He had ever urged that all loans made by United States be properly secured loans for reproductive purposes. Such loans would benefit the American people by making additional business and ond and fourth Friday work.

The President dubbed as "atrocious" the suggestion of Governor Roosevelt that the Supreme Court had been politically controlled. He defended the sanctity and independene of the Supreme Court which he had ever sought to maintain.

In closing the President asked his audience if the American people chose "to carry on along the lines of the traditions of the race with policies based on the foundations of our forefathers or be deluded by sinister revelations and veiled promises?" He could, at least, give assurance of the road he intended to

The Upward Trend of Public Confidence

ONEY rates are a barometer of conditions. Lower interest rates and consequent rising bond prices indicate confidence. This upward trend of confidence has been evident in the important financial centres of the world.

Investors have recognized the encouraging world-wide tendency toward lower interest rates by subscribing heavily to recent public issues. There is cause for satisfaction in the fact that bonds of the Dominion of Canada are sharing in the improvement that is taking place.

Plan Now to Buy the New Dominion of Canada Bonds

On Monday, October 31st, there will be offered to the Canadian public an issue of $80,000,000 Dominion of Canada 4 per cent, bonds, 1932. They will be offered at a discount which will provide an income yield in line with present interest rates. This issue will offer Canadians an opportunity to obtain the soundest investment for their savings and, at the same time, to render an important national service.

As an investor and as a citizen --- for your individual benefit " and for national advantage --- plan now to buy the new Dominion of Canada bonds when they are offered on Monday.

This preliminary advertisement is published by the DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE to enable Canadian investors to make arrangements to participate in this offering.
