MINIATURE FIELD DAY AND PEANUT DRIVE ON SATURDAY

Laughter and merriment abounded in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Eby, Fourth Ave. W., on Saturday evening, the occasion being a peanut drive, and a field day in miniature, in which many guests joined with great enthusiasm. Miss Thomas proved herself quite a heroine with the hatpin and annexed the first prize in the peanut drive.

The story contest was the cause of much laughter, and Mrs. T. Priest was the winner with high honors. Miss E. M. Earle proved a very efficient and capable mistress of ceremonies. Delicious refreshments were served at 11 p.m. and at midnight a very successful evening came to a too early close.

Among those present were: Mrs. R. G. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Priest, Miss Beatrice Bates, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jacks, Miss Alice Monocour, Miss E. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wilkinson, Miss Thomas, Miss Hughes, S. Webb, Harry Love and S. M. Newton.

MACK SENNETT COMEDY AT THE WESTHOLME

Feature Film is Full of Fun and
Also is a Good Story

Mack Sennett comedy is the feature at the Westholme tonight "Love, Honor and Behave" is not a loose-jointed assemblage of "gags," "stunts" and "chases" but a legitimate story from which arise comedy situations that crowd and jostle each other, so closely do they follow one another. But with the skill of a painter mixing his colors, Mack Sennett avoids the monotony of mirth by the injection of legitimate appeal, human interest and thrills, so that when the beholder feels that he can laugh no longer, he is not surprised with mirth but is given the sobering influence emanating from a real and interesting story.

CROWD HEARS CONCERT SMITHERS LAST WEEK

Sum of $140 Raised for Worthy
Purposes by Shamrocks

SMITHERS, April 3.—The Smithers' Hall was crowded on Thursday night at an Irish concert given in aid of the Bulkley Valley hospital here and the Nursing Home at Telkwa. The stage was appropriately decorated in green and black with the harp in gold mounted at the back of the stage. The proceeds amounted to $140 net. Every item on the program was applauded and there was much favorable comment afterwards on the quality of entertainment put on by the Shamrocks.

AUCTION AT BULGER'S PROVES ATTRACTIVE

Many Get Good Bargains; Being Continued This Week.

A new departure in auction sales took place at Bulger's, Third Avenue, on Saturday last when a large crowd of citizens attended both the afternoon and evening auctions. Horace Dorner, who is in charge of the auction, proved himself a past master at the game and his whimsical selling ability was really much enjoyed, although he proved himself master of the situation at times.

One can go into the store and choose an article required when the auctioneer will put it up right away for auction. Some wonderful bargains have been carried away by lucky purchasers.

Anyone who is out on a bargain should drop in at Bulger's and take advantage of the sale. The high class stock carried at Bulger's is to be cleared out regardless of cost.

The ladies were in great evidence at the opening sale and evinced a keen sense of values. Undoubtedly Bulger's store will be a popular rendezvous for the buying public during the balance of the auction.
