Prince Rupert Already Benefits From Empire Parley, Says Nicholls

Nothing Fundamentally Wrong With Fishing Industry Which Will Again Prosper When World Conditions Improve, Cold Storage Official Declares

Col. J. W. Nicholls, comptroller of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., addressing the Rotary Club at a special National Fish Week luncheon yesterday, said there had been a number of outstanding developments during the past year in connection with fisheries, chief of which were the Imperial Conference treaties which enabled salmon trollers to get higher prices for# their product than otherwise would have been the case. While 37½ cents a fish was the highest paid for cohoes in B.C. waters, the Alaska trollers were able to secure only 15c. for theirs. This was a distinct and immediate advantage from the Imperial Conference. He did not wish it to be inferred that fishermen made money but that they did better than would otherwise have been the case.
