

"The Regent"

This is a splendid instrument both from the standpoint of Tone Reproduction and Good Appearance. It is equipped with a universal tone arm that plays all makes of records, and also a wooden tone chamber. Being a cabinet instrument, it has a place for keeping the records. It is sold at a moderate price. We have no hesitation in saying it is the best moderately-priced phonograph on the market—really unusual value for the money.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" SAVED HER LIFE

This Fruit Medicine Always Gives Relief

917 DORION ST., MONTREAL.
I suffered terribly with Dyspepsia. I had it for years and all the medicines I took did not do me any good. I read something about "Fruit-a-tives" being good for all Stomach Trouble and Disorders of Digestion, so I tried them.
After finishing a few boxes, I was entirely relieved of the Dyspepsia and my general health was restored; and I am writing to tell you that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives".
Mlle. ANTOINETTE BOUCHER.

JUNIOR BILLIARDS

Two close Junior League Billiard games were played last night between the Excelsiors and the Beavers, the former team winning both. The games were as follows:

W. Hamilton (Excelsiors), 150; G. S. Hill, (Beavers), 141.
G. Mitchell, 150; T. Halverson, 147.

The many friends of J. H. Hilditch will be pleased to learn that he is now convalescing rapidly from his recent long and serious illness and expects to leave the General Hospital for his home tomorrow.

The form of contract, plans and specifications for the excavating of 9,000 cubic yards from the city's rock quarry, as submitted by the city engineer and the board of works, were adopted with minor amendments by the city council last night.

A building permit has been issued to Beatty, Douglas & Greer, contractors, for the erection, on First Avenue near the junction with Second and Third Avenues, of a one and a half frame residence with a metal roof for Dan Grady. The cost will be $2200.

Resources, Weston Coyney's bright monthly magazine, has made its appearance for February. There are several timely and well illustrated articles on the port and district. One particularly interesting one is that written by G. S. Fitzmaurice on his recent trip into the Athin country.

The property holders and business men of Section 1 west of Sixth Street are agitating strongly for the opening up of Seventh Street to the waterfront and plan to bring their claims before the Dominion Government at an early date. A good deal of interest is being taken in the matter and tonight there will be a public meeting at the Central Hotel to go fully into the question. There will be several speakers.

A letter from the Union of B. C. Municipalities stating that an agent of the organization would be present at the sessions of the House of Commons to examine all private bill legislation and asking for any recommendations from the city was received and filed by the council last night.

The city engineer, in answer to a query at last night's council meeting, stated that a sewer and notice had been served on the Prince Rupert Club to remove the sewer which passes over the lane at a low level between Fourth and Fifth Streets. The city recently was compelled to award damages to a transfer man whose truck was damaged as a result of running into the sewer.

A letter from Hon. James Murdock, Dominion minister of labor, setting out regulations for federal assistance in unemployment relief work was received by the city council last night and referred to the board of works. The communication did not set out the relief plan as announced from Ottawa a week ago but was rather along the lines of last year's scheme. It is understood that a more recent order in council has been passed extending the scope of federal assistance.

Paddy Boyle, charged with fighting, and J. H. Livingstone, charged with assault, as the outcome of a fracas on Fulton Street last Friday afternoon, were given trial in the police court this morning before S. J. Magistrate J. H. McMillin and were remanded until tomorrow. All the evidence is now in the witnesses having been Pete Larsen, who had his jaw broken, George Dauphine, a magazine canvasser, and the two accused, W. E. Williams appeared in court for the defence.

How Many Objects in This Picture begin With the Letter "P"?

The above picture contains a number of objects beginning with the letter "P". Just take a good look at the picture—there are all sorts of things that begin with the letter "P"—like pipe, pick, pump, etc. Nothing is hidden; you don't have to turn the picture upside down or at an angle. Make a list of all the objects in the picture, the names of which begin with the letter "P". Have the whole family join in—see who can find the most. Fifteen Cash Prizes will be awarded for the fifteen best lists of words submitted. The answer having the largest and nearest correct list of visible objects shown in this picture starting with the letter "P" will be awarded First Prize; second best, Second Prize, etc.

