HALIBUT CATCHES CONTINUE LIGHT

Expected Run of Herring Will Soon Be on—Has Started off Alaska.

Halibut arrivals continue to be light and it is likely that the month of January will show a small total of fish landed at this port. This, of course, is the quiet time of the year for the fishing business. Yesterday the Confidence arrived with 1000 pounds of halibut, which was shipped to Seattle. The Albafross is in today with 42,000 pounds.

It is expected that the herring fishing will commence in a short time but so far no Canadian boats have arrived with catches although some have been out prospecting. There has been a little landed at Alaskan ports and a small quantity of it has reached here.
