OPPOSED TO CHANGE HOLIDAY JUST NOW

Dan Jabour Fears May Lose Cannery Trade by Closing Any Day But Wednesday

"I am in favor of changing the half holiday to any day except Saturday," said Dan Jabour to the Daily News yesterday, "but I do not think we should make the change until the beginning of the year, or not before October at any rate. The people working at the canneries know we are closed Wednesdays and they will not come here that day. If we make a change just now we are going to lose business. If we change to Thursdays those people will come here on that day and go away and we shall lose their business. I am not in favor of a change just now. I think the end of the year would be the time to make the change, if it is made."

Mr. Jabour said they should make an effort to cater to the business of the cannery people and to make any change just now would be fatal.

NEGRO FOR CONGRESS

Effort Being Made to Nominate Colored Man for New York Constituency.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(Canadian Press).—For the first time in nearly a quarter of a century the United States Congress may have a Negro member after March 4 next. A concerted effort is reported among Negro leaders in the Twenty-first district, embracing the greatest colored belt in the city and a part of the fashionable Riverside Drive section, to nominate one of their own race in the Republican primary.

Representative Martin C. Anson, the present member from that district, is a candidate for renomination. The colored men mentioned as his probable opponents are James Weldon Johnson, secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of the Colored People, and William H. Ferris, editor of the Negro World. Both are reported as having strong backing among members of their own race as well as some white politicians. It is not likely that both will enter the primary, as this would insure Anson's renomination. An effort will be made to concentrate the Negro vote behind one of them.

There are approximately 35,000 Negro voters in the 21st District, which is more than 40 percent of the total vote of the district.

DIARRHOEA is Dangerous To Teething Babies DURING HOT WEATHER

Hot weather is a dangerous time for the babies when cutting their teeth, and all mothers should watch very closely for any sign of diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera infantum or any other bowel trouble.

There is no remedy so safe and effective for diarrhoea as Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and all mothers who have used it speak of it with the greatest of confidence. Mrs. James E. Green, Vermilion, Alta., writes under date of Aug. 18th, 1921 as follows:—"A week ago my baby boy, just one year and four months old, started cutting two stomach teeth, and was so sick he couldn't eat or sleep, and had the diarrhoea most terribly bad; his rectum was raw and bleeding, but after giving him Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry regularly for three days he was as well as any boy could be. I wouldn't be without your grand remedy for untold gold."

"Dr. Fowler's" is for sale at all dealers; price, 50c. a bottle; put up by The F. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

COTTAGE GHOST

Phantom in Scotland Likes Children's Bed Best.

Considerable interest has been aroused by an alleged ghost which appears to have taken up its abode in a cottage at Ledaig, Argyllshire, ten miles north of Oban, and the strange visitations there have been the subject of investigations by the recently instituted Glasgow Society for Psychological Research.

Five members of this society, which includes in its membership many names well-known in the west of Scotland, visited the "haunted" cottage of Baravulin, Ledaig. So far, however, no details of the visit have been made public.

Some little time has elapsed since the ghostly manifestation became the subject of gossip, but the first authoritative description of the circumstances is contained in a letter from Mr. Donald McKenzie, the tenant of the cottage.

Mr. McKenzie states that the "spirit" does not, as has been reported, sleep in bed with the children.

"It certainly gets into bed beside them at times," he writes, "but never sleeps. The fact of the matter is that it is always very much awake."

"I may also state that the room occupied by my children is not plastered but wood-lined, so that the person reporting in the matter could only have had a very vague idea of the happenings, the house, or its surroundings."

"I got in touch with the Society for Psychological Research, and five of the members, some of them very eminent people came to investigate, but they did not sleep in my house. They had rooms in the district. "Those members saw, heard and felt the phenomenon, and it remains with them to report on the matter. It is a case for the keen scrutiny and common sense of science only."
