HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS' PARTY

Delightful Affair Held Saturday Morning In I.O.D.E. Hall

HIGH SCHOOL HI-JINKS

On Saturday morning the I.O.D.E. Hall was the scene of a colorful event. This was the High School Girls' Club Hi-Jinks. There were about seventy girls present, all in costume. Tramps and ladies of the "gay nineties" mingled with Japanese maidens and pierrottes and pierrettes while a bride and groom chatted with Tweedle-dum and Tweedle-dee. Spanish señoritas danced with Hawaiians and gay gypsies. These were but a few of the varied ensembles present.

The "ladies" of the party competed in a popularity contest—which was won by Miss Betty Cameron. Following this was the Grand Parade, led by the last year's President of the Club, Miss Helen McCaffery, Miss Dorothy O'Neill and Miss Thekla Fulton, as Bride and Groom, were awarded the prize for the most original couple. Two awards were made for the most artistic couple, one to Miss Hadi Suehiro and Miss Noriko Yamanaka as dainty Japanese girls, the other to Miss Mary Mathers and Miss Grace Watkinson, the picturesque gypsies. The comic awards were made singly, the two winners being Miss Helen Clark and Miss Pat McAllister. Miss P. Gwyer and Miss M. Delaney and Miss J. MacDonald the judges, came to their decisions only after a great deal of discussion owing to the many and varied costumes.

Dancing and games in the gaily decorated hall whiled away "Saturday morning blues." Further entertainment was rendered by a piano solo by Miss Helen McCaffery, two vocal selections by Miss Betty Cameron and a violin solo by Miss Edith Johnson. Refreshments were auctioned off by Credly Morgan and Lucille Brooksbank, who were relieved, when they became exhausted, by Miss Betty Parlow and Miss Pat McAllister.

The kind donation of a box of apples was greatly appreciated and much enlivened the party.

After refreshments, the girls learned of their past, present and future, through the medium of Madame X., in this case not an unknown quantity, but Miss Patricia Gwyer. At 12:45 the gathering broke up, with every hope for programs just as pleasant to follow.

Enjoyable Dance By Toc H Society

A delightful young people's dance was held by the local Toc H Society on Friday night, there being a good attendance at the affair. Accordion music was furnished by Julius Welle and Bill Lyons was master of ceremonies. Gordon Viereck presided at the door.

Dancing started at 8:30 p.m. and concluded at 1 a.m., delicious refreshments being served at mid-night.

MURDER ON GRIDIRON

Unique Mystery Picture is "70,000 Witnesses" at Capitol Theatre First of This Week

Phillips Holmes, Dorothy Jordan, Charlie Ruggles and Johnny Mack Brown head the cast of "70,000 Witnesses," a thrilling murder-mystery set on the football gridiron, which comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre as the first of the week feature attraction.

The story has to do with the attempt of a gambling ring to "fix" a big football game by eliminating the star player of the favorite team. They fix it so well that the star, breaking loose and enroute to a touchdown in a clear field, is suddenly seen to stagger, stumble and fall. Physicians find him dead with not a mark on his body to explain how he was killed although they know it is murder.

The boy's teammate and buddy and a clever detective finally solve the case, however, and it is here that the keen interest of the story comes in.

Holmes plays the part of the teammate with David Landau as the detective. Brown is the victim and Ruggles is a wise-cracking reporter covering the game by radio. Dorothy Jordan is the girl in the cast which consists mainly of men and includes, among others, J. Farrell MacDonald, Lew Cody, Walter Hiers and Paul Page.
