SAD LOT OF A RUSSIAN WOMAN

Knew Court Life and Took Part in Struggle With Mussul mans.

SUIZRA ON THE VOLGA, Feb. 20.—If Russia ever amounts to anything it will be through the organization of her women which has not yet taken place, declared a sprightly, merry little woman to the correspondent on the through train from Tashkent, in Turkestan, to Moscow. Before the revolution she had borne the title of princess. "I hate Russian men," she went on. "They are wishy-washy. They have given us a land made of nitchevo (it doesn't matter) aftra (tomorrow); ja nieznayu. (I don't know) and avos (perhaps)."

She had been to Tashkent to speculate in gold. Everybody had to do something to live nowadays.

She was the wife of a Mussulman, once owning thousands of acres of land with an income of $100,000 a year.

Man Was Obstinate.
She had warned him to get out of Russia, three years ago, sell his lands, but he was obstinate and now he was wandering she knew not where, both he and she were separated from their children and she had nearly died in a Soviet prison.

Taking one thing with another, she didn't regret her sufferings and losses. It had taught her a lot. She had known court life, that of Paris and London. Now the revolution had dropped her into abject poverty.

She was tired of the struggle. The prison had broken her spirit. Like many Russians, she was morally bankrupt. She had had her fling in politics and at times had a lot of fun at it. She wanted to get abroad but she wondered if she could ever settle down in a calmer atmosphere; she had become so used to excitement.

Eye for An Eye.
Some of her family had been executed through the efforts of another woman politician and she had tried to have that woman and her husband executed in their turn. It had been a struggle between the Reds and the Mussulmans of the Caspian Sea country. The Reds had won and she was made a prisoner by the woman she had tried to have executed. It was Kismet.

Rather than satisfy her woman enemy, she had tried to commit suicide in the Cheka prison by taking an overdose of cocaine. It had failed.

She had been put on the prison train and shipped north with several hundreds of others, detained to an Archangel prison, after the Soviet manner of locking up people in places distant from their people and homes. She had to sell even down to her underclothes to get food.

Made Herself Ill.
Fortunately, she was able to make herself ill. She put snow on her chest, caught cold, and then the typhus, and had to be put off at a wayside hospital. There a sister of charity recognized and befriended her and she was brought back to a semblance of health, and through friends in Moscow was finally freed. How long her present freedom would last she couldn't say.

CRIPPLED WITH RHEUMATISM

Then She Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES"
And Has Been Well Ever Since

MADAM SLOAT

PERIN JUNCTION, N.B., Jan. 22nd, 1920

"For many years, I was a great sufferer from Indigestion, Constipation and Rheumatism. My Stomach was weak and gave me constant distress, while Rheumatism in my joints made me almost a cripple. I was treated by two different doctors but their medicine did me no good.

Then I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and at once that fruit medicine helped me. Soon the Constipation and Indigestion were relieved and the Rheumatism began to go away, and in a few months entirely disappeared. For twelve years now, my health has been first class, and I attribute it to the use of "Fruit-a-tives" which I take regularly."

Mrs. CLARA SLOAT,
50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c.
At dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

dom would last she couldn't say. She knew she could not endure a second imprisonment, not even for a week, so she carried about her enough cocaine to defeat the prison.

Meanwhile she was working, trying to keep afloat. She had sold most of her jewels and things. Sometimes she did odd jobs as a seamstress, sometimes she went to the country and brought in baskets of eggs to sell. Just now she was prospering. She was sending money to her children. She had stored away some family jewels in a distant place to keep them as a reserve for the future.

ANARCHISTS NOT WANTED

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 20.—Sweden is facing a curious dilemma as the result of her well meant hospitality in granting temporary asylum to Emma Goldman, Alexander Berkman and Alexander Shapiro, formerly deported to Russia from the United States. Since this trio arrived several other Russian anarchists have come into the country.

As matters stand at present Sweden may either have to deport the anarchists or cope with a movement, said to be on foot, of making Stockholm an international anarchist central.

Nobody Wants Them.
But to what country can these anarchists be deported? Nobody wants them. Since their arrival in Stockholm, Emma Goldman and other anarchists from Russia have so roundly denounced the Soviet government that if they are returned thither, the Bolshevik authorities, never noted for their leniency, may send them all to jail or deal with them in a more summary fashion.

Germany has already put up the bars against these agitators, as was shown recently when Miss Goldman tried to enter Germany for the purpose of attending the international anarchist congress in Berlin. Freund, Austria's representative to this conclave, was arrested on the border by the German police.

International Bureau.
Now the Stockholm press states that a resolution was adopted at the Berlin anarchist congress to establish an international anarchist bureau in the Swedish capital, presumably because Stockholm is now the temporary abiding place of so many leading anarchist lights. The press emphasizes that it would be most unfortunate if Sweden's hospitality should be abused by thus making Stockholm an anarchist central and some papers assert that energetic steps will be taken against any attempts of this character.

ASK MAYOR'S HELP IN GETTING A WIFE

WINNIPEG, Feb. 20.—The civic citadel has come to it. After filling the role of administrative chamber, lost relative bureau, free information parlor, and all whatnots of a good city hall, it has been recognized at last as the marriage mart of Manitoba. One prospective customer, looking for a bargain in brides, has summoned the "Mayor of Winter Peg" to his aid. The applicant is "Airtight," capitalized from A to T—he says so himself—and makes a modest request for the prairie centre to supply him with a good, beautiful, loving wife of some means, specifications enclosed.

Addressing the mayor, he writes thus:

"I am told there are many good, beautiful women in your country anxious to get married and that will make good and loving wives. I would regard it as a great favor if you would assist me in making the acquaintance of..... (aforesaid specifications repeated), medium size, fair complexion, under 45, healthy, good looking, with some means." Flirting is taboo, but the lady must be loving and she is bound to get a wonderful husband. He admits to being 52 years old, and says he is 205 pounds in weight, dark hair, etc., very pleasant disposition, doesn't use tobacco, booze or coffee, and has residences in Mexico and Texas. Outside of that he is well worth making the acquaintance of, he says.
