They say that if the peace conference yet to be arranged does not concede the Turkish demands the Turks will continue the military campaign against Greece.

General Harrington, for the British, said the convention represented the limit Britain was prepared to go and reminded Turkey that it was not wise to risk a clash of arms with Britain.

ELECTION IS DENIED

British Government is Said to be Holding Together Well

LONDON, Oct. 11.—It is announced that Lloyd George will speak at Manchester on Saturday in defence of the Near East policy of his government and it is expected he will make a vigorous reply to his critics.

While it is stated in some quarters that the Premier may make a sensational announcement foreshadowing his impending resignation in certain contingencies, the fact that Austen Chamberlain, leader of the government forces in the House of Commons, speaks at Birmingham on Friday and Winston Churchill, colonial secretary will also address a meeting at Dundee shortly, is regarded as evidence that the Government is holding firmly together and organizing a counter attack.

In Liberal circles it is stated there is no question of the resignation of Lloyd George or an immediate general election.

NANAIMO, Oct. 11.—A pretty wedding took place here today at high noon when Miss Pearl Victoria Wall of Prince Rupert, youngest daughter of W. H. Wall and the late Mrs. Wall, became the bride of George Alexander Hunter, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. D. McD. Hunter, Fifth Avenue, Prince Rupert. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's father, 648 Haliburton Street.

The bride wearing a costume of white charmeuse satin with pearl dropped trimmings and the veil of Spanish mantilla with corners of orange blossoms worn by her mother at her wedding and carrying a bouquet of Ophelia roses with streamers, looked very beautiful as she entered the room on the arm of her father. She was attended by Miss Georgina Iris Hunter, sister of the groom, who wearing Canton crepe and a black picture hat and carrying a bouquet of carnations, made a very pretty bridesmaid. Little Miss Lillian Mae Randall, niece of the bride, was a sweet little flower girl dressed in blue crepe de Chine and carrying a basket of pink roses.

O. H. Wall, the bride's brother was best man.

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served, the happy couple leaving for Victoria on the afternoon train, the bride wearing a travelling suit of navy blue and a broadcloth hat to match with metallic trimmings. They will spend the honeymoon in Seattle and Portland after which they will return to Prince Rupert and take up their residence at 128 Seventh Ave., East.

She is a graduate of the Vancouver General Hospital and served as United States army nurse at Camp Lewis and also in the military annex at Vancouver. She is a sister of Dr. James Wall now of Vancouver and formerly house surgeon at the Prince Rupert General Hospital, and also of O. H. Wall, manager of the Royal Bank at Telkwa.

Election in Britain Before Christmas and Probably Next Month it is Announced Today

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Taking advantage of the settlement of the Turkish difficulty, it is understood that Premier Lloyd George will at once appeal to the country for endorsement of his policy in the near east. This will mean another war election.

The Daily Chronicle, Lloyd George's official organ, says a general election is certain before Christmas and it may be held in November.

Sir William Horne, chancellor of the exchequer, has been called home from Washington, the task of completing financial arrangements with the United States being left for the next government.

Speculation is rife as to the line up to be taken. Many of the old Conservatives are for throwing over the premier and trying to elect a straight Conservative government with a Conservative premier. There have been many outbreaks against the present government, the most outstanding being that led by Sir George Yoenger. The fight is bound to be a bitter one and it is expected that the labor party will figure large in the contest.
