Waterfront Whiffs

For all the stork has the best idea of a Xmas gift. The Admiral has signified his willingness to stand as godfather to the little princess and undoubtedly the christening will be marked with much nautical pomp and ceremony. Good luck to you and yours George, is the hearty wish of the waterfront boys.

Harry Gilbert, the popular skipper of the launch 23, is still sojourning in Victoria but is expected to return to port early enough in the coming year to get the little boat running smoothly for the Salt Lake summer trips.

Another Turkey

The boys are struggling again trying to win another big fat turkey, which rumor has it is already stuffed with a full bottle for New Year's Day. The first round consists of the following brainy suggestion: Geo.
Douglas v. W. Knight; H. M.
Daggell v. Steve Carter; Doc Clapperton v. J. Mcintosh; Ed.
Shrubsall v. C. W. Kirkendall; Pete Solum v. W. Shrubsall.

H. M. Daggell and our old friend Doc have already kindly withdrew to prevent any hard feelings. Bill Shrubsall is making a very bold bid to grab the bird and he is always grooming about the high cost of living and says "How can a man be expected to live with grub selling at $5.00 a bottle."

Quite Ready

The bald-headed Gibson, Capt.
Pete Jensen, which has been tied up for the past month, has just completed a thorough overhaul and will leave for the high seas over the week end.

The old reliable Pair of Jacks, Capt. J. Ivanson, which has also been resting, is once again in excellent shape to wrestle with the elements and will leave port with the Gibson.

Confidence on Rock

The launch Confidence, of Ketchikan, ran onto a rock in the Melakatta Passage on Thursday afternoon, her skipper having hugged the shore a little too close. The offending rock was submerged by the high tide. Capt. Swanson and the Pachena were on the job early and at the high tide yesterday morning succeeded in refloating the wayward boat. No damage was suffered and the Confidence, after calling into port, left for Ketchikan with Mr. and Mrs.
W. Balazone aboard.

MAKE BIG FIND

Nova Scotia Association Finds $10,000 Worth of Oil Paintings in Old Residence it Bought

OTTAWA, Dec. 30. (Canadian Press)—One of the most remarkable occurrences in the history of the association is recorded in a letter to G.W.V.A.
Dominion headquarters from the branch at Bear River, N.S.

After purchasing an old residence with a view to turning it into a club house, several large oil paintings, reputed to have been done by a famous English artist, were discovered buried under an accumulation of wall paper. The paintings have been viewed by two American experts, who have placed a value upon them of at least $10,000.

The circumstances leading to the find are somewhat interesting. Bear River branch of the G.W.V.A. is one of the oldest in the province of Nova Scotia. It has some 70 members. About eighteen months ago, after having raised funds by means of entertainments, etc., the house in which the painting were subsequently found, was purchased by the club.

The citizens of the town and district did not think kindly of the idea, declaring that the veterans were taking on too great a proposition. The accidental discovery of the paintings followed, and steps were at once taken to have them fully exposed. They were then thoroughly cleaned and retouch-ed by one of the members.

The paintings were quite ancient and show scenes of Halifax and Halifax harbor in the early days. They are stated to
English artist who visited in Halifax for a considerable period and went to Bear River on fishing trips. A number of offers have already been received from the United States by the Bear River branch for the paintings, but the veterans have thus far withheld the sale, hoping that the pictures may be retained in Canada.
