PROGRAM IS DELIGHTFUL

Home of Mrs. Robt. H. W. Bartlett delightful program of American ndian music and also music of East India was rendered yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Music Club, under the capable supervision of Mrs. Robert Bartlett.

Many citizens will recall one composer of American Indian music, in the person of Dr. Ernest McMillan Mus. Doc. of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, who gave an organ recital in the Anglican Cathedral in 1927.

Dr. McMillan was instrumental in immortalizing many ancient melodies of the West Coast tribes which would otherwise have been lost in a few years. Among these are "Three Songs of the West Coast" which were reproduced as nearly as musical notation will allow from records made on the Naas River in the summer of

The program was as follows: Piano Solo, "The Pleasant Moon of Strawberries," (Charles Wakefield Cadman), Miss Ruth Gillies. Vocal Solo, "By the Waters of Minnetonka," with violin obligato, (Thurlow Lieurance), Mrs. F. W.

Allen and Miss N. Lawrence. Piano Solo, "From an Indian Lodge," (Edward MacDowel), Miss Swanna Olafson.

Vocal Solo, "From the Land of Sky Blue Water," (Charles W. Caoman), Mrs. J. H. McLeod. Piano Solo, "Indian Flute Call and Love Song," (Thurlow Lieu-rance), Mrs. W. L. Stamford. Vocal Solo, "Three Songs of Th West Coast"; "Outsiders, Behold W10 Geedaranits"; "Na-du-na-dudu," I'Ish Abalone on Thurlow Lieurance), Mrs. Ernest

Anderson. Piano solo, "Legend," Mrs. Shelford Darton.

Piano Solo, "Indian Lament, (Anna Priscilla Rischer), Miss Margaret McCaffery.

East Indian Music Vocal Solo, "Where the Abana Flows," (Amy Woodforde-Finden) Mrs. William Cruickshank.

Violin Solo, "Kashmiri Song." Amy Woodforde - Finden), Mis

Piano Solo, "Song of India," (Rimsky-Korsikoff), Miss McCaf-

Accompanists for the afternoon were Mrs. W. L. Stamford, Miss A. Johanson, city; E. Wallace Olafson, Mrs. W. M. Blackstock and Mrs. Robt. Bartlett. At the close of the meeting tear was served by the hostess. Mrs. Ray and Mrs. James Farquitar prethe Canadian Fish & Cold Storage sided at the tea table while Mrs Co., gave a special National Fish F. N. Good and Mrs. W. L. Stam-