Young and Old Join in the Fun

The Vancouver Daily World announces today a most interesting and amusing Puzzle Game—a puzzle that is different and a game in which all can participate—from the tiniest child to great grandfather. It really is not a puzzle at all, for all the objects have been made perfectly plain, with no attempt to disguise or hide them. None are so small but that the poorest eyesight can see them; it is a test of skill. Your ability to find them; it is a test of skill. Your ability to find them; it is a test of skill. Your ability to find them; it is a test of skill.

Costs Nothing to Try

It costs nothing to take part, and you do not have to send in a single subscription to win a prize. If your answer is awarded First Prize by the Judges you will win $100. If you would like to win more than $100, we are making Special Cash Prize offers during this big Advertising and Booster Campaign whereby you can win bigger Cash Prizes by sending in one or two subscriptions to The Vancouver Daily World.

You Can Win $1000

If your answer to the "P-Word" Picture Puzzle wins First Prize and you have sent in no subscription to the Vancouver Daily World, you will win $100. However, if your answer wins First Prize and you have sent in one 6-months subscription to the Vancouver Daily World (either new or renewal), YOU WILL WIN $250. In place of $100.
Or, if your answer is awarded First Prize by the Judges and you have sent in TWO 6-months or ONE yearly subscription to the Vancouver Daily World (either new or renewal), YOU WILL RECEIVE $1000 instead of $250.
How's that for a liberal offer? But look. We will give extra amounts on all prizes in the same manner. If your answer is qualified by TWO 6-months or one yearly subscription (either new or renewal), and you are awarded Second Prize, you will receive $500, and so on down. (See third column in the list of prizes.)
It takes but TWO 6-months or ONE yearly subscription (either new or renewal) to qualify for the big $1000 prize. ABSOLUTELY. Two six-months or ONE yearly is the maximum. Your own subscription will count and we will accept subscriptions to start at any future date.

Subscription Rates		PAYABLE IN ADVANCE
BY CARRIER		BY MAIL
6 months	$4.50	6 months	$3.00
1 year	$9.00	1 year	$6.00

Two 3-months subscriptions will be accepted in place of one 6-months or four 3-months in place of one year. Three-months subscription by carrier $2.25; by mail, $1.00. Papers will not be delivered by mail in towns where carrier service is maintained.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

QUIET times are usually the times when a lot of people get out with their little hammers to knock things.

A PESSIMIST is a man who enters a restaurant expecting to find Chinese cooking.

THE value of a dollar is measured by the number of loaves of bread it will purchase.

ECONOMY is something our grandfathers used to practice but which the present generation knows nothing about.

"A WOMAN can cook?" is a headline in a contemporary. Nearly every woman is a can-cook these days. That is what we complain of.

SOME married men are very good; others have been yanked.

THE objection to having a woman sitting on a jury is that I might be a member of that jury.

AMONG the things that don't get you anywhere is talking back at your wife.

WHY should a girl blush when she is covered with confusion?

OBSERVE THESE RULES

1. Any man, woman or child who is not an employee of the Vancouver Daily World or a member of an employee's family may submit an answer. It costs nothing to try.
2. All answers must be mailed by February 25, 1932, and addressed to Stewart Read, Puzzle Manager, Vancouver Daily World.
3. Answers should be written on one side of the paper only and words numbered consecutively 1, 2, 3, etc. Write full name and address on each page in the upper right hand corner. If you desire to write anything else use a separate sheet.
4. Only words found in the English Dictionary will be counted. Do not use hyphenated, compound, or obsolete words. Use either the singular or plural, but where the plural is used, the singular cannot be used, and vice versa.
5. Words of the same spelling can be used only once, even though used to designate different objects. The same object can be named only once, however any visible part of the object may also be named.
6. The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of words will win First Prize, etc. Words, style and handwriting have no bearing upon deciding the winners.
7. Candidates may co-operate in answering the Puzzle, but only one prize will be awarded to any one household; no prize will be awarded to more than one of any group, outside the family, where two or more have been working together.
8. All answers will receive the same consideration, regardless of whether or not a subscription for the Vancouver Daily World is sent in.
9. There will be three independent Judges having no connection with the Vancouver Daily World, who will judge the answers submitted and award the prizes at the end of the Puzzle Game, and the participants agree to accept the decision of the Judges as final and conclusive.
10. The Judges will meet on March 6, 1932, and the announcement of the prize winners and a correct list of words will be published as quickly thereafter as possible in the Vancouver Daily World.
