GIRLS ARE BACK PORCHER ISLAND

Girl Guides, Brownies and Odd-
Fellows, Under Mrs. Roberson
Had Great Two Weeks.

The party of Girl Guides, Brownies and Oddfellows, who have been spending a fortnight under canvas on Porcher Island under the leadership of Mrs. H. L. Roberson, returned to the city on Tuesday evening. All speak in high praise of the delightful time spent.

The party included:
Girl Guides—Pete Tremayne, patrol leader; Winnie Exley, Chris. McLeod, Frances Tremayne, Evelyn Pierce, Nelda Hilditch, Hilda Murray, Constance McMullin, patrol leader; Grace Leek, Beulah McKinley, Marie Mussalem, Catherine Mussalem, Mary Kerr, Laura Stephens, Margaret Palmer, patrol leader; Mary Muse, Verna Thompson, Aletta McKinley, Birdell Jack, Beverley Jack, Marjorie Muse, Mary Selfridge and Violet Whitlow.

Oddfellow's Patrol—Frances Cross, Joan Cross, Lillian Cross, Winnie Colison, Gwen Palmer, Marjorie Tremayne, Kathleen Hutchison, Paddy Palmer, Garfield McKinley, Joey Muse, Miss Smith and Miss Ruth Rix.

Sports Day.
During the camping period, physical exercises before breakfast, flag drill, swimming, walking and fishing were indulged in. On Monday a sports day was held in which the following were prize winners: Pete Tremayne, Margaret Palmer, Chris. McLeod, Marjorie Muse, Audrey Tremayne, Kathleen Hutchison, Lilla Cross, Frances Cross, Joan Cross and Paddy Palmer.

This year the girls prepared their own meals which were cooked by Mrs. Hudson. The campers are very grateful to Richard Pillsbury and W. T. Muse for the great assistance rendered on both the outgoing and return journey. The tents were erected by the girls which did them great credit.

Mrs. Roberson reports that the behavior of the girls was excellent, and that the clean manner in which they left the camping site would have done credit to a regiment of regular soldiers.

TEA AND SALE OF HOME COOKING BY THE ROYAL PURPLE

A very successful tea and sale of home cooking was held yesterday afternoon by the Ladies of the Royal Purple at the home of Mrs. Harry Atkins, 201 Fourth Avenue West. There were a good number of ladies present in the course of the afternoon and the sum of $26.15 was realized.

Mrs. B. V. G. LePine and Mrs. H. Atkins received, Mrs. G. J. Frizzell was cashier, Mrs. J. Keefe and Mrs. W. Balagno had charge of the home cooking, Mrs. F. Gilhuly and Mrs. F. Dibb served tea and Mrs. T. M. Spencer poured. Mrs. Stockdale sang several acceptable solos.

A dolly which was raffled was won by Mrs. Gilhuly.

SNAPPED, NOT INTERVIEWED

World's Richest Man While Allowing Photographers Refuses to Talk to Newspapers

TARRYTOWN, N.Y., July 26.—(By the Associated Press).—John D. Rockefeller, passing the Indian summer of his life on his vast estate in the Pocantico Hills, at last letting down the barriers he has always raised against photographers and reporters?

This is a question which has been interesting the newspaper profession ever since the world's richest man, on a recent Sunday, permitted camera men to snap him to their heart's content after they had consented to follow him into church for service.

Mr. Rockefeller, who bears the reputation of being one of the most camera-shy men in America, may be becoming more lenient in his attitude toward photographers, but as yet he has given no indication of taking reporters into his confidence.

An effort to interview Mr. Rockefeller on the recent occasion of his 84th birthday anniversary—made, as usual, through a third party representing the household—brought the response "Impossible." As no reporters as yet have succeeded in storming the well-guarded gates of the Rockefeller home, the modern Croesus goes un-interviewed.

Is an Enigma
Even to his fellow townsmen the little man, slight of frame, who appears in midsummer in leather waistcoat, overcoat and muffler, is very much of an enigma.

Tarrytown points out to each visitor the home of John D. Rockefeller, urges the visitor to go up and see where Rockefeller lives, talks constantly about Rockefeller—but rarely sees him himself.

Very seldom do Tarrytowners get inside the gates which guard the big home back in the hills. Once in awhile they see John D. come down town and sit in his machine while a chauffeur goes into a bank or a store—but Tarrytown almost never talks to its richest citizen. He comes and goes—there is excitement while he is down town, and discussion afterwards. And that is all of Tarrytown's claim on its most famous citizen.

