CANARIES TO SING LIKE NIGHTINGALES

Bremen Bird Fancier Produces New Species After Ten Years' Experiments

BREMEN, Nov. 15.—After ten years of experiments, a Bremen bird fancier has succeeded in producing canaries with a nightingale warble. The cross-breed was attained by using nightingales as "singing masters" for young canaries, and rearing the latter entirely removed from the sound of any other bird note except the warbling of their "instructors."

The breeder's chief difficulty was at first found in the fact that normally nightingales sing only during two months of the year, and his purposes required a longer uninterrupted period of instruction for the canaries. He was finally successful in changing the moulting, or non-singing period of certain nightingales so that some sang from May to July, others from June to August, and still others from August to October.

Using these birds he kept newly-hatched canaries continually within hearing of their warbling. Several generations of breeding showed that birds reared from the original students instinctively possessed the nightingale warble and that "instructors" could be dispensed with for the offspring exceed for "polishing off" their singing.

BUDDHISM SPREADING IN CHINA RAPIDLY

OXFORD, Eng., Nov. 16. — "Buddhism is the probable rival of Christianity in the Far East," said Professor Soothill, who at one time occupied the chair of Chinese at Oxford University, in an address before the Conference of Modern Churchmen. His remark has created something of a sensation in church circles.

"Buddhism," the professor stated, "can adopt and adapt at will. It has recently adopted Christian methods wholesale. Its ideas are at work in the West, even in our churches. Buddhism calls for sympathetic study, and the day may come when the best men in Buddhism and Christianity will meet together to discuss the possibility of working together for the salvation of the world.

"Buddhism, originally little more than psychology and ethics, is today a religion and the only probable world rival to the two other propagandist religions, Christianity and Islam. Islam has a closed creed. Christianity is writhing in its own bonds but will burst them. Buddhism has none. Buddhism is spreading in China."
