BOOTH MEMORIAL SCHOOL AFFAIRS GIVEN AN AIRING JOINT MEETING SCHOOL BOARD AND CITY COUNCIL.

elsewhere in the city they would not press for one in the school. So far no other proposition for one had seemed to be approached.

Ald. Perry explained that the real reason the council had turned down the swimming tank was on account of the proposal that the tank be a public one. The question of supervision and ability of the heating system to provide for it had also been considered. Personally he would not like to see a public tank in a school house.

Ald. Silversides was of the opinion that the main objection of the council had been on account of the construction of the school.

Disappointment.

Dr. Kergin then recited the history of the building of the school. It was built along similar lines to many other schools in Canada. Architect Potter had prepared the plans which had been accepted by the school board. The plans and specifications had been sent to Victoria and Edmonton and had been approved. The school had been built and no one in the council was as deeply grieved now as was the school board. The way the school had turned out had been a great disappointment. They had had all the advice in construction that had seemed necessary. The architect had been puzzled and there had been various theories advanced as to why the water was coming through. It was the opinion of the architect that waterproofing would remedy the leakage, but so far there had bene no opportunity to apply this on account of the frosty weather. If that failed cement would probably have to be put on. The school board had done all it could to make the building fit. The air was pure on account of the ventilation and he did not believe that the dampness was injurious.

Reserve Criticism.

Mr. Patmore reiterated the statement of Dr. Kergin that the school board had done all it could. The plans and specifications had been generally approved. The water had come through 18-inch walls. This had been unheard of before. Until the waterproofing had been tried out he thought that criticism might be reserved. The city had a school of which it might be proud.

As far as the swimming tank was concerned, he thought that training in swimming in such a place as this was as important as mathematics.

In answer to Mayor Rochester, Mr. Patmore said that the waterproofing was not a part of the original contract and had been unforeseen.

Ald. Montgomery said it was not his purpose to criticise the school board. If the building was in bad condition it must be remedied. His children had been sent home several times and on some occasions had to wear their coats in school. To him the school did not appear sanitary. If he had built it he presumed it would have been condemned and he put in jail.

"Honestly, I am afraid to send my children to the school when the thaw comes for it might tumble down. If that happened it would be worse than tearing it down and rebuilding it. If it is not safe it is up to the school board to shut it down. Expert advice should be obtained. The very fact that the children have been almost frostbitten there shows that the heating is not adequate."

Ald. Montgomery said that he did not think the building had been correct. He had heard that stones had been picked up near the roof with practically no signs of mortar. He was afraid of the structure of the school and feared a collapse. It fairly made a man tremble to hear some of the things that had been said. It was up to those in charge to investigate.

Relief Gangs on Job.

Ald. Dybhavn said he agreed with the principle of the swimming tank, but the condition of the school should be remedied before it was even thought of. The general condition of the school should be the first consideration and if conditions remained as they were at present he would not for a moment consider the question of a swimming pool. As far as the playgrounds were concerned, the city intended to put its relief gangs on this work and would probably accomplish more than the school board would if it did the work. He agreed with Ald. Montgomery that if conditions were not as they should be at the school it was the duty of the architect to see that they were before he asked for the last cent of his fees.

Mayor Rochester said that Ald. Dybhavn's views coincided with his. The city was trying to keep expenses down as far as possible this year. The city engineer was preparing to have relief gangs started on the school playgrounds.

Dr. Kergin said that if the city would undertake the playground work it would be satisfactory to the board. As far as the swimming tank was concerned, it had only been provided for in the estimates at this time on account of the Rotary Club's offer. The board welcomed criticism of the school. He would like to know if Ald. Montgomery thought it should be closed up now.

"I think that steps should be taken to get expert advice instead of dilly-dallying," said Ald. Montgomery.

Mr. Patmore asked Ald. Montgomery if the government architect would be a satisfactory person to examine the school.

