VIENNA AMUSED OVER AN AFFAIR OF HONOR

Dr. Stein Wishes to Fight His Landlord But Refuses to Quit Lodgings

LONDON, Eng., July 3.—(Canadian Press).—An unemployed shop pail is rather an exceptional ground for an "affair of honor," but Dr. Stein, lecturer on Byzantine Art at the University of Vienna, apparently thinks it is sufficient ground for a duel. The Vienna correspondent of the London Times tells the story of Dr. Stein's challenging his landlord, Dr. Werth, a bank manager in Vienna, to mortal combat as the result of a trivial grievance the university professor thought he had against Dr. Werth.

Stein was a lodger in Werth's house. He complained of laziness and carelessness on the part of the housekeeper. Her services were bad, he said—and she never emptied the slops. "No gentleman can question that you are responsible for the omissions of your servant," Stein wrote to Werth. "I therefore expect you to take the necessary steps at once. If not, I shall regard it as a deliberate provocation."

The landlord replied briefly to the effect that he had not time then to attend to the matter, but would do so later. Thirty hours later he was waited upon by two men who told him that their principal considered himself insulted and demanded satisfaction on the field of honor.

As Dr. Werth refused to regard the behavior of his servant sufficient ground for a duel, the two seconds drew up a statement in which they declared that, as Dr. Werth refused satisfaction, the affair was settled on one side only. This meant, according to the duelling code in Austria, that Dr. Werth might be thrashed by his opponent, or was at least incapable of giving satisfaction.

Dr. Stein gave expression to his feelings by glaring at the landlord and his wife whenever he met them in the passage. As the household was somewhat upset by the whole matter, Dr. Werth took the fairly natural course of giving his lodger "notice." In Vienna, however, the rights of the tenant are safeguarded by the law, and a landlord cannot eject his tenant without right and proper grounds.

The case has been brought into court, and is being tried in proper form, to the general amusement of everybody.

For Baby's Woollens

The little woolly garments for Baby must be kept soft or they will irritate the tender skin. Washed in Lux suds, Baby's woollens will keep beautifully soft and fluffy. The thin satin-like flakes of Lux are made by our own exclusive process, and dissolve instantly into a lather as harmless as pure water itself.

Just dip Baby's clothes into a bowlful of the rich Lux suds—rinse them, squeeze out the surplus water and hang to dry.

There is nothing like Lux. Sold only in sealed packets—dust-proof!

SMITHERS

September 20, 21 and 22 have been set as the dates for the fourth annual Smithers Fall Fair.

Principal C. R. Elsey, Miss J. Sangster and Miss H. I. Sangster have resigned from the Smithers school staff. Miss Anne Fetherley of Chilliwack and Miss K. Chapelle, of Vancouver have been appointed to the staff while several applications are still being considered for the position of principal.

Miss Hattie Isabel Sangster and Charles Elsey were married here last week and have left to spend their honeymoon in the south. Both were formerly of the Smithers public school staff. They are not returning to Smithers.

John Hynes has been awarded the contract for the building of the race track on the Smithers fair grounds.

D. D. Rolston, of Vancouver, is opening up a hardware and sporting goods store and repair shop in Smithers.

A new fair building is to be built here in time for the show this fall.

The Catholic Church is buying two lots on First Avenue on which will be built a priest's home.

PAYS TO ADVERTISE SAYS CLERGYMAN

Would Further Spread Gospel Through Columns of Newspapers.

NEW YORK, July 4.—News-papers advertising to further the spread of the gospel is strongly advocated by the publicity department of the Episcopal Church, which has brought out its recommendations, after a thorough study of the question of advertising, in a pamphlet entitled "A Handbook of Church Publicity," issued under the authorization of the National Council of the church.

"No one can look at the newspapers and magazines and doubt that it pays to advertise," says the Rev. Robert F. Gibson, Executive Secretary of the Publicity Department, and author of the text book. "Why should not this method of such proven efficiency be used for the propagation of the Gospel? Advertising is not necessarily sensational. It merely seems to be so because we are not accustomed to it for church purposes."

One of the striking features of the book is Mr. Gibson's strong advocacy of the fullest use by the churches of the advertising columns of the daily press not only for mere church notices, but for spreading the Gospel among the masses.

Persons or Organizations.

"We have thought of publicity in the newspapers as merely a method of giving public notice of a service or a meeting, or of making public the account of something that has taken place," says Mr. Gibson. "We have thought too much of building up the attendance at a service or of exploiting persons or organizations. We are only beginning to think of church publicity in the public press as evangelistic in purpose. The newspapers themselves are really far ahead of the churches in their recognition of this evangelistic opportunity. Many editors are convinced that the problems of the world will never be solved rightly until Christian principles are applied and that therefore it is one of the functions of the public press to present and apply Christian principles."

"Advertising with an evangelistic purpose," says Mr. Gibson. "Where the aim is to reach the unchurched, must be in the newspapers."

Brief Sermons.

Mr. Gibson suggests a form of advertising to churches which will take the shape of a miniature sermon, "briefly interpreting some passage of scripture or briefly applying some Christian principle." Sermonettes, of a hundred words in length, with the name of the preacher and his church annexed are also recommended.

Mr. Gibson's conclusions and recommendations are the outcome of a resolution adopted by the National Council at its Washington meeting last July.

Church promotion by radio, moving pictures, posters, etc., is also considered in the handbook.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

Minimum price of first-class and reduced to $5 an acre; second-class to $2.50 an acre.

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land.

Partnership pre-emption abolished, but series of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emption with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 2 acres before receiving Crown Grant.

Where pre-emptor in occupation no less than 3 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may be granted of 10-hectare or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be issued, provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $500 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained in less than 3 years, and improvements of $10.00 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years are required.

Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his first, without action on occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads, title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

For grazing and industrial purposes areas exceeding 40 acres may be leased by one person or company. Mill, factory or industrial sites on timber land not exceeding 40 acres may be purchased on conditions include payment of stumpage.

Natural hay meadows inaccessable by existing roads may be purchased conditional upon construction of a road to them. Rebate of one-half of cost of road, not exceeding half of purchase price, is made.

PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT.

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under the Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the great war. This privilege is also made retroactive.

No fees relating to pre-emption are due of payable by soldiers on pre-emption recorded after June 24, 1918. Taxes are remitted for five years.

Provision for return of moneys accrued, due and been paid since August 4, 1914, on account of payments, fees or taxes on soldiers' pre-emption.

Interest on agreements to purchase town or city lots held by members of Allied Forces, or dependents, acquired direct or indirect, remitted from enlistment to March 31, 1920.

SUB-PURCHASERS OF CROWN LANDS.

Provision made for issuance of Crown grants to sub-purchasers of Crown Lands, acquiring rights from purchasers who failed to complete purchase, involving forfeiture, on fulfillment of conditions of purchase, interest and taxes. Where sub-purchasers do not claim whole of original parcel, purchase price due and taxes may be distributed proportionately over whole area. Applications must be made by May 1, 1920.

GRAZING.

Grazing Act, 1915, for systematic development of livestock industry provides for grazing districts and range administration under a Commissioner. Annual grazing permits issued based on numbers ranged; priority for established owners. Stock-owners may form Associations for range management. Free, or partially free, permits for settlers, campers or travellers, up to ten head.
