

THE "LONGDON" Propelling - Eversharp Pencil

Scores of EVERSHARP Pencils have been placed on the market during the past couple of years—some good, some otherwise. The "Longdon," made in England, stands in bold contrast to the many lesser lights. Movement and screws of solid brass, very thin leads.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

THE intimations are that the period of panama hats and ice cream pants has gone for this year.

"Plenty of geese but out of range," will continue to be the report of the hunters, until the last goose is shot.

A GOOSE that is half shot is of no more value than a man in the same condition.

IN answer to an inquiry as to what was the most characteristic trait of the people of Prince Rupert, a local correspondent promptly replied, "staying up late in the morning and being late for meetings."

ITS better to be a turnip than not be in the field.

THE man who uses cigarettes is fair game for every smoker. He is supposed to supply them all.

VIRTUE consists largely in keeping out of sight of the prying eyes of neighbors.

THE announcement in regard to the railway directors is keeping pace with the announcements of the death of Lenin.

SMOKED 76 YEARS SAYS OCTOGENARIAN

SHEFFIELD, Eng., Sept. 21.—Mrs. Ann Hawkins has just celebrated her 103rd birthday by riding in a motor car for the first time. She attributes her longevity to plain living. She thinks tobacco also has something to do with it. She has smoked a pipe for 76 years.

RABBI WON PORKER

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 21.—Of all the several hundred Rotarians who drew for a 150-pound pig offered as a gift at a Rotary club picnic recently, the porker fell to the lot of Rabbi Joseph Blatt of Temple B'nai Israel, who held the winning number. The Rabbi offered the prize to Father A. F. Monnot, pastor of the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

It was Friday, but the pig was alive and would keep for another day, so Father Monnot took the porker.
