PRESBYTERIAN ANNUAL BAZAAR GREAT SUCCESS

Ladies' Aid Scored in Affair Held Yesterday Afternoon at Church Hall

The annual Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Bazaar held yesterday in the church hall on Fourth Avenue East, was a particularly successful affair both financially and socially. The patrons were many and the various articles on sale were very attractive all contributing to make the event one of the very best yet. The bazaar was opened at 2.30 in the afternoon by Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant and continued into the evening when a concert was held. At the conclusion there was not a single article left unsold. The exact proceeds were not ascertained last night but they are known to be large.

The sale booths were draped with pink, white and heliotrope crepe and the colors used in the tea room were pink and white.

Miss May Clark sold violets.

At 8 o'clock a musical program was commenced before an audience which crowded the place to the doors, this continuing until 10 o'clock. Dr. Grant presided and among those contributing to the program were Mrs. J. J. Anderson, piano solo; Mrs. L. O. Larsen and Mrs. McMillan, vocal solos; Miss Mary Muse, Miss Eileen Carruthers and Miss Lilian Cross in a trio; Miss Davies, vocal solo; Miss Eileen Carruthers and Miss Mary Muse, piano duet; Prof. H. Aubrey Pryce, A. J. Lancaster and Miss Marjorie Lancaster, orchestra selection.

At the conclusion of the musical program, Fred Stork, M.P. auctioned off the remaining articles causing much amusement by the jocular manner in which he secured bidders. At the end

K. C.'s Beat Elks 24 to 23—Maple Leaf's Win Ladies' Game; Colts, Senior

The brightest of the basketball games played at the Exhibition Hall last night was the Intermediate League match between the Elks and the Knights of Columbus which resulted in victory for the latter by a score of 24 to 23. The score was close enough and the play was just as even as it indicated. It was nip and tuck all the way although the Knights had the lead most of the time up till just about the last when the Elks evened up. A timely point scored just before the whistle gave victory to the Catholics.

The Maple Leafs won the Ladies League game by 22 to 8, and demonstrated their superiority over the Kaiens who, however, showed improvement over their last appearance.

The Senior League fixture resulted in dismal defeat for the