84th Birthday

Even since the oil king celebrated his 84th birthday, Tarrytown has been seething over the question of who is its oldest citizen. There is no question as to the most famous.

An ancient who sits in front of the big hardware store, just around the corner from the station, concedes first place to John D. The ancient admits he is only 83.

But an Italian has asserted his grandfather is 88—and there is a farmer who lays claim to 90. Still, even in the face of odds, Tarrytown stands loyally behind its prominent citizen, and announces to the world that its oldest citizen today is none other than the man who made oil famous.

But the town maintains that Mr. Rockefeller is still a youngster in spirits.

"Any man who plays golf as frequently as he does," began one citizen, when he was interrupted with a question as to whether John D.'s private links were regular size.

"Certainly it is, but John D. goes around it slowly," replied the citizen, but another Tarrytowner broke in with a denial.

"It is not. It is only about four miles of a normal course. And John D. takes three hours to make two of 'em."

Last but not least, in Tarrytown's viewpoint towards its leading citizen is the tradition of the dimes, the day of the boys and girls. Spasmodically, John D. Rockefeller gives 10 cent pieces away to children. How did it start?

Ten Cent Pieces

Three stories are current:

Number One—Three boys, many years ago, walked up the hill, climbed the stone wall, went up to the porch and saw Mr. Rockefeller. They asked him for a dime apiece—and got it. Since then, it is said, the oil magnate has held his yearly party.

Number Two—A boy was standing down town when the Rockefeller machine drove up. A package dropped out. The boy picked it up and handed it to Mr. Rockefeller personally. The boy got a dime, and John D. Rockefeller got an inspiration which he has followed ever since.

Number Three—A lad was lost. He wandered onto the Rockefeller mystery links. The oil king saw him. He took him into the house, gave him a dime and sent him home. And the 10 cent party sprang from that.

Whatever the cause, "Dime Day" has become to the youth of Tarrytown a day apart, ranking with Christmas and the Fourth of July.

LATEST FASHIONS AS SEEN IN ROTTEN ROW

Frocks of Fluttering, Flowering Order Look Graceful When Caught by Breeze.

LONDON, July 2.—Observing the fashion world go by from a bench on London's "Rotten Row" one sees that the season's modes tend to more conservative skirts, higher waist lines, picture hats a yard wide and pointed American shoes. The dressmaker's intent seems to be to cover what was once uncovered. Ankle-length skirts, voluminous sleeves, high neck-lines and loose-fitting gowns that subordinate the contour of the body, seem destined to restore woman's lost charm of mystery.

Most frocks are of the fluttering, flowing order which, caught by the breeze, look very graceful. Foulards are taking the place of georgette and crepe de chene. Hats are circled with posies instead of being covered with plumes. Parasols are of fabled with wallpaper designs, or figures of green parrots or love birds. Long, narrow feet are the craze of the moment, and slender, high-heeled shoes of snakeskin are coming into vogue.

For evening attire blackless frocks with diamond or pearl supports are popular with some women of fashion. Many evening gowns are of new cloth of silver or gold that resembles molten metal and that shimmers and glitters brilliantly under the electric light. Trains are inclined to be shorter, and are usually of gold or silver net. The new transparent cloaks which are being worn are trimmed with white grey and black monkey fur.

Very little jewelry is worn; only a simple chain of jade or amber, or a Chinese Mandarin's collar of teakwood beads.

Persistent advertising is absolutely necessary to success.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

IF a man had nine million dollars he'd want more and if he had nine children he'd have enough. There's a difference.

IT'S common to hear the expression "mean as the devil" but better would be "devilish as a mean man."

IF the bag pipes that were out in force Tuesday night would play into Pete Black's wireless apparatus there would be no more complaint of static interference with the messages.

"I CAME with that intention" was the remark by a groom when asked by the clergyman if he would have the woman for his wedded wife.

"The stock has brought a little peach." The nurse said with an air. "How glad I am," the poor man said, "He didn't bring a pear."

HENNESSEY TAKES PLACE JOHN DEWAR AND BEER

VANCOUVER, July 27.—There is a new jurors' list in readiness for the resumption of court business on Sept. 1.

Last year there was a "John Dewar" and a "Beer" on the jury panel and the calling of their names in sequence used always to create a feeling of expectancy.

This coming year there will be no "John Dewar" or "Beer" but there is a "Hennessey" on the list for duty.
