past will be brought home to the Prince of Wales when he is taken on a pilgrimage to the sacred Tenno shrine, bordering on the ancient capital of Kyoto, burial place of Meiji Tenno, father of the present ruler and the great figure-head of the restoration period; and of Jimmu Tenno, founder of the empire.

The Meiji tomb is situated at Monoyama, a wooded eminence some five miles from Koyo, a spot which the late emperor is said to have chosen as his last resting place.

The tomb itself is remarkably simple, consisting of a huge mound of concrete, covered with 300,000 minute slabs of white granite, and so constructed as to withstand the ravages of time and nature. The mound rests on a terraced slope, behind which, amphitheatre-like, is a grove of trees, the open space in front being covered with fine white sand, white sand it is a double line of stone fences pierced by "torii" gates bearing the imperial insignia.

Historical Associations. This district is particularly rich in historical associations. It is the site of the famous palace of the dictator Hideyoshi, built in 1594 but now completely destroyed. It is said to have been the most magnificent mansion ever built in Japan. Here too, not far from the Meiji tomb is the mausoleum of the Emperor Kwannmu, who in 792 founded the Imperial capital of Kyoto, a distinction which belonged to this city until Meiji Tenno moved to Tokio in modern times.

The mausoleum of Jimmu Tenno is built on the low hill of Uchi overlooking the romantic land of Yamato, where in the dim ages, was founded the Empire of Japan. It is a large mound of tumulus of stone and earth, surrounded by ancient trees and a double line of moats. To both these tombs are attached shrines, simple and severe in aspect, perfect examples of Shinto architecture. That dedicated to the founder of Japan is situated at Kashiwabara, at the foot of Mount Uchi, while the Meiji Shrine, in recognition of that Emperor's long connection with Tokio, has been erected in the present-day capital.

R. L. Brown returned to the city on last night's train, and is registered at the Prince Rupert Hotel.

ENGLISH PARTY REACHES HERE

Twenty-seven Immigrants on Way to Settle on Q. C. Islands.

Nine families, totaling 27 persons in charge of Dr. Dunn, arrived in the city on last night's train from England bound for the Queen Charlotte Islands for settlement in the vicinity of Massett. This is the advance guard of the thirty families who are being brought out from the old country through the efforts of Charles Harrison and Dr. E. H. Lawson, the latter having arrived some few weeks ago to make arrangements for their reception on the Islands. The remaining families it is expected will arrive in June.

The classes to be running tomorrow will be housed in Borden Street School, the old domestic school annex on Seventh avenue, the Lutheran Church on Ninth Avenue and the three upstairs rooms vacant in King Edward High School. Three more rooms are being constructed by means of putting in partitions in the basements of the Borden Street School, as are also two at the King Edward High School.

The party left Liverpool on April 8 aboard the Canadian liner Sythesia, arriving at Halifax on April 16 when they transferred direct to the train and left for this city. The party, all of whom are residents of London, consists of Dr. and Mrs. Dunn and four children of Old Street, London, E.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Fixer of Clerkenwell; Mr. and Mrs. Pusehart, and three children of Highgate; Mr. and Mrs. Barker and child of Woodgreen; Mr. and Mrs. L. Howe and child of Clerkenwell; Mr. and Mrs. A. Williams and son of Clerkenwell; A. Iveson of Hammersmith; Miss Mabel Hennessey of St. Pancras; and Dr. and Mrs. Palmer and son of St. Pancras.

The party report having experienced a splendid trip, the weather having been perfect. They are high in their praise of the service and attention meted out to them both aboard ship and on the Canadian National Railway. The accommodation was all that could be desired and their treatment from Winnipeg west was splendid. In speaking of service one of the party said:

"On leaving Winnipeg I discovered one of the children had lost a rubber boot, and on notifying the train agent, he wired back,

"Word was received on arrival here that the shoe had been found and was being sent on to us. I have yet to learn of a railway in England that could beat that for service."

Pending steamer arrangements for their transfer to the Queen Charlotte Islands the party remained in their car on the side-track over night. They will leave on the Prince John early this week for Massett.

Frank Barriean, who arrived in Toronto recently lost no time in coming to terms with Eddie Rudd, promoter of the Toronto April 28 boxing show. Barriean simply gave his terms for the bout, stipulated that Johnny Klesch must make 156 pounds ringside, and post a weight forfeite of at least half of his purse, and then announced that he had nothing further to say about the matter. Rudd had to agree to terms immediately or lose the bout, and he promptly took the former course of action.

There was not a single case of sickness among the party on the entire trip.

Frank Barriean, flushed with his recent wins over Heinie Schumann and Johnny Hillman, thinks that he will beat Klesch without difficulty. He looked over Klesch's record, which includes two 12-round contests with Bryan Dowden, who is fifty-fifty" middle-weight champion with Wilson, one a draw and one a loss, a win over George Chip, ex-world champion, and a victory over Bob Moha, who beat "Battling Levinsky, and Barriean then commenced to enumerate some of his own bouts. Barriean has participated in over 75 battles in the last couple of years without being beaten. He knocked out Mickey King the Australian middleweight champion and beat both Billy and George Shade. He knocked out in six rounds Billy Weeks, while the best Klesch was able to do with this boy was nose out a decision in twelve rounds.
