BERLIN IS STILL POPULAR RESORT

Many Americans Visiting in German Capital This Autumn

BERLIN, Nov. 21.—Although the tourist season in Germany usually is on the wane when autumn sets in, September's daily influx of strangers in Berlin was just as heavy as in July. Nearly one-tenth of the arrivals from abroad were Americans.

The total number of visitors was 123,875, of which 32,224 were foreigners. Of the latter, 3,162 were Americans, Czechoslovaks headed the list of nationalities with 3,339.

REVEALING CHARACTER

"Another fine little way to study character is to watch the faces of people while they are reading the jokes of a 'Topics of the Day' feature," states Charles A. Leedy in his jolly "Jokes and Jabs" column of the Youngstown, Ohio, Telegram.

You're right, Mr. Leedy! In watching a typical family group while "Topics of the Day" was flashed on the screen, we observe them registering their emotions as follows: Father—appreciation; Mother—approval; older daughter—amusement; older son—delight; little daughter—enjoyment; little son—glee.

Yes, indeed, under the happy spell of the reel of press wit, everybody gives immediate register of their feelings and those who evidence a keen sense of humor are usually pretty good sports, eh?

G. A. McNicholl, assistant general freight and passenger agent of the C.N.R. returned on the Prince George today after a business trip to Winnipeg.

W. D. Vance, city treasurer, is a great booster for this kind of weather, at least for the brand in which high winds and frost are conspicuous by their absence. This morning he reported that he had in his garden some pansies and asters coming out in bloom again after the heavy frost some day ago when the blooms were killed.
