COMMUNISM IS NOT A SUCCESS
PERSIA FINDS

Last of Russians Flies From Realm of Shah.

BAKU, Azerbaijan, Feb. 19.—The last of the Russian Communists have arrived here from Persia, fleeing before the troops of the Shah, under the general direction of the Prime Minister Ghassemlou, who demanded that the terms of the Anglo-Russian treaty for both nations to let Persia work out her own destiny be observed. Rotstein, the Soviet ambassador to Tehran, has been sent home, among others.

The invasion of Persia was undertaken in 1920, the Russian Communists co-operating with three revolutionary bandit chiefs of Persia—Ehsanella, Kutchik and Haidar.

The failure of the movement is attributed here to quarrels between the three bandit chiefs.

Now that the effort of Soviet Russia to sovietize Persia has definitely failed, the Russians are taking a rather impartial if not cynical view of the events there during the past year. They maintain that the 60 or so little Shahs, or feudalist landlords, each with his court and army, continue to weaken the central government by their quarrels and ambitions and that, so long as they have any power, no nationalist movement is possible and Persia will remain almost in the same condition as England of centuries ago under the barons.

Reasons for Failure.

Aside from the Anglo-Russian treaty, a multitude of reasons are given for the red failure in Persia. One is that the Soviet freedom to women including abandoning of the chadrah, or veil, pleased the women but not their husbands and made many enemies for the Soviet.

Another reason was that the Russians mistook the feudalists for reformers. These persons were ready for any revolution that would overthrow the power of the Shah until they realized that Communism would wreck their own estates.

The merchant class at first welcomed the Communists, only later to grow cold, as they saw the fruits of a division of property, house requisitions and other odds and ends of Communism.

Yet another reason was that the peasants themselves, trained in the Islamic law to respect property, refused to accept a division of land belonging to their landlords.

A HOME DANCE

Enjoyable Event Given by Mr.
and Mrs. G. A. McDonald
Saturday Night

A most successful dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McDonald, in their new home, 6th Avenue, East, on Saturday evening and a very enjoyable time was spent.

Refreshments were served at 10.30 and James Cook sang several songs, which were much appreciated, and then dancing was resumed until midnight.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Duncan, James Cook, Misses Agnes, Bella and Chris. Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. James Sturgeon, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley, C. Ytreborg, Alex. Cooper and S. Webb.

PRINCE RUPERT
AND WANDERERS'
CLUBS JOINING

Latter May Merge With Former Under Name Prince Rupert and Using Former Quarters.

There is a movement on foot towards the amalgamation of the Prince Rupert and Wanderers' Club, the two organizations being merged into one under the name of the Prince Rupert. The Wanderers' Club, which has been established in the city for over ten years, will be closed up and the Prince Rupert will house the enlarged organization if present plans materialize.

The executives of both clubs have already met on the matter which, it is understood, has been practically agreed to. Final decision has yet to be given, however.

The Wanderers' Club membership comprises many of the leading young men of the city and its joining with the Prince Rupert, which has always been considered the city's premier club, should make a strong and energetic organization.

WANDERERS WON AT SNOOKER OVER PRINCE
RUPERT CLUB AGAIN

The Wanderers' Club won the fourth inter-club snooker tournament from the Prince Rupert on Saturday night by a total score of 215 points to 211. In the four games of the series of six to be played, the Wanderers now have a lead of five points. The individual scores Saturday night were:

W. J. Nelson (Wanderers'), 52; W. G. Anderson (Prince Rupert), 19; T. B. Hooper, 17; J. H. Pillsbury, 35; Fred Stephens, 38; H. B. Scott, 26; W. J. Hemming, 38; J. W. Scott, 34; W. O. Fulton, 35; L. Wakefield, 39; R. H. Shockley, 35; J. J. Raleigh, 58.

The playing of a final game in which all twelve players take part has been discontinued.

V. Cowper-Young, formerly of the Charlotte Spruce Products Co., here, arrived in the city from the Queen Charlotte Islands on Saturday afternoon and is registered at the Hotel Prince Rupert.

CONSTIPATION
BAD HEADACHES
FAINT, DIZZY SPELLS

Constipation is one of the commonest ills of mankind, and one too often allowed to go unlooked after, until some serious complication sets in.

A free motion of the bowels daily should be the rule of everyone, then there will be no constipation, sick or bilious spells, dizziness, heartburn, coated tongue, foul breath, sour stomach, floating specks before the eyes, jaundice, water brash, etc. Keep the bowels properly regulated by the use of

MILBURN'S
LAXA-LIVER PILLS
and you will enjoy the best of health.

Mrs. Frank Wilsey, R. B. 3, Belmont, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled with constipation for nearly two years. I had bad headaches, faint and dizzy spells, and would bloat terribly. I was nearly discouraged for I had tried so many things that gave me no relief. My mother got me a box of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and told me to give them a fair trial. After I had taken one I felt much better and continued their use. Now I have no faint and dizzy spells and am gaining nicely. I would not be without Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for the world."

Sport Chat

The Trail Club seem to have the Senior League billiard championship for this season pretty well sewed up in its own pockets. The Wanderers' runners up, are at the present time twenty-eight points behind in the average and with but one more game to go, and that one with the Trail, their chances of going into first place now may be considered rather slim. It is very doubtful if they will beat the Trail at all in the final to be played a week from tonight, much less make enough of a victory to put them in the premier position. In the meantime, the Trail have a meeting with the Sons England tonight and there is a possibility of the standing of the former club being even more increased as a result, especially in view of the poor showings that the Sons have been making in recent tournaments. Altogether, it looks very much as if the Trail Club shield will remain at least another year in its home club.

There are three fixtures to be played yet this season in the Trail Club shield series. On Monday night, the Trail and Sons of England will meet and the opinion seems to be that, as a result, the Trail will still further advance in first place and the Sons may even further go back in last. Being a match between the league leaders and tail-enders, the result of it will in all likelihood, be in proportion to the season play. The St. Andrew's and Great War Veterans' will meet on Wednesday night. Here the third and fifth teams in the standing will meet and the Scots will likely confirm their hold on third place which has been rather slim over the Elks since last week's tournament. The grand final will be a week from tonight between the Trail and Wanderers, leaders of the league and runners up.

The last Senior League game between the Elks and the Sons of Canada has been cancelled by the Basketball Association and the season is now wound up as far as the regular league games are concerned. Plans are under way for some post-season fixtures but the nature of these and the teams and players who will take part in them has not been decided upon. On the whole the season has been a successful one although the public did not respond in the matter of attendance as well as might have been desired. The donation of light made by the council last week assisted the finances of the Association greatly. After all accounting for the season has been made, the proceeds will be shared equally between the Basketball Association and the Agricultural Association.

SKATING AT THE LAKE

Yesterday afternoon a number of Prince Rupert couples crossed the harbor to the Salt Lake to try the skating. The ice was thick and strong but rather rough. In spite of this the visitors enjoyed several hours there and got some healthy exercise. The Oh Baby made two trips each way and several private launches took over loads.