Ald. Montgomery said that if he was satisfactory to the school board he would be satisfactory to the council. He thought Mr. Patmore was "joshing" when he said they should be proud of the school. Personally, he was not.

A Mare's Nest.

Mr. Patmore thought Ald. Montgomery had been listening to street talk and had fallen into a "mare's nest." It would be awful if there was a catastrophe, but every street rumor could not be listened to. He had looked into some of them and had found them unfounded. If there was any blame it should not be laid at the door of the contractor. The architect was responsible and as far as he was concerned he would not get his money until the school "stood the gaff."

"What have you done? Have you invited an outside architect to make an examination?" questioned Ald. Montgomery with some heat. Surely the board was not satisfied with the school. He claimed that the school board had done nothing and had taken no steps to put it in sanitary condition and avoid a collapse.

Mr. Patmore rose to a point of order. The meeting was not called to discuss the way the school had been built. That was the business of the school board and not Mr. Montgomery's.

Ald. Montgomery claimed that, as a man with a family, he had a right to discuss the school. It was bad taste on Mr. Patmore's part to say that it was nobody's business but the school board's.

Mayor Rochester then asked that the meeting get back to the subject.

Trustee McLennan stated that if it was working too much hardship on the council to finance the swimming tank, he thought the board might meet its wishes. As far as the school was concerned he did not think the builders or the architect knew what was the trouble. If the waterproofing failed then expert advice would be sought.

Dr. Kergin stated that the reported instability of the walls was something new to him. If there was anything in the suggestion the school board would be agreeable to an investigation.

Mr. Patmore said the city engineer might make an investigation and if in his opinion there was danger, eminent advice might be secured.

Mayor Rochester stated that it was the intention to have the city engineer take the matter up.

Alderman Satisfied.

Ald. Montgomery said that he was satisfied now that the school board was taking the matter seriously. Even ff it took $20,000 or $30,000 to remedy the situation it should be spent. The school board and the council should work together and there should be no show of temper. If he had said anything to which Mr. Patmore had taken exception he would withdraw it.

The committee then arose and the estimates, as amended, were adopted.

SORES SPREAD All Over FACES AND BODIES.

Mrs. Howard Roulette, Wasl atenau, Sask., writes:—"I wish to tell you of the benefit we have received by using your valuable medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters.

My children started to break out on their faces with small white pimples which kept getting larger each day. Pus would form under the scabs and they would come off, and each time the sores would be larger; some were as large as a twenty-five cent piece, and would spread all over their bodies. I was nearly in despair and sent to the village for a bottle of good blood medicine. The druggist sent me a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, which I commenced giving them at once.

In about ten days I saw an improvement and they grew steadily better each day, and in one month the sores had all disappeared."

All blood and skin diseases are caused by bad blood, and to get it pure and keep it pure you must remove every trace of the impure and morbid matter from the system by a blood cleansing medicine such as a remedy that has been on the market for the past forty-five years, and one without an equal for all diseases and disorders of the blood.

Pretty Affair Held in Class Room of General Hospital Yesterday Afternoon.

A very successfuly tea was held yesterday afternoon in the Hospital under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary. A large number of ladies called and the sum of $44 was realized. The nurses' classroom was arranged for the occasion and the tea table was tastefully decorated with daffodils and narcissus. The pretty uniforms of the pupil nurses, who assisted in serving, added to the brightness of the scene.

Mrs. T. C. Pringle, president of the auxiliary, and Mrs. McLeod were the onveners and they were assisted by the members. Miss G. Black, lady superintendent, assisted Mrs. Pringle in receiving the guests. Mrs. G. A. Eggert, Mrs. L. W. Kergin, Mrs. W. T. Kergin, Mrs. H. E. Tremayne, Mrs. J. P. Cade, Mrs. J. A. West, Mrs. T. McClymont, Mrs. S. P. McMordie and Mrs. G. Whitehead took turns in pouring tea and coffee and serving the ices. Mrs. J. J.
