The Football Association has decided to get the remainder of the season's games finished up in a hurry with the result that for the next eight days soccer fans will get a bill of fare with not less than five games in that time.

The municipal handball court on Fulton Street near the Fire Hall has been put to good use this summer and has proved popular with men and boys alike.

While visiting at the home of his parents here recently, Christy Mathewson, whose hefty fighting spirit turned back team after team in the National League, and who is slowly recovering from a lung affection, lived his boyhood days all over again.

15 TIMES THE MONEY

WOULD PAY MEMBERS SERVICES RENDERED

EDMONTON, Sept. 21.—H. W. Wood, president of the United Farmers of Alberta, has come to the conclusion that instead of paying members of the Alberta legislature a sessional indemnity they should be paid, on the basis of service, a remuneration that would at least justify capable reliable men and women in accepting positions and giving efficient service.

RADIO TELEPHONY IN THE ARGENTINE

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 21.—There is one class of trader in Buenos Aires remaining unaffected by the general business depression—the dealer in radio apparatus. Wireless telephony has secured a wonderful grip on the imagination of the Argentine, and wherever one travels in and around the city at least two or three aeriols are constantly within view.
