BUILD NORTH IN ALBERTA

Government Decided to Extend Four Existing Railways to Northward.

EDMONTON, Mar. 28.—Without the loss of much time in the thrashing of old straw, the Alberta Legislature approved in committee of the house four bills providing for the construction of almost forty miles of new extensions to the government railways of the north. Fifteen miles will be added to the Canada Central, extending westward from Grande Prairie; thirteen miles will be built westward on the Canada Central from the present new terminus at Berwyn, west of Peace River, and eleven miles will be constructed at the northerly end of the Lacombe and Northwestern.

In addition the house through the medium of these bills provided for the expenditure of $514,456 for reconditioning work on the A. & G. W. railway, and $740,000 for improvement work on the E. D. & B. C. system, these amounts being already authorized by votes in the annual estimates for the year.

The house applauded when, in regard to the necessity of the province gaining consent of the McArthur interests and the Union Bank for further extensions and expenditure on the E. D. & B. C. Premier Greenfield announced that the Canadian Pacific officials had given him an undertaking that they recognized themselves wholly responsible for all operating deficits on the E. D. & B. C. system, under agreement with the government of two years ago. He
