Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism. Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication. Letters should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

Chateau Once Governors' Mansion

FOR generations the residence of the governors of Quebec, the Chateau de Ramezay is one of the most historic structures in Montreal and a magnet for tourists. It is now the property of the Antiquarian and Numismatic Society and houses that body's valuable historical collection. The chateau was built in 1705 by Claude de Ramezay, eleventh governor of Quebec, and served as the Governor's mansion until his death in 1724. The British government came into possession of the famed chateau in 1763, when it again became the residence of successive governors and remained so until 1849. A Ford V-8 de luxe coupe is shown in the foreground, parked by tourists who visited the chateau.

WHAT'S NEWS TO YOU?

THRIFTINESS is a state of mind that is nearly as valuable an asset as a bank account. . . . For thriftiness can always get a bank account of its own.

And it's easy to tell thrifty people from the way in which they read the newspapers — just as you can usually spot the other kind.

The great majority of men and women never put a newspaper down until they have read the important news which is directed to them through advertisements.

The modern woman, especially, finds the advertisements indispensable. She spends more than five-sixths of the family income. And the prosperity, happiness and health of her household frequently depend on her reading of the advertisements and on the wisdom with which she chooses everything she buys.

The advertisements bring you complete information about accepted products and new ones. Through them you can compare values . . . discover ways and means for greater household efficiency and enjoyment . . . and make sure that every dollar spent will bring its full return.

BEARS KILL EIGHT SHEEP

Raid Made By Bruin on Tiel Farm Ends in Fatalities For Raiders

TELL, Q. C. Islands, Oct. 27:—Mrs. Rajaut of the Dunes lost eight sheep recently in one night as a result of a raid by bears. Three days later two of the bears, which returned to feed on the remains, were killed.

Efforts are being made to get the government to pay a bounty for bears instead of protecting them as at present. Just now the season for trapping bears is closed from June 30 to September 17. No bear traps are allowed to be set, yet no compensation is allowed for stock killed by the animals.
